Those in attendance: Kevin Griepentrog, Lori Seliger, Lisa Redfern, Tammy Guite, Shaughn Novy

Minutes: Secretary Lisa Redfern read the minutes of the January meeting.
The minutes were accepted as written and posted.

Old Business

- Tammy Guite confirmed she has TJ Clayborn for Sat and Zach Hedberg for Sunday clinic. Kevin Griepentrog asked for a projected budget for the Fall Horse Festival this year to send to Horse Council. Tammy and Shaughn will send their information to Kevin.

Tammy Guite asked to have Mark Jenkins and his daughter Kayma put on a ranch riding demo.

Kevin will talk to Red Wagon Concessions about adding free pancakes to the breakfast on Sunday.

Tammy confirmed that Riverwind Ranch has an upgraded sound system that will be provided for this year's Fall Horse Festival.

It was agreed upon that there will be a non refundable fee of $50 for informational tables and $80 NRF fee for vendors as well.

Lori Seliger and Shaughn Novy will both check into bleachers respectively.

Shaughn will email us a sponsor form. She is just working on a cover letter then we will have it this week.

Horse Council News- Kevin Griepentrog brought up various subjects the WHC is discussing at this time.

Tammy Guite will contact Rolling Hills Tack shop and Saddlery for a vendor slot and will talk to Laurie Fuller for a mustang demo.

She also stated that she would like gift certificates for her volunteers that help with the Fall Horse Festival.

Lisa Redfern sent a link to Tammy from Walmart that she could explore for different kinds of certificates.

Shaughn Novy will be in contact with Roberta Lawson and Maleah Redmann for a mustang demo.

It was agreed upon that next year's date for the Fall Horse Festival will be October 9th and 10th at the Riverwind Ranch in Merrill Wi.

Lori asked if we could put a sponsor letter out at the Marathon tack swap this Feb 28th.

It was agreed upon that we will have a save the date reminder and Lori will make copies and have them available to pass out at tack swap.

Shaugh Novy said she will be there that day as well to go in person to recruit sponsors. She also stated that we are in need of a graphics person. Shaughn will reach out to who we used last year and secure that as well.

NEW BUSINESS:

Shaughn Novy stated that CASE will be putting on an event in September at the Heinzen Pavillion. It would invite families to learn more about the horse industry, featuring tourism and agriculture.

Kevin Greipentrog stated that we should have our meetings set up for Zoom as well for other members that are not able to come to the meetings in person.

Lisa Redfern agreed to set that up for next month's meeting.

Our next meeting is set for March 14th at the Mill Yard in Merrill Wi. @ 11:30 am

Motion to adjourn meeting was made by Shaughn Novy and seconded by Lori Seliger

Respectfully submitted,

Secretary, Lisa Redfern
