UNIVERSITY OF MISSOURI 2005 MIZZOU FOOTBALL » 2005 TIGERS

Aaron O'Neal FOREVER A TIGER April 1, 1986 - July 12, 2005

As a football player for the University of Missouri, St. Louis, Mo., native Aaron A. O'Neal was living his dream. Aaron's dream died tragically on the afternoon of July 12, 2005, when he passed away following a voluntary workout with his teammates. While the pain of Aaron's loss will dwell indefinitely, his memory and spirit will live on forever at Mizzou. Aaron's engaging smile, his selfless nature and his warm friendship will never be forgotten, and his teammates have dedicated the 2005 season to his memory.

Aaron was a redshirt freshman linebacker heading into the 2005 season, with much promise to his future. He redshirted in 2004 after coming to Mizzou from Parkway North High School in St. Louis, Mo., where he was a four-sport standout student-athlete. He earned Class 5 all-state honors as a running back as a senior, when he rushed for 1,562 yards and 19 touchdowns. He also earned all-metro, all-conference and all-district honors, as well as his team's offensive MVP honor as a junior, when he ran for 1,207 yards and 14 TDs. Aaron had 800 yards and 9 rushing TDs in just four games as a sophomore, including a school-record 254-yard outing against Webster Groves, and he left his school owning virtually all of Parkway North's career rushing and scoring records. An outstanding all-around athlete, Aaron also excelled in basketball, track and baseball at Parkway North, and was part of the team which finished 4th in the 2003 state baseball championships. His high school football coach was Bob Bunton. Aaron is survived by his father, Lonnie R. O'Neal, mother Deborah O'Neal, sister Ms. Ersula Herrington, brother Nicholas O'Neal and sister Shameka O'Neal.

So He Took You By The Hand

I still hate waking up, getting the bad news that day
They say there's one life that we're living and time is slowly beating away.
Who would've ever thought you would be gone so fast
And just think yesterday us hanging out is now a thing of the past.
Brotha, my Brotha, how I miss you so bad here today
For you never really understand one's importance until they are gone away.
Man, I'm sorry for if I could, I'd make this all just a bad dream and you'd soon awake
For my selfish self is so used to seeing you, your absence is so hard to take.
I'm dying inside because now there's really no way to show you how much I really care
No way to let you know that in me there was a true friend and I was always there.
Though God always knows best no matter what the circumstances may be
I just wish he hadn't taken you from your family, as well as others and me.
I prayed for you and your family, asking God to take away the pain
But when the sunshine (you) is gone, the only thing left is the rain.
So my Brotha, go enjoy sweet rest with the one who holds tomorrow
For soon the mourning will be over and we will smile instead of feel sorrow.
For your life is irreplaceable and I still see an awesome vision of your face
All the happiness and memories of you will forever fill this place. (Mizzou)
I just pray that soon we can all somehow understand
That God needed an angel in Heaven, so he took you by the hand.

One of the top young tight ends in the country who should be a great weapon for the Mizzou offensive attack for years to come ... Should challenge for all-league honors as a sophomore ... Has great athleticism, size, hands, and speed and is also a good blocker from the tight end position ... Enters fall camp listed No. 1 on the depth chart.

>> 2004 SEASON

Established himself as an outstanding player in MU's offense, and was named a 2nd-Team Freshman All-American (College Football News, Rivals.com) and to the 1st-Team Freshman All-Big 12 by the Sporting News ... Also earned the team's freshman of the year award following the season ... Had 19 catches on the year for 263 yards and 4 TDs ... His TD total was 2nd-best on the squad, and his yardage was 4th-best and gave him a solid average per catch of 13.8 yards ... Burst onto the scene in the season opener when he caught his first career pass and rumbled 24 yards for a TD to cap MU's season opening drive against Arkansas State ... Had a career-best 5 catches on Homecoming against Oklahoma State, for 28 yards and 1 TD ... Came up big in MU's 30-10 win at Baylor, as he had 3 catches for 34 yards, with 2 TDs ... His pair of scores came sandwiched around halftime, and helped the Tigers get separation from a game in which they held a slim 6-3 lead ... His 1st TD grab on the night was a brilliant 7-yarder where he outleaped a pair of BU defenders and came down with the ball ... His 2nd score came from 17 yards out ... Had 3 more catches the next week at Texas, for 48 yards, including a season-long 28-yarder on MU's 1st offensive play of the game ... Worked hard in the weight room and added 20 pounds to his playing weight of 220 from the previous year ... Missed the majority of spring practice due to a shoulder injury he suffered during a practice, but had corrective surgery and was full go by the fall ... Entered fall practice period at No. 4 on the depth chart, but didn't take long to work his way to the top of the depth chart.

