

Honoring the Legacy. Inspiring the Future.

Brenton Wood Productions is proud to celebrate the legacy of Brenton Wood through tribute events, custom memorabilia, and cultural preservation.

About Brenton Wood

Born Alfred Jesse Brunson in Los Angeles, California, Brenton Wood rose to fame in the late 1960s with chart-topping hits like "Gimme Little Sign" and "Oogum Boogum." His smooth vocals and soulful style earned him gold records, international tours, and a devoted fan base that still celebrates his music today.

Our Mission

To preserve and celebrate Brenton Wood's musical legacy through unforgettable tribute events, custom merchandise, and meaningful cultural partnerships. We bring his story and spirit to new audiences while honoring the generations who fell in love with his songs.

Tribute Event Production

- Full-service planning and coordination
- Stage design, sound, and lighting

Merchandise & Apparel

- Custom event shirts
- Legacy-themed memorabilia
- Tickets
- CDs and vinyl records
- Pictures of live performances

Legacy Engagement

- Support for arts and foundations
- Collaborations with nonprofits and cultural groups

Honor & Learn

- Explore Brenton Wood's artistic journey
- Share stories, experiences, and fan tributes

Support the Cause

- All proceeds help bring the Brenton Wood Memorial Statue to life
- Volunteer or host a tribute event
- Share Brenton's story with others

Connect & Contribute

Celebrate Brenton Wood's legacy through direct community action. Every purchase, photo, and performance keeps his memory alive.

Our Offerings

- Merchandise & Apparel
- Custom Memorabilia
- Event Productions
- Tickets
- Raffles
- CDs & Vinyl Records
- Pictures of Live Performances

Main Goal

A Brenton Wood Memorial Statue

A portion of all proceeds will directly support the creation of a permanent statue in Brenton's honor.

Get Involved

For sponsorships or contributions, visit:

www.BrentonWoodProductions.com