Cancellation Policy

Cancellation Policy

When signing up for the Daily Content Plan for Busy Fucking Women Membership, you're signing up for an automatically recurring monthly (billed every 30 days OR billed every calendar year from payment date) payment which can be canceled. The Daily Content Plan for Busy Fucking Women has a "cancel anytime policy". All cancellation requests must be done at least 5 days before a charge happens, as there are no refunds for processed charges (see below).

In order to cancel, please email our support team at support@brennangassaway.com. Follow the instructions from our team during the cancellation process to ensure your account has been canceled. If you don't receive a cancellation confirmation email within 24 hours (during business days), your cancellation has not been processed and you should contact our team at support@brennangassaway.com again to ensure your cancellation has gone through.

For monthly memberships this means that if you fill out a cancellation request 5 days before your next billing date, and receive a cancellation confirmation email back, you will not be charged again in the future and you will still have access until the end of your paid month.

For yearly memberships this means that once you fill out a cancellation request 5 days before your next billing date, and receive a cancellation confirmation email back, you will not be charged again in the future and you will still have access until the end of your paid year.

Our membership allows you to see all past Masterclasses, Q&As, bonuses, content etc and The Facebook Group while you're an active member. As a membership service, access is not granted for life, so once the paid period is up, access to past content is revoked.
