

Peaceless – Finding Peace In a Peaceless World
Giving Peace Away
May 26, 2024

We have a responsibility to live in harmony with others.

-Be considerate.

-Be honoring.

-Be gentle.

Questions for Personal Reflection and Group Discussion

1. Read Romans 5:1-2.

How is it that we have peace with God? What are the results of this peace?

How should our lives be impacted because of this peace?

How should the reality of this supernatural peace in our lives affect those around us?

In what ways do you need to grow in sharing real peace with others?

2. Read Romans 15:1-7.

How does being considerate of others model peace?

What might it cost you to be considerate of someone in your family, neighborhood, workplace, or circle of friends who has a different perspective or preference than you do?

How will you choose to demonstrate consideration of others this week?

3. Read Romans 14:1-19 and Romans 12:10.

How is honoring someone different from being considerate?

Is there a circumstance or person in your life who is difficult for you to honor? Why is it a struggle? What is underneath the difficulty that needs to be dealt with in order to bring peace?

What step will you take to do something about it?

4. Read Ephesians 4:1-3.

What qualities should mark the lives of those who are called by God?

How do these character traits make you different from the world?

What might non-believers learn about God and about real peace, if believers were to live out Paul's instructions in this passage?

What could you do to bring a little more peace to those in your world this week?
