The Power of Asking

To ask is to acknowledge both our need and our hope. It is a courageous act to admit that we are not self-sufficient, that there are desires, hopes, burdens, and questions within us that we cannot resolve alone.

Jesus’ call to “ask” is an invitation to vulnerability—a permission to bring our whole selves before God.

Consider a child running to a loving caregiver with outstretched arms, confident that their needs will be met with tenderness. In the same way, when we pray, we are invited to trust that God listens, understands, and cares for us as beloved children.

Asking does not diminish us. Rather, it elevates our faith, for to ask is to believe that there is someone who hears and responds. It is an act of faith, a surrender of our pride, and a step toward deeper intimacy with God.

HURRICANE PRAYER

God, All-powerful Father, Christ, our Savior, Spirit of Love, You reveal yourself in the depths of our being, drawing us to share in Your life and love. Be near to the people formed in Your image. Close to the world, Your love brings us to live. Save us from all harm. Draw us ever closer to You as we confidently seek Your protection from the destructive force of all storms which frighten us. Let every hurricane or natural threat of disaster serve only to blow us ever more securely into Your loving, merciful embrace. We ask this, Father, with the intercession of the Virgin Mother, Mary, Lady of all Nations, through your Son, Jesus Christ, and the Holy Spirit, God, for ever and ever. Amen.
