NAVY FOOTBALL:
University Champions

The Delts never had a chance.

"Dandy Don" Harvey speeds for a first down.

Tucker: Missed it by that much.

The crowd can't hide its excitement as Navy scores again.

The graceful movements of an athlete.

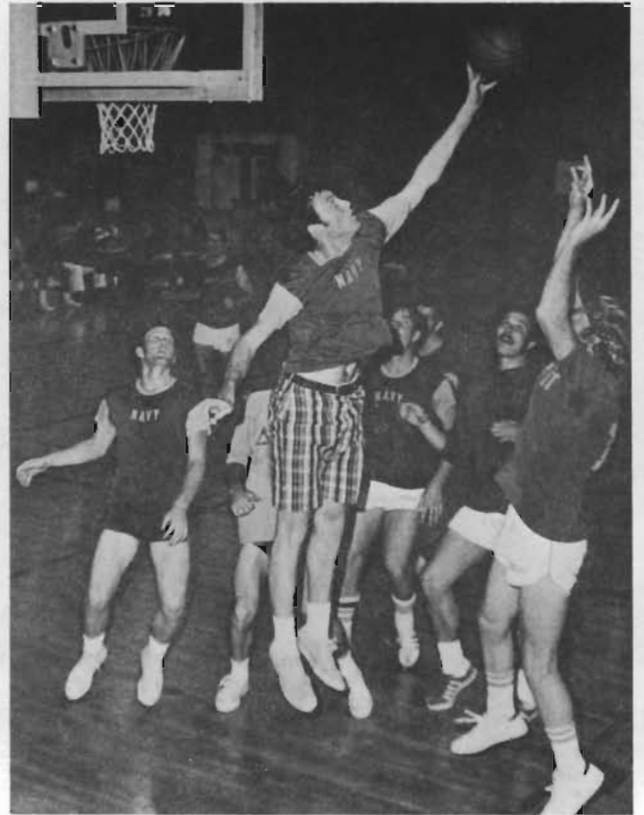

Captain Hilson congratulates captain Harvey on winning the intramural crown.

"Who's turn to score?"

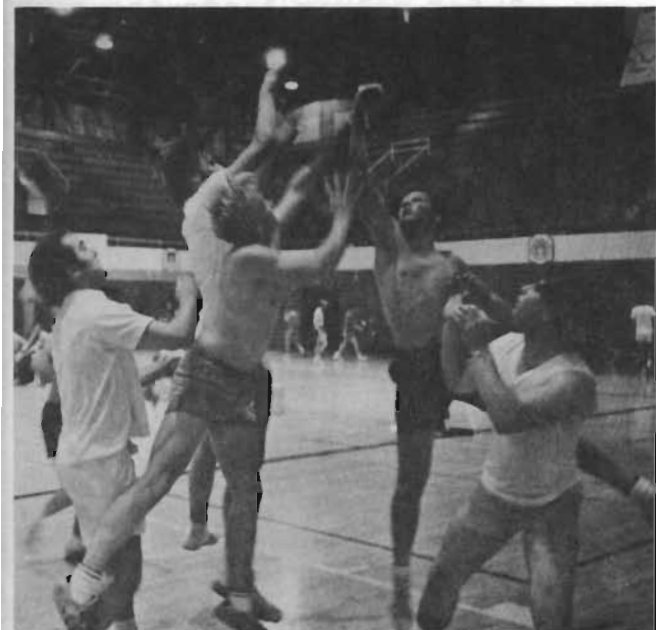

"Hey, look at the clumsy one!"

