Welcome to A Life Designed Membership Community

We are so pleased to welcome you! If you are ready to learn, share and practice as well as support change in our Member's lives (and maybe even your own life) for the better - you are in the right place.

As the world changes all around us, we see people we love move in and out of our lives, and the world of work evolves. You are joining a new group of positive, supportive people. Our goal for A Life Designed is to support the evolution of consciousness, individually and collectively. In this, we ask each Member to take personal responsibility for their conduct and interaction with others on the site.

We understand that our Members will begin in different places, and we hope all may benefit from your learning and practice experiences, your comments, and your questions until our Members are ultimately living the Life of their Dreams. Our wish is that each Member will experience a sense of purpose and of belonging to something much bigger than themselves.

We uphold the principle of Do No Harm and support Freedom of Speech while we respect the spiritual foundation on which A Life Designed is based. The rules are simple:

- 1 - Be kind. Keep it clean - avoid obscenity and derogatory language.
- 2- Abstain from commercial self-promotion and affiliate links. Our Contributors and Instructors can share their links at the end of their course content. We encourage a Website or Calendar link should a Member want to work with you directly.
- 3 - Violations of the peace and goodwill among Members of our Community will result in being dismissed from the platform.
- 4 - If you violate our Community Guidelines, your non-permitted content will be promptly deleted by our Community Moderators. Written notice will be sent 5 business days before your membership privileges are terminated. Should extenuating circumstances be present - discussions can occur over the 5 business day period.

We welcome a wide variety of viewpoints and do not discriminate. We expect our Community Members will be similarly diverse of background, orientation, and spiritual alignment.

The service of our mission, implied in our name, unites us. This Community works toward the Great Awakening for all. We journey together!
