Pumpkin Spice Gladness or Madness

You know it's fall,
When cooling air,
Reminds us all,
Of frights to scare.

The scariest thing,
Will not be ghosts,
Not wicked witches,
Or overzealous hosts.

It's the sweet vice,
Which begs the question,
Does sump'n nice,
Need pumpkin spice?

The craze rolls on,
Beyond all reason,
Arriving earlier
Each new season.

You all are nuts,
To chase it wild,
To crave that sip,
Like sugared child.

And yet I cheer,
Yes, I'll take mine,
With extra whip,
Would be just fine.