>> 2003 SEASON

Redshirt season ... Earned scout team MVP honors for his work in practice leading up to the Colorado game.

>> HIGH SCHOOL

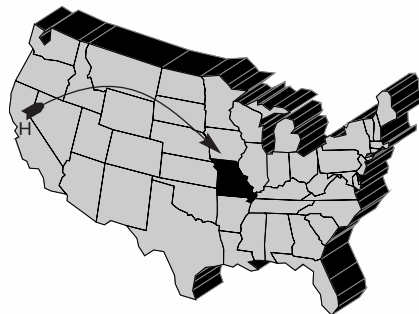

A prep standout at both tight end and defensive end ... Was a 1st-team all-state tight end who earned 1st-team all-district and all-conference honors at both tight end and defensive end ... Lufkin, TX (Hastings Alief HS)

>> 2005 OUTLOOK

Veteran defender who should see increased playing time at the strong safety position, in addition to continuing his valuable play on special teams ... Enters fall camp listed at No. 3 on the depth chart at free safety.

>> 2004 SEASON

Saw action in all 11 games, continuing his valuable role on MU's special forces ... Had a career-high 11 tackles on the season including a career-high 3 in the season opener versus Arkansas State ... Also had single tackle games against Troy, Colorado, Baylor, Texas, Nebraska, Kansas State, Kansas and Iowa State.

>> 2003 SEASON

Had one of the most important roles on MU's special teams, as he served as the primary personal protector for the punt squad ... Recorded 4 tackles on special teams and also played in the Tiger secondary ... Registered tackles versus Illinois, Kansas, Nebraska and Texas Tech ... His stop against Illinois came late in the game on special teams, and was an outstanding open-field stop that quite likely prevented a game-changing return for the Illini.

>> 2002 SEASON

Played in all 12 games as a redshirt freshman, seeing significant time on special teams ... Primary role was that of the up-back for punt protection ... Recorded nine tackles on the season, and had highs of two each in games against Ball State and at Iowa State ... Also had a single tackle in five other contests ... Earned the team Big Hit Award for a shot he delivered against Oklahoma.

>> HIGH SCHOOL

- 2004 Team Safety of the Year

>> 2005 OUTLOOK

An all-conference performer who looks to build on his break-out season of 2004 with more of the same in his senior campaign ... Is a hard-nosed defender who could challenge for national honors as a free safety ... Is a relentless competitor who adds a perfect football toughness and mentality to his game, and has blossomed into a leader of his defensive teammates ... With 29 career starts, is by far the most experienced player on the Tiger defense (next most returning starts is Dedrick Harrington with 18) ... With 243 career tackles entering the 2005 season, needs 80 tackles to rank among MU's alltime top-10 in that category.

>> 2004 SEASON

Had a break-out year which saw him earn 2nd-Team All-Big 12 honors by the Associated Press after registering career highs in virtually every statistical category ... His development was a key reason for the improvement in MU's defense ... Ranked second on the team with 98 tackles and his 15 tackles for loss was most on the squad, an impressive feat playing from the free safety position ... Tied for the team lead with two forced fumbles, and was second on the squad with his 6 passes broken up ... Playing in his home state of Texas, made a game-changing play at Baylor, when he stepped in front of a pass for his first career interception, and raced 46 yards inside the BU 10-yardline to set up a Tiger score late in the 1st half to help MU get some cushion in what was a tight game ... Had double-digit tackles in four games on the season, including three straight in a stretch against Texas, Oklahoma State and Nebraska ... Had a season-high total of 12 tackles twice on the year, against Arkansas State and Oklahoma State ... Had TFLs in 8-of-11 games on the year, including 5 games that saw him register 2 or more ... Made a career-best 4 stops behind the line of scrimmage in a superb individual effort against Nebraska ... Also had 2 TFLs in games against Arkansas State, Ball State, Oklahoma State and Kansas ... Had 2 sacks on the season, getting to the QB once each against Ball State (3 yards) and at Nebraska (8 yds.) ... Forced fumbles against Troy and at Texas.

