CM Pacific Capital Group Expands Distribution Network with American Alternative Capital

Newport Beach, California – November 3, 2025 – CM Pacific Capital Group (“CMPCG”), a multi-sponsor distribution platform focused on Delaware Statutory Trusts (DSTs) and real-estate private placements, has entered a strategic partnership with American Alternative Capital (“AAC”). The collaboration expands CMPCG’s reach into the independent broker-dealer and RIA channels and strengthens its ability to deliver institutional-quality alternative investment offerings.

With decades of combined experience, CM Pacific’s leadership team — including Founder & CEO Mike Crimmins, Michele Wiens and Abigail Wiss — brings deep expertise in sponsor relationships, advisor engagement and brand development. “Partnering with AAC allows us to expand our distribution footprint and provide financial professionals with access to high-quality alternatives for their clients,” said Mike Crimmins.

AAC’s Founder & CEO Jason Kavanaugh added, “We are pleased to welcome the CM Pacific team. Their proven track record with sponsors and advisor-first approach align perfectly with our mission to deliver institutional-quality solutions nationwide.”

Currently, CM Pacific distributes offerings from sponsors such as Proterra Investment Partners, Revitalization Unlimited and Leitbox Storage Partners, with additional sponsors expected to join in the coming months. The firm continues to grow its team and invites professionals committed to integrity, service and results to explore opportunities with CM Pacific.

This partnership reinforces CM Pacific’s mission to connect financial professionals with alternative sponsors through a relationship-driven and transparent approach, in alignment with AAC’s commitment to delivering institutional-quality offerings to the advisory market.
