Questions for Personal Reflection and Group Discussion

1. Read Matthew 28:19.

When did you become a disciple of Jesus? What is your salvation story?

Have you shared this story with someone who doesn't know Jesus? If not, why not?

2. Read 1 Peter 3:15-16.

How would you explain to someone the reason for your hope?

How has God shown up for you when you needed to be rescued? What rescue story could you share with someone who needed some hope?

When and how has God sustained you in a season of struggle, when there was no answer or rescue?

How was your faith deepened and your relationship with God strengthened through that experience?

How has God shown up for you in unexpected ways?

3. Read 2 Corinthians 12:5-10, Romans 8:28 and 1 Peter 5:10.

What areas or types of weakness in your life need the healing touch of God? What do you need Him to redeem in you or for you?

Where have you already seen God redeem dark places in your life?

What story about weakness is God giving you to share with others? What would it take for you to share it?

4. Read Hebrews 13:21.

What is God doing in your life right now? What are you learning from Him? How are you growing?

Who needs to hear this story and when will you share it?
