Vol. 4, No. 9 December 2008

HAPPY HOLIDAYS!

From the Editor

Editor's Note: We apologize for the size of this month's newsletter. Because of the holidays and the editor's absence, the newsletter will appear earlier and shorter this month. Everything will be back to normal in January. All articles and pictures submitted will appear then. Thanks for all the support you have given me throughout the year.

Chef Ken K samples the chili

Chapter 1414's third monthly supper was very popular. This time we ate indoors. Host Ken Kresmery served chili. Many came to eat and many stayed to hear this month's speaker.

Our speaker was Keith Laken, executive director of Lifeline Pilots. Lifeline Pilots is a non-profit organization that serves as a referral service to connect people needing transportation to medical services with pilots who want to volunteer their time and airplanes to help others. Keith shared a moving video featuring both pilots and patients describing what this service has meant for them. Information on how to contact Lifeline Pilots, can be found by going to their website at www.lifelinepilots.org.

Keith Laken

Next month the chapter will host its Potluck Christmas Party instead of its regular meeting.