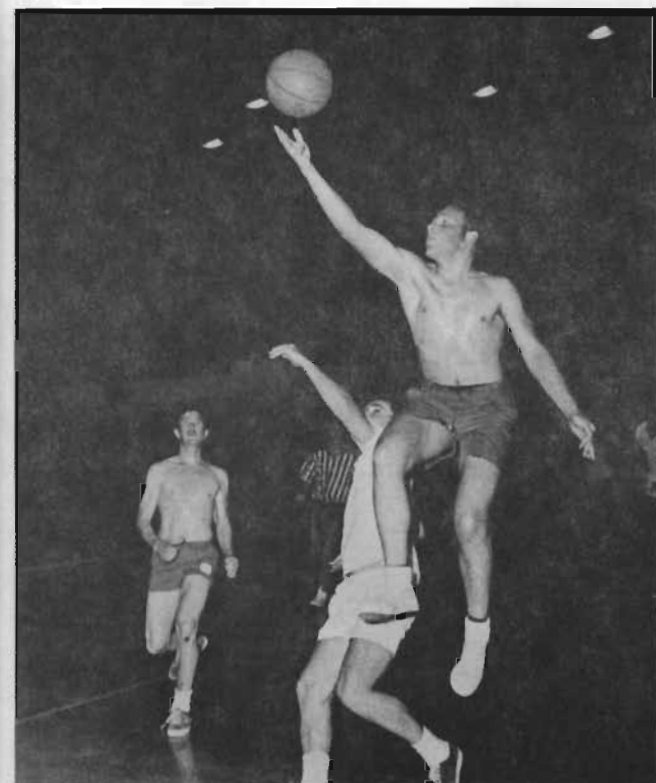

"Hands" Harvey comes through with the big play.

A breather between innings.

Mark Koch takes off for second base.

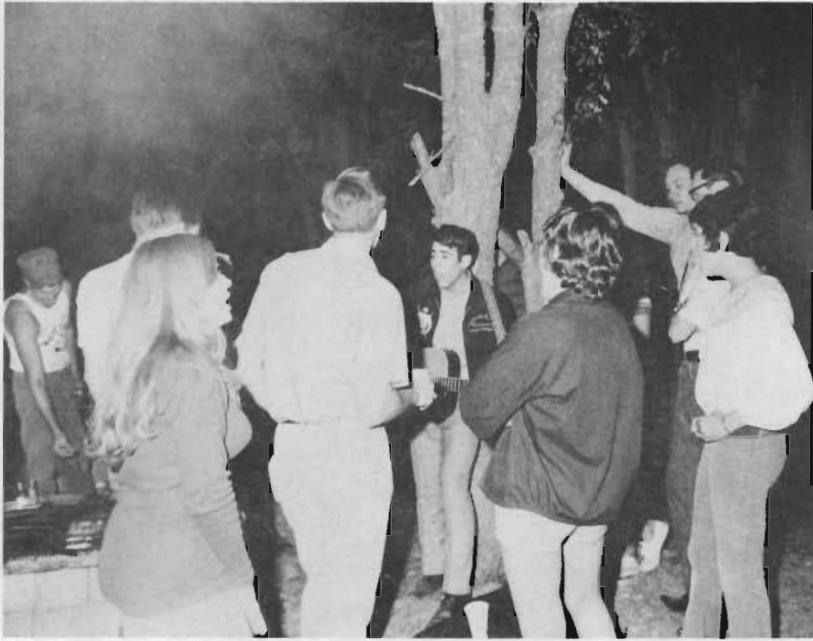

"Are you sure this is how to play handball?"

Carillo astounds the crowds with his aerial acrobatics.

Chief Walker leads the charge to the eats.

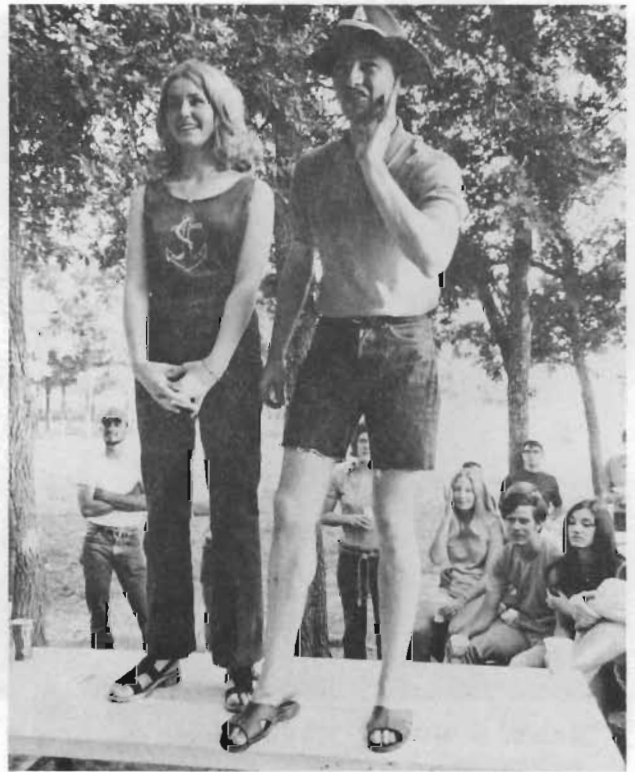

Capt. Hilson and the Hardys discuss the relative merits of light and dark beer.

