

International Conference of Police Chaplains

Commitment to Excellence

July 17-21, 2023

News Release

Chaplain Stan Hampton, Chaplain Shirley Hampton and Chaplain Dan Epperson of the Amador County Law Enforcement Chaplaincy attended the International Conference of Police Chaplains, thanks to the Amador County Sheriff Office for their support.

ICPC 50th Annual Training Seminar was held July 17-21, 2023, at the Arizona Grand Resort in Phoenix, Arizona. The International Conference of Police Chaplains is a multi-faith, multinational organization fielding over 2700 chaplains from 20 countries.

Basic, Enrichment, Liaison Officer Training courses and Advanced Training courses were offered to those in attendance.

The week's events included ICPC's annual Memorial Service, a touching tribute honoring all law enforcement officers who lost their lives in the Line of Duty May 16, 2022, through May 15, 2023, as well as a remembrance of ICPC Chaplains who passed during the preceding year.

Amador County Law Enforcement Chaplains (ACLEC) serve all Law Enforcement Officers and their families in Amador County, our mission is "To Serve & Protect the Protector through Emotional & Spiritual Support" For more information on Chaplaincy, please contact Chaplain Shirley @ shirleyh@amadorchaplains.org.
