

Secondary Teacher

6th-12th Grades

Full-Time 10 Month Position

Position Overview

We seek a passionate and innovative Secondary Teacher who is energized by students' creativity, inquisitiveness, and intelligence and shares our commitment to progressive education. The ideal candidate will create a dynamic and engaging learning environment that encourages student exploration, inquiry, and collaboration. This position involves teaching at 6th-12th grade levels with co-teaching interdisciplinary classes in a multi-age setting with a focus on project-based learning.

Key Responsibilities

Plan, prepare, and implement appropriate lessons and activities based on students' developmental levels and learning styles in the secondary grades.

Create and deliver a hands-on, emergent, project-based program that aligns with the school's mission and the developmental needs of secondary students.

Collaborate with other teachers to implement lesson plans.

Utilize technology to support student success, especially Google Drive, Google Docs, and Google Classroom.

Provide differentiation and support for all types of learners in one's subject areas.

Provide effective and actionable feedback on students' work and inquiries.

Demonstrate best practices for differentiating instruction in all academic areas to support student learning.

Engage in curricular reviews, professional development, and curriculum design to support students and faculty.

Maintain knowledge of current and emerging content in one's academic discipline.

Enhance curriculum and student engagement with relevant lessons, guided practice, and age-appropriate technologies.

Value and incorporate diverse perspectives in daily student interactions and design a curriculum that fosters engagement, inquiry, risk-taking, and confidence-building.

Establish a nurturing, organized, and joyful learning environment where students feel safe and valued.

Foster a sense of community, empathy, and respect within the classroom through positive guidance and modeling.

Work closely with assistant teachers, other staff members, and families to support student success and maintain a cohesive secondary program.

Build strong partnerships with families through regular updates, conferences, and open communication about their students' progress and experience.

Observe and document student learning, growth, and development to inform instruction and provide meaningful feedback to families.

Ensure a clean, safe, healthy classroom environment, adhering to all school policies and licensing requirements, and always providing appropriate supervision for students.

Participate in ongoing training and professional growth opportunities to stay current with best practices in secondary education.

Actively participate in school-wide events, meetings, and committees to support the overall mission and vision of Main Street School.