Steve Howell competes in the bidding. . .

But smooth Bob Hopkins sucks the crowd for all its worth.

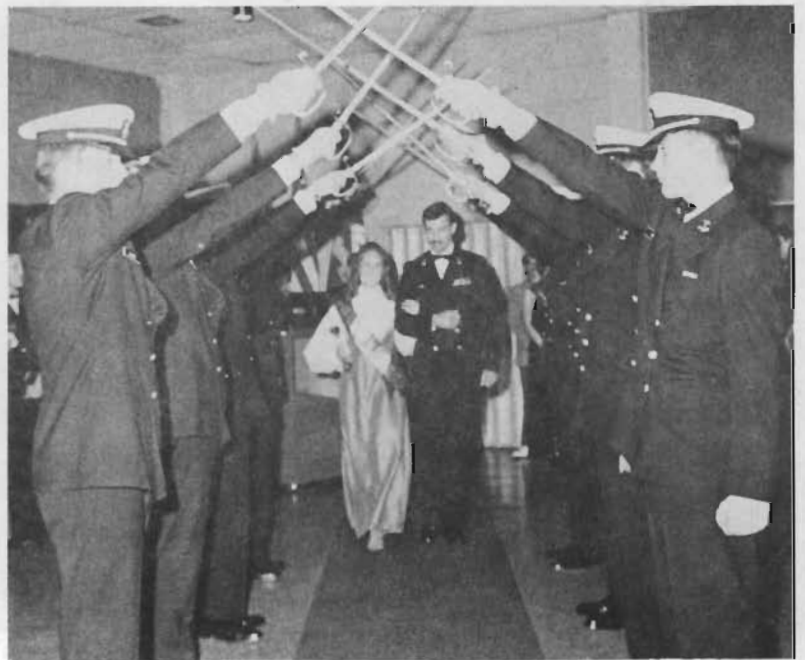

"Well if you won't buy the flower,
how about some spare change?"

"I don't really care to discuss the steam cycle right now."

What's wrong with this picture?

"Are you sure you want to go through with this?"

Shots!!!

Gov. Preston Smith was one of the first visitors to the Showcase exhibit.

Bob Hopkins giving his famous rendition of calling the battalion to order.

Capt. Hilson, Col. Magruder and Mayor Roy Butler: "I think we're about a quart low."

"What do you mean you don't want to join the Bucs? What do you mean you don't want to be a Marine? What do you mean Gen. Chapman's not the Commander-in-Chief?"

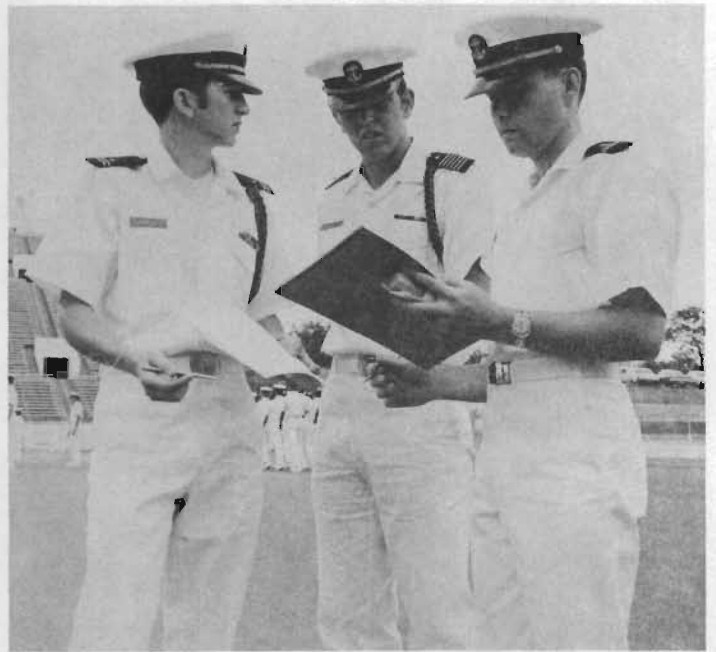

"Well, next to him I guess I like you best."

