

O Sacrament most Holy

O Sacrament Devine

All praise and all

Thanksgiving

Be every

Moment thine

Lord I am not worthy

That you should enter
under my roof

But only say the word and my soul shall be healed.

Corpus Christi

Today's Feast is about the bountiful generosity of God and it is also about the deepest description of who we are as the Church; we are the Body of Christ. Today's feast is not just or simply about what we receive every time we celebrate the Eucharist; it is fundamentally about who we are.

During the celebration of the Eucharist we present the most ordinary of things to God; bread and wine; fruit of the earth and work of our hands. God accepts, blesses them and then through power of the Holy Spirit they become the Body and Blood of Jesus. God then surprises us even more and returns these new gifts to us out of love. The Eucharist is an expression of God's ultimate bountiful generosity. Our response can only be gratitude which is why when we receive the Body and Blood of Jesus, we prayerfully respond, Amen. May we never take this greatest of gifts for granted. It is God's gift given freely out of love to each of us.
