PONDER/DISCUSS:

- How do you think the internet is affecting the manipulation of the public mind?
- In the previous module, I said the most dangerous technology on the planet is language. Why do you think that is?
- What are some ideas that you, yourself, have embraced without question because you've heard them repeated so often?
- What are some ways you are seeing language being used – now – to program reality? Whose interests do you think this programming is serving?