Need a haircut?

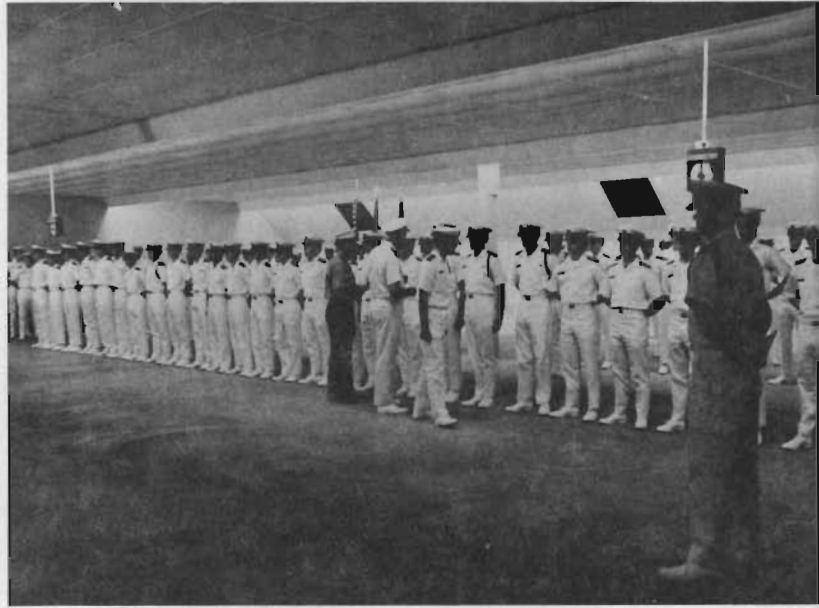

"It says 'Greetings.' "

