Meet the Adjudicator

MELANIE STEEL

Melanie Steel brings a wealth of experience, knowledge and passion to the adjudication panel, with an extraordinary career spanning across elite performance, dance education, choreography, and design.

A former dancer with The Australian Ballet Company, Melanie lived the dream for a decade, touring internationally and performing in soloist and principal roles in some of the world's most prestigious theatres. She holds an Advanced Diploma of Dance (Honours) and completed the RAD Advanced (Honours) Solo Seal, showcasing her exceptional classical foundation.

Following her stage career, Melanie founded the New England Ballet School, where she directed and choreographed full-length productions and trained students in both Vaganova and RAD methods. Her expertise has extended to education programs for The Australian Ballet, setting final assessments for QUT's third-year dance students, and adjudicating the RAD Bursary Finals in Victoria.

A passionate advocate for performance, stagecraft and education, Melanie has adjudicated competitions across Australia. Her eye for detail and deep understanding of technique, artistry and presentation make her an inspiring and insightful adjudicator.

*We have made the decision to combine our masterclasses across age groups this year. In line with the Canberra Dance Collective ethos, we believe that a unified masterclass will foster a sense of community and allow younger dancers to learn alongside their senior peers. Instructors will tailor the exercises to accommodate varying skill levels.
