The dream is free,
the reality will cost." - Dr. Tonya T. Wise

Tonya is a highly sought-after international keynote speaker, coach, strategist, and consultant. She is inarguably one of the most compelling, charismatic, and captivating voices in motivational speaking today. A champion of personal and financial empowerment and advocacy for women for over three decades, Tonya has become a leading authority in the areas of financial literacy, entrepreneurship, and money management. She trains individuals, business owners, and entrepreneurs worldwide and teaches them to identify their financial goals, develop strategies, and overcome obstacles so that they Affectionally known as the "Dream to Reality Coach," Coachette Tonya challenges clients to unapologetically use their life experience and expertise to level up, invest in themselves, and pursue the life of their dreams. She mentors passionately, guiding them to create better financial decisions by mastering money techniques. Leveraging over 35 years of Corporate America experience in the finance industry, Tonya is on a mission to educate audiences on how to transform their relationship with their money so they can unapologetically give themselves permission to experience the financial freedom, stability, independence, and security they deserve. Through sharing her personal journey of how she bounced back after going through a time when in less than two years, she found herself divorced, 75k in debt, grieving the loss of her firstborn, her only son, and nearly losing everything, even her desire to live, Tonya challenges her audience to embrace their next level. She empowers others who may be at a pivotal time in life to shift from living an ordinary life to living life on their terms.

Tonya's extensive leadership expertise has earned her invitations to speak on some of the world's most powerful stages. Her exceptional skills have allowed her to deliver thought-provoking keynotes to live and virtual global audiences of the industry's most prominent people and organizations, including Tony Robbins, Dean Graziosi, Eric Worre's Network Marketing Pro, and Shawn Fair's Leadership Experience Tour, aired to millions of viewers on the Onstage Plus global network, to name a few.

In line with her unyielding passion for helping others financially succeed, Tonya serves as Owner and CEO of All New Beginnings, LLC, a global company that encourages, equips, and empowers leaders to lead, learn, and live a life of purpose, significance, and a determination to go after personal and financial goals. As a well-known figure in her community, Tonya is a dedicated leader active in various community and professional organizations, including serving at Liberty House International Ministries. She is also a visionary recognized for her leadership, commitment, and contributions to her community and the next generation. Her work has been featured on prominent media platforms such as ABC, NBC, FOX, and CBS, talk shows, radio, and podcasts, and in leading newspapers and magazines, including Black Hair Magazine and iMatter Magazine, among others. THE COMPANY

All New Beginnings, LLC offers professional financial coaching, consulting, and counseling to enable women to address their financial challenges and needs and plan for their future. We have become one of the most sought-after organizations for developing powerful, professional, financially empowered women. Through empowerment and transformative activities, we encourage our clients to take ownership of their lives and create positive change. We understand that our clients are in various stages of life: starting a business, purchasing their first home, financing a child's post-secondary education, or planning for retirement. We recognize that everyone's economic and life situation is unique, and we consider that when providing advice, establishing personal and professional goals, and developing a strategic game plan.

THE PRESENTER

Tonya T. Wise is a highly sought-after international keynote speaker, coach, strategist, and consultant. She is inarguably one of the most compelling, charismatic, and captivating voices in motivational speaking today. A champion for personal and financial empowerment and advocacy for over three decades, Tonya has become a leading authority in the areas of financial literacy, entrepreneurship, and money management. She trains individuals, business owners, and entrepreneurs worldwide and teaches them to identify their financial goals, develop strategies, and overcome obstacles so that they can live their best lives and leave an inheritance. THE PRESENTATION

When it comes to money matters, what you don't know can hurt you. A National Financial Educators Council report shows that 38% of women in a recent survey said their lack of financial literacy cost them hundreds of dollars and set them back financially.

Tonya T. Wise gives an empowering and thought-provoking keynote discussion on the importance of financial empowerment for women. She discusses how economic empowerment is about women being confident about themselves, earning an income and managing their finances, building their financial security, and increasing their influence over the household budget. She shares her work helping women with families, careers, and the desire to leave an inheritance. She inspires women ready to level up and invest in themselves and their families. Her message instills hope in women who have a desirable destination in mind; but may need guidance, a blueprint, or help to navigate there. Attendees of her discussions walk away feeling empowered and with better vision, strategies, tools, and resources to achieve their financial goals.
