

One Hundred Books Club

Attached you will find a template to record your child's reading. We leave it up to you whether you type in the information or make a copy and hand write the information. We are hoping that each child will read a minimum of one hundred books. Students will receive a prize when they have met the hundred book goal. We hope you and your child enjoy the special time you have together reading.

