Debbie Bryan

Award-Winning Leadership Expert, Podcast Host, Author, Renowned International TEDx Speaker And Speaker Mentor

Profile

Debbie Bryan is an award-winning leadership expert, internationally acclaimed TEDx speaker, best-selling author and speaker mentor who has defied the odds, emerging not only as a beacon of resilience but also as a leader in her field. Through her recent TEDx talk, “Turning Impossible into ‘I am Possible’”

Debbie Bryan shares her inspiring journey of overcoming adversity, transforming her life, and empowering others to do the same. Debbie’s remarkable story began 12 years ago when a life-threatening accident left her on the brink of being wheelchair-bound at the age of 55. Instead of succumbing to despair, she courageously reinvented her business strategy, becoming an international best selling author and keynote speaker.

Debbie empowers business owners to achieve greatness through focused determination, ambitious dreaming, and strategic planning. With a global speaking presence, she masterfully blends captivating storytelling and real-life experiences to inspire generations of entrepreneurs.

Her passion for personal growth and entrepreneurship shines in every presentation, simplifying complex concepts and motivating audiences to break boundaries. Debbie’s journey is a testament to her commitment to making a difference in the business world, leaving an indelible mark on countless audiences worldwide. Through her speaking engagements and as a speaking mentor, she continues to drive innovation and resilience in the entrepreneurial community, making her a powerful catalyst for success with a clear message to “stop being the best kept secret.”
