

My Top 3 Converting Sales Pages

When it comes to making sales online your sales letter is key. All of your marketing and advertising efforts can be working great, but if the sales letter fails to do its job you will end up with very few and maybe even no sales.

Before I share the templates let's make sure that we understand that a sales letter is a web page that does its very best to convince people to buy a product, and to buy it now. There are many ways to write a sales letter, and many parts that go into a great sales letter.

You measure the effectiveness of sales letter by its conversion rate. Conversion simply means the number of people who buy from your sales letter when compared to 100 people visiting your sales letter. So, if 100 people visit your sales letter and 10 people buy you have a 10% conversion rate. If 100 people visit your sales letter and 1 person buys you have a 1% conversion rate.

So obviously, you need a sales letter that's going to convert at the highest rate possible.

A great sales letter isn't just about words... it's about design, layout, and flow. The HBA Funnel Builder gives you the tools to create visually stunning pages that grab attention and drive sales. Ready to start building?

A few more words of advice from my sales letter mentor, Charlie Page, when it comes to sales letters.

1. Getting any sales letter up on the web is better than waiting for the perfect sales letter. Perfection is the enemy here.
2. Write like you speak. Just be yourself and you will do well. Don't try to imitate some guru or highly paid copywriter. Honesty and transparency shine through online. Be your honest self. Be true to you.
3. Improving your sales letter is an ongoing task that leads to greater profits. Increasing conversion by only 1% pays huge dividends because that increase is repeated day after day after day. It's not a one-time benefit, it is an ongoing benefit.

Now for the 3 sales letter templates that work like crazy...

Template 1 (Reasons Why)

“If You’ve Never [Tried a Particular Strategy to Gain a Particular Benefit], Then You’re in for a Marvelous Surprise...”

Most people [try to do something to get a benefit] – but those who succeed [are doing something a little different...]

Dear [Friend or specific type of person],

If you're like most [types of people], then you're probably [achieving some benefit by doing something common –e.g. “if you're like most online business owners, then you're probably creating all your blog content yourself”].

That's definitely [a decent solution]. It [lists one of the benefits of doing it this way].

You know what I'm talking, about right?

[Insert a description of the problem and how it really is a big problem, how it makes the person feels, how it wastes time and money, how it doesn't get good results, etc. – basically lists all of the downsides of the common method.]

It's enough to make you [want to give up or similar].

But hold up – it doesn't have to be that way...

Instead of [doing it the common way], imagine if you [were able to do it faster/easier/at less cost/better]. Would that interest you?

Here Are [Number] Good Reasons Why [Your Solution] Is The Best Way to [Solve a Problem]...

Reason 1: [Insert reason in a few words, e.g. “This is the fastest way to [get a benefit].”]

[Explain reason in a couple sentences.]

[Explain reason in a couple sentences.]

Reason 3: [Insert reason in a few words. E.G., “This [strategy] [produces awesome results].”]

[Explain reason in a couple sentences.]

You can see there are a whole lot of benefits to [doing a task/solving a problem in this certain way]. And that’s why you’re going to want to [get a hold of this solution]...

Template 3 (Proof)

“PROOF! Now You Too Can [Get Some Benefit] – And It’s a Lot Easier Than You Think!”

If you’ve ever wanted to [get some benefit/outcome], then you’re going to want to read every word of this letter...

Dear [Friend or Type of Person (e.g., “parent” or “dieter”)],

If you’re like a lot of people I talk to about [topic], then you have a pretty strong opinion when it comes to [types of solutions on the market]...

Namely, they all stink.

You know what I’m talking about, right?

All of these [types of solutions] promise you that you’ll [get some sort of amazing results]. By the time you finish reading the sales letter, you’re convinced there’s no way [this product] won’t work for you. It seems like a sure thing, right?

But then you try it out...

And it doesn’t work. More often than not, [explain why the product doesn’t work]. And you end up feeling burned again.

I’m going to let you in on a little secret...

The reason so many of these [types of products/solutions] don’t work is because no one ever TESTED them.

See, these [products] look good on paper. It seems like they should work. The average person certainly wouldn’t question whether [the product delivers some sort of specific benefit/desired outcome].

Even the author probably just assumes they'll work, and puts them on the market without ever getting any real-world results. Maybe the [strategy/product] worked for the author, but that doesn't mean it will work for everyone.

For example: [give a quick example of why something that worked for one person wouldn't work for another. For instance, if this was a dieting product, you might explain how a diet developed by a 25-year-old man with a raging metabolism simply isn't going to work for a 45-year-old woman.]

And that's why [Name of Your Product] is completely different...

[Name of Product] is the Only [Type of Product on the Market] That's Been Field Tested Thoroughly by [Number] [Specific Types of People – e.g., “Middle-Aged Women” or “People With No Marketing Background or Experience”].]

When I say [this type of product] works [to create some sort of desired outcome], I mean it. In fact, I can PROVE it.

Case Study #1: The [Type of Person] [Achieved Some Great Result – take note that this case study should be someone who has the same characteristics of your target market.]

[First Name of case study subject] is a [describe relevant characteristics]. After just [length of time], [he/she] [got some great result].

[Briefly describe case study and provide additional proof, such as pics, videos, measurements, screen shots, awards, etc.]

And [Name] isn't the only one. Check this out...

Case Study #2: [This Type of Person] [Enjoyed a Great Result] Even Though [They did or Didn't Have Some Common

Characteristic/Prerequisite, etc. For example, someone might lose a lot of weight even if they have a slow metabolism.]

[Describe this second case study, including additional proof such as pics, videos, etc.]

Pretty exciting, right? If these people can [get a great result], then you can too!

All you need to [get started getting good results] [is this strategy/product].

Let's take a look at what all you get when you order now...