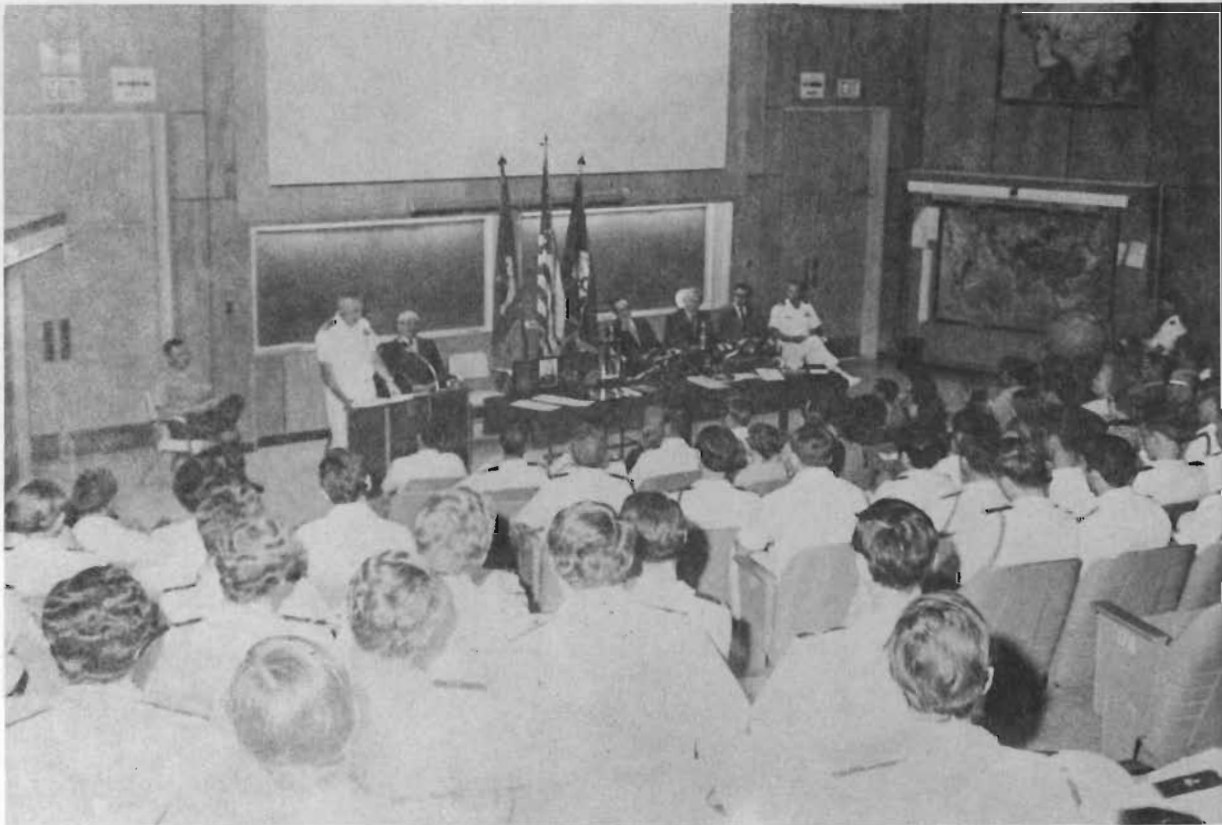

The intricacies of fancy drill.

Capt. Hilson recognized academic achievement and scholarship appointments at a special ceremony in the Rifle Range.

"You guys signed your papers yet?"

Awards Day

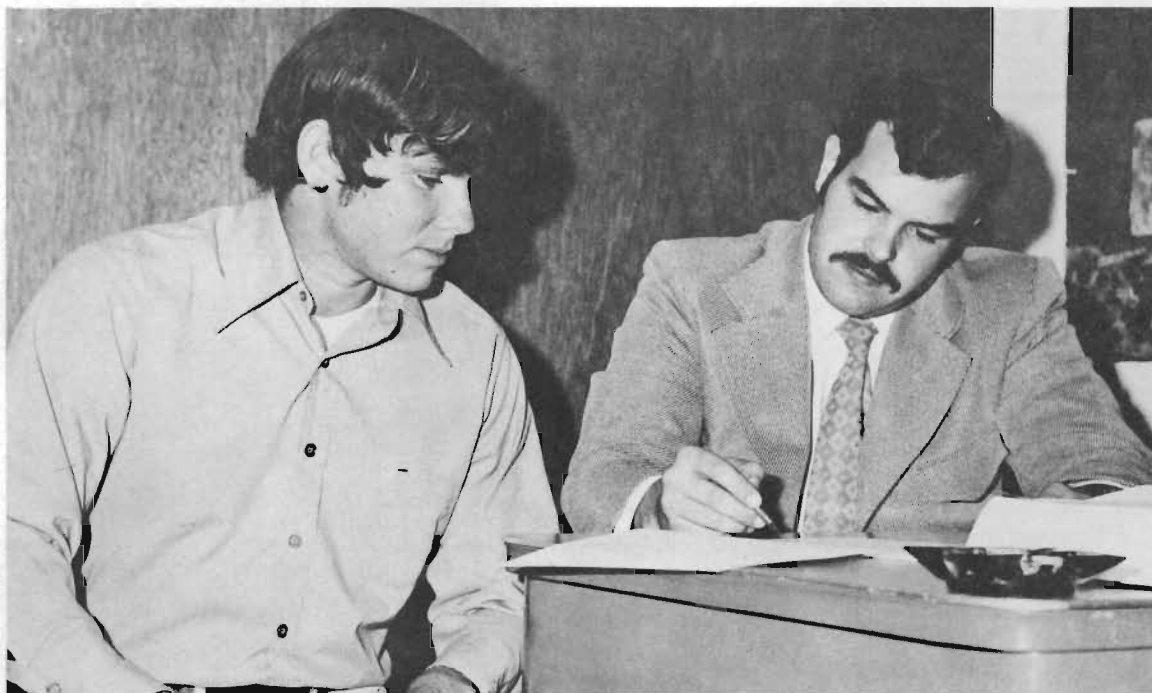

"Congratulations, Gil!"

13th Anniversary of service to Texas NROTC & officers

(Note: The Log would like to recognize the interest Jim Lozier and Kayo show in Unit activities.)

Kayo O'Keefe explains to Gil Bailey some of the many services available through his office.

The 1972 Longhorn Log was produced by Ron Camp, who regrets that due to lack of time and space, it was not possible to give much deserved attention and appreciation to those officers and midshipmen who provide the impetus for unit activities, and help us leave the University feeling that all those years weren't really so bad. The opinions expressed herein will hopefully be taken in the spirit with which they were submitted.
