Questions for Personal Reflection and Group Discussion

1. Read Matthew 28:18-20.

Who are the people who have authority in your life? What kind of authority do they have? How do you respond to it/them?

What do these verses say about Jesus' authority? Do you consider yourself to be under His authority? If so, how are you living out His command in this verse?

2. Read 1 Corinthians 3:5-8.

What do you think Paul means when he refers to 'planting' and 'watering'? How would you explain it in your own words?

In what ways have you experienced people 'planting and watering' in your life?

How are you intentionally planting and watering the people God puts within your circle of influence? Especially those who don't know Him?

3. Read John 15:12, 1 Corinthians 13:4-7 and Colossians 4:6.

How do these verses shape your thoughts about what our planting and watering should look like?

Pastor Chris encouraged us to plant four kinds of seed: kindness, blessing, surprise grace, and winsomeness. What can you do to plant these kinds of seeds into the lives of those around you?

4. Read 1 Peter 3:8-17.

Which of Peter's instructions in the passage is the most challenging for you to live by?

Listening compassionately and speaking sparingly help to cultivate the soil of a heart that's hard toward faith. Who in your life needs these gifts from you?
