4th May 2025

3rd Sunday of Easter

After Jesus was resurrected, He appeared to His disciples several times. Still, the apostles including Peter were inclined to go back to their old life, to their usual livelihood which is fishing. That was not what Jesus planned for them.

In the gospel reading today Jesus was there again at the time they had caught nothing.

When Peter realized it was the Lord, we see his willingness and his immense enthusiasm to meet His Lord and Master whom he denied three times. We see him ready to put the past behind and renew his relationship with Jesus.

We are all like Peter. Jesus calls each one of us to follow Him. We are also called to become fishers of men. Many times we become disappointed but at those times, Jesus would energize us with His body and blood in the Eucharist. Many times we deny Jesus through our sinful thoughts, words and deeds. Some of us would turn back on Jesus and abandon Him. Yet, Jesus does not give up on us. He continues to tell us, "Follow me." Like Peter, let us love the Lord despite our weaknesses.

Prayer for Vocations: Jesus invites His disciples to listen to His advice and to spend time in His company. We pray that the men considering a vocation to the diocesan priesthood will be inspired and encouraged through their prayer, meditation, and reading of the Scriptures.
