

This block contains the upper portion of a handwritten musical score. It consists of several systems of staves. The notation is in a historical style, featuring various note values, rests, and accidentals (sharps, flats, and naturals). Some staves have a treble clef, while others have a bass clef. The paper shows signs of age, including discoloration and some ink bleed-through from the reverse side.

This block contains the lower portion of the handwritten musical score. It continues the musical notation from the upper section, with multiple staves showing notes, rests, and accidentals. The notation remains consistent with the historical style seen in the upper section. The paper is aged and shows some staining and wear.
