Mr Faddy Kamel

BMBS PhD FRCS

Mr. Faddy Kamel is a GMC-registered Consultant Colorectal and General Surgeon with over 15 years of surgical experience and advanced expertise in colorectal cancer, minimally invasive surgery, and biomarker research. He holds a PhD in molecular biomarkers of colorectal cancer from the University of London and was awarded his CCT in General and Colorectal Surgery in 2023.

He currently works as a Locum Consultant at Croydon University Hospital, having trained across leading NHS trusts in the London Deanery and completed a research fellowship at Ashford & St Peters Hospital. He is also a published author with contributions to major colorectal journals and a co-author of an upcoming FRCS viva reference textbook.

Dr. Kamel is now building a dedicated medico-legal practice with British Medical Experts. He is regularly instructed in cases involving colorectal cancer misdiagnosis, surgical complications, bowel perforation, anastomotic leaks, rectal bleeding, hernia management, and elective vs emergency decision-making. He produces clear, well-reasoned reports with a turnaround time of 2 weeks from instruction.
