Christ-Centered Sober Living Coaching with Austin Priddy

1. Purpose

This document confirms that I understand the coaching services provided by Austin Priddy may include Christian faith-based components such as prayer, biblical teaching, scripture-based reflection, and spiritual encouragement. These components are intended to support individuals on their path to sobriety and personal growth through a Christ-centered lens.

2. Participation

I acknowledge and understand that:

- All coaching services are Christ-centered and include faith-based components such as prayer, scripture, biblical principles, and spiritual encouragement.
 - While my personal beliefs may differ, I understand that these spiritual components are an integral part of the program and will be included throughout the coaching process.
 - I will not be denied coaching services based on my personal religious background or beliefs.
 - Confidentiality and respect will always be maintained, regardless of my faith background or personal spiritual journey.

3. Nature of Faith-Based Services

I understand that Austin and Chelsea Priddy's approach:

- Is rooted in Christian values and biblical principles, with the goal of encouraging healing, identity restoration, and life transformation through Christ.
- May include discussions of morality, forgiveness, grace, and purpose through a Christian worldview.
- Is not associated with any one denomination and is not intended to impose religion on others, but rather to offer support from a faith-based foundation.

4. Boundaries and Respect

I understand that:

- All clients are welcomed and treated with respect regardless of faith background.
- Coaching sessions will always honor boundaries, dignity, and personal convictions.
- Any discomfort with spiritual discussion can be addressed directly and without penalty or judgment.

5. Consent

I consent to the following:

- I affirm that I understand the nature of the faith-based components offered in this coaching relationship.
 - I give my informed consent to include faith-based support in my coaching experience, as discussed and agreed upon with Austin and Chelsea Priddy.
