DELEGATES FAQS

When will Shiloh Registration end?

Registration ends Sunday 25 November 2023

Will I be picked up from the Lagos Airport?

Pick up of delegates from the Murtala Mohammed International Airport, Lagos as well as return to airport after the end of Shiloh is arranged by Canaanland team and we cannot always guarantee their timeliness or availability. Delegates are advised to make their own personal arrangement for transportation from the airport, pre-arrival/departure. Lead Delegates will not be able to support with this. PLEASE DO NOT CALL THEM FOR THIS.

Will there be transportation for us within Canaanland?

Transportation between hostels/hotels and the Faith Tabernacle Auditorium is arranged.

What types of accommodation are available?

There will be Hostel accommodation (within Canaanland) and Hotel Accommodation (outside Canaanland). For delegates who have requested Hostel accommodation, we are unable to confirm which hostel accommodation will be provided.

What if I arrive at Canaanland during an ongoing Shiloh Service or after 11pm?

If you arrive during a service, please send a WhatsApp message to Lead Delegates on numbers below, notifying them of your arrival. They will reach out to you after the service to provide the necessary support.

Why would the driver not come back to the hostel to pick me up as I woke up late and missed the bus shuttle?

Transportation is only made available to get delegates to the auditorium in time for the start of each daily session and return delegates to their accommodation at the end of each session. Any delegates not ready to leave at agreed departure time will have to make alternate arrangement for their transportation.

Will church provide us food and water during Shiloh?

Delegates will not be provided with food during the programme. All delegates should make arrangement for their feeding at Canaanland.

Will I get a refund if I do not stay in the allocated accommodation given to me on Shiloh ground?

All paid accommodation and registration fees are non-refundable. Pre-booked Canaanland hostels and hotels do not refund us for any unused hotel accommodation.
