AUTHOR SPEAKER MBA

Lonzine Lee loves being alive. An apostolic, prophetic, evangelistic teaching pastor, she is also a writer, worshiper, songwriter, editorial consultant, producer, and online talk show host. She enjoys exploring and experiencing the supernatural and prophetic encounters found in the Word of God. Her new program, Kingdom Conversations with Lonzine Lee will engage various fivefold ministers to hear about their own exploits for God and His Kingdom.

As a speaker and writer, Lonzine (known as PL to her congregants) has a passion to exhort others and help them to discover the golden treasure hidden within their earthen vessels. As an editorial consultant, she helps fledgling writers to find their voice, and assists ministers in amplifying their message.

Everything that she writes, teaches, ministers, or speaks is designed to encourage individuals to pursue, learn, and grow in their Kingdom of God identity, authority, and dominion power.

Her current writing projects include the workbook study guide for the first book in her Kingdom series, and completion of the second book, a fiction novella, and a series on Heavenly forces and Kingdom keys. She is also working with a few select writers to launch their own self-published books.

This is in addition to working alongside her team to produce a series of online programs that highlight God's power in the lives of everyday Kingdom citizens. Jesus is the reason that her life is so joyous, love-filled, and grand. She resides with her family in Northern California.
