Constitutional Amendment for Congressional Term Limits

Amendment XXVIII

Section 1. No person shall be eligible for election to the office of the Senator from any State, or as a Representative of the House of Representatives, after serving twelve years, being no more than two full terms as a Senator and six full terms as a Representative, respectively, after the date of the ratification of this article.

Section 2. The limitation on the number of terms for Senators and Representatives shall apply only to terms to which such person shall be elected after the date of the ratification of this article. This amendment shall not apply retroactively to any current members of Congress.

Section 3. Congress shall have the power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.
