Case Study

There Is Always Enough Time

Breakdown

Angela came to me with the vision of a company that helped corporatepreneurs leverage their existing skills to create a new company and build it from the ground up.

Challenges

Structure

- While Angela had a wealth of experience helping others build and manage their companies, she wasn't sure of the exact approach to use in building her own.

Time

- As a full-time 9-5er, mother, consultant, and wife, balancing her time to build the business was a constant struggle.

Results

In just 4 sessions Angela walked away with a structured program model, course outline, defined audience, systems selection, and accountability to launch and grow her successful business for years to come.
