Dr. Akshay Kapoor

CESR Pediatric Gastroenterology, Fellowship Pediatric, Gastroenterology (IBD subspecialty), MD [Pediatrics], MBBS

Dr. Akshay Kapoor is a GMC-registered Consultant in Paediatric Gastroenterology with over 15 years of specialist experience in the UK, Canada, and India, currently serving as the Clinical Lead for Paediatric Inflammatory Bowel Disease (IBD) at Sheffield Children's NHS Foundation Trust. He holds CESR accreditation in paediatric gastroenterology and completed a prestigious IBD subspecialty fellowship at The Hospital for Sick Children (SickKids), Toronto.

Dr. Kapoor has a growing medico-legal practice and is instructed in complex paediatric GI cases involving IBD, liver disease, coeliac disease, and functional gastrointestinal disorders. He is trained in medico-legal report writing and courtroom familiarisation through Bond Solon. His reports are clear, evidence-based, and grounded in active clinical and academic expertise, with turnaround typically within 2 weeks of instruction.

He has authored over 30 peer-reviewed publications and serves as a Principal Investigator for multiple international, multicentre drug trials in paediatric IBD. Dr. Kapoor is a JAG-certified colonoscopy trainer, recipient of the FISPUGHAN Young Investigator Award, and an active contributor to national and global paediatric GI research networks. He is a member of ESPGHAN, BSPGHAN, NASPGHAN, and multiple international paediatric GI societies.
