

Terms of Service

Effective Date: 6/20/2025

1. Purpose

These Terms of Service ("Terms") apply to your participation in our feedback surveys and/or early access programs related to the Chat Starter™ Client Acquisition System (CAS).

2. No Guarantee of Enrollment

Filling out the survey or submitting feedback does not guarantee entry into our beta program or that your ideas will be used. It's a collaboration opportunity, not a service contract.

3. Intellectual Property

By submitting feedback, you grant Lead Monkey Marketing the right to use your suggestions to improve our products. You do not transfer ownership of your business data or brand IP.

However, all platform workflows, automations, and tools provided by Chat Starter™ CAS remain the property of Lead Monkey Marketing LLC and are licensed for use under an active subscription only.

4. Acceptable Use

You agree to interact respectfully and refrain from submitting false or malicious information. Abuse or spam submissions will be disqualified and deleted.

5. Changes to Terms

We may revise these Terms as our services evolve. Continued participation implies acceptance of the most current version.
