9th Annual Alumni Reunion (November 4, 1995)

Return to: Photos Matrix

Texas Clobbers Tech 48-7

This year, our 9th annual reunion was carried out without a hitch despite the curve thrown by the University in changing at the very last minute to an evening game. We ditched the tailgate party; moved dinner earlier; and got everyone off to the game or cozied up in front of a TV at the American Legion Post.

If you missed the 1995 NROTC Alumni Foundation Reunion, you missed a great opportunity to visit with classmates or shipmates, look at Crow's Nest memorabilia and swap sea stories with other individuals who have been aboard ship or otherwise participated in the Navy or Marine Corp. We had a great turnout, excellent barbecue and to top it off we won the Texas Tech football game. If you have not participated in the NROTC Alumni Reunions, I would urge you to do so. I think you will find that it is great fun to renew old acquaintances and remember your midshipman days. There are generally two reasons why people get involved with the NROTC Alumni Foundation. First, to have an opportunity to visit with old friends and people who shared similar experiences in the military, and second, to help the deserving young midshipmen who really need our financial help at this point in their Navy/Marine Corps careers. Our PNS, CAPT Bill Graner has said that your membership in and donations to the NROTC Alumni Foundation are making a difference in the lives of young men and women who will be the leaders of tomorrow. Please get involved and we hope to see more of you next year.
