The Commitment:

I, _____, (Youth) will be committed to abstaining from sexual activities until marriage. I believe that God has a purpose for my life. I will be committed to waiting for the appropriate time and the right partner. I know that this task will not be easy for me; therefore, I will keep open communication with my parents, program directors, and/or other group members. I will be open and honest with myself and others to successfully finish this course.

I, _____, (Parent/Guardian) will be committed to communicating openly with my youth regarding his/her feelings during this program. I will be committed to listening, reading, and participating in activities that will help my youth reach his/her goal successfully. I am also aware that this will be a difficult task for me; therefore, I will keep open communication with the program directors and/or group leaders.
