Your Morning!

Coach Livi Anderson

LIVI ANDERSON, CPLC
LIFE STRATEGIST & PROPHETIC
GUIDE TO POWERHOUSE WOMEN

Hey Powerhouse!

Welcome to the Manifest Your Morning family.
I'm thankful that you took the leap and made a commitment to shifting everything.

My name is Olivia and I'm so thrilled about this powerful move of God. The entire idea of manifestation has been tossed around social media for nearly a decade but the first time I read Romans 8:19, something shifted in me.

After years of tapping into my dream life, I never realized that what I was doing was manifesting. I just believed that the hard work combined with my natural gifts were yielding powerful results. One doesn't grow from homeless to international life coach by willpower alone.

The timing has to be right. The concept has to have legs. People have to care enough to tune in. I realized that I was walking out the Romans 8:19 scripture. I am the evidence (manifestation) that weeping may endure for a night but that joy comes in the morning. Things do get better.

Life happens but God is real and He is able to open doors in your life that no man can shut. Your job is to be strong enough and to believe enough in God's word and His power sitting on the inside of you.

Trust me: Once you truly believe that God is able to do miracles in your life, you will keep walking into your morning. These affirmations will help get there. They have helped me and hundreds in this community to break through. I can't wait to hear how these helped.

PEACE

DAY SEVEN AFFIRMATIONS

Hey Powerhouse!

Today's affirmations are all centered around peace for we know that the peace that surpasses understanding is a priceless gift from God. It helps you to wait and endure the birthing of patience (otherwise known as long-suffering).

Without this peace, you fail to wait. You fail to trust. You end up complaining about the very thing that is actually a blessing from the Lord.

I pray in the name of Jesus that the following affirmations help you to take hold of your peace no matter what is coming to defeat you.

6 Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God; 7 and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. - Philippians 4:6-7

Do a victory lap. This is happening for you. - Coach Livi

GRATITUDE

DAY EIGHT AFFIRMATIONS

Hey Powerhouse!

I find it interesting that gratitude is deemed a "quality" rather than a behavior or attitude. We've all heard the old saying that an "attitude of gratitude" will take you a long way. I added this definition at the prompting of the Holy Spirit and I can't help but wonder if in doing so, someone is understanding and getting ready to redefine themselves.

That is what qualities do; they define and characterize you. A lot of what others think of you is comprised of the outward manifestation of your inner qualities. A simple thank you and a heart full of peace will do wonders to show others that you are God's light in the earth. Also, despite what the world may tell you: It does matter what people think of you especially when they are God-ordained to pour into your life and help shift you into a new season.

It mattered what Boaz thought of Ruth. Ruth 3:10-11
It mattered what Hegai thought of Esther Esther 2:8
It mattered what Melchizedek thought of Abram.
Genesis 14:18-20

In all of these instances, favor flowed through the character and faith of the person being blessed due to the impression that character made upon a person of great influence.

I hear the Lord say that in this season, gratitude must become a part of your spiritual DNA. Despite the circumstances, you must give God the glory and flow in the chain-breaking, wall-shattering, earth-shaking power of gratitude. For the sake of these affirmations being as effective as possible, we will use gratitude, grateful, and thankful interchangeably. - Coach Livi

HONOR

DAY NINE AFFIRMATIONS

Hey Powerhouse!

Proverbs 3:9 (ESV) - Honor the Lord with your wealth and with the firstfruits of all your produce;

Exodus 20:12 (ESV) - "Honor your father and your mother, that your days may be long in the land that the Lord your God is giving you.

In both of these points of scripture, honor in context implies to respect and treat in high regard. To uplift. Yes, it's respect but it is so much more. It's respect with the intention to exhort and build another person, organization, or entity above yourself and beyond your emotions.

No one is perfect. People make mistakes. Truthfully, if your past mistakes were put on display, you wouldn't feel worthy of the very respect that you demand. This is the power of honor. It establishes relationship, heeds wisdom, repents quickly, and opens doors that no man can shut (Revelation 3:8-11). It is in this passage of Revelations that the words of Jesus flow from heaven as a promise and a reward. Because the true believer (you and I) spent our energy refusing to deny his name, he opens a door that no man can shut. It is a promise of elevation attached to the HONOR that we give Jesus and his name.

How much more so can we display the characteristic of honor daily than to uplift, build up, and exhort one another - especially those who have wronged us? Could it be that you have not seen breakthrough because you have refused to honor those among you? Let's change that right now. - Coach Livi
