POPPY DONALDSON

Teacher and Choreographer Poppy Donaldson is currently based in Melbourne but was Born in a small town in NZ. Poppy has been Teaching for 16 years starting at just 14 years old, Poppy started her teaching career choreographing community theatre and running dance classes in her hometown in NZ, this opened the door to more choreography and teaching opportunities while Poppy Finished her High Schooling. After graduating high school Poppy completed her certificate in dance focusing on Contemporary and Ballet at “Hagley School of Dance” in NZ before she was offered a scholarship to train full time at “The Edge Performers School” in Melbourne in 2012. Whilst in Full time Poppy performed at many events all over Melbourne and was part of Urban Beat Hip Hop crew. Whilst performing and training Poppy realized her true passion laid in Teaching and Choreography this has always been her dream since a young child. Poppy’s teaching credits range from “Skip Regional dance company”, “Masters of choreography” & “Rise the Performance Experience” as a featured choreographer to taking a team of dancers to compete at KAR Dance National Finals in Las Vegas Nevada where they made it to showcase finals night and made top 5. Poppy has worked all over Australia and Nz choreographing many styles and in recent years sharing her knowledge of turns and dance technique with dancers, teachers and studio owners alike. Poppy believes every dancer brings something special to the stage and can’t wait to see you all perform.