>> 2003 SEASON

Started 9 games on the year, and his production numbers increased nicely from a year ago ... Had 81 total tackles in 12 games, and contributed 8 tackles for loss (37 yards), including 2 sacks (15 yards), both up significantly from 2002 ... Ended as Mizzou's 4th-leading tackler on the year ... Was one of MU's top tacklers in the 2003 Independence Bowl, when he had 8 tackles against Arkansas ... Had 1 sack in each of the last 2 regular-season games, (Texas A&M and Iowa State) ... Had a 3-game stretch early in the year with double-digit tackle totals ... Started with a career-high 13 tackles versus Middle Tennessee State and followed with 10 tackles each against Kansas and Nebraska ... Had 3 tackles for loss (9 yards) against the Huskers ... Broke up 2 passes at #1 Oklahoma as MU's defense held the high-powered OU offense to 14 points under its season average ... Recovered a fumble against Eastern Illinois, and added 2 tackles for loss on the day (11 yards) ... Did not play in the Kansas State game due to disciplinary reasons, but returned for the Iowa State contest ... Was named to the Columbia Daily Tribune's "All-Interview" Team, based on his quotable nature.

>> 2002 SEASON

Played all 12 games, starting 9 in his first collegiate season ... Ended as MU's 6th-leading tackler, with 64 stops, including 2 for losses ... Broke up 2 passes on the year and registered one quarterback hurry ... Was a starter at the whip position for the first 7 games of the year and the last 2 of the season ... Opened his career with a solid 8-tackle outing, with one hurry, vs. Illinois ... Had a career-best 13 stops in game three at Bowling Green ... Ended the season with an 11-tackle performance against 10th-ranked Kansas State (including a career-best 5 assists) ... Named defensive co-player of the week for his efforts against Illinois ... Earned team's Big Hit award for a shot delivered against Bowling Green.

>> 2001 SEASON

Redshirt season.

>> HIGH SCHOOL

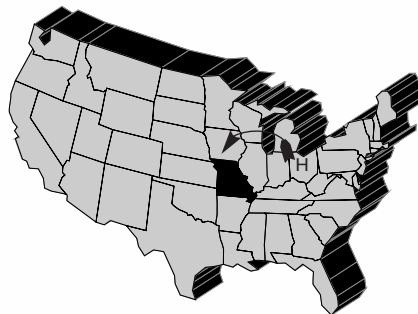

All-district and all-county selection on defensive ... Recorded 3 interceptions (one for a touchdown) and 2 fumble recoveries ... Tallied 78 tackles ... Named the team's defensive player of the week six times during the season and team MVP twice ... Caught six passes for 177 yards and two touchdowns ... Also lettered in track ... High school coach – Waldon Willig ... Member of Young Life, HAMUN Geographical Society, National Honor Society and Fellowship of Christian Athletes ... Also gave his time by volunteering in nursing homes.

>> 2005 OUTLOOK

One of the most exciting players in college football who will return for his final season in a Tiger uniform with the chance to become one of the most prolific players in NCAA history ... A true testament to the term student-athlete, he received his bachelor's degree in business administration in May of 2005, and will be taking graduate level courses in 2005-06 ... Is the NCAA's active career leader in total offense, with his 9,483 yards of total offense entering his senior season ... Next most behind him is senior QB Steven Jyles of Louisiana-Monroe, with 7,563 yards ... Ranks 2nd in the NCAA active career leaders in TDs responsible for, with 73, and trails only senior QB and 2004 Heisman Trophy winner Matt Leinart of USC (75) ... Can tie an NCAA total offense record if he gains 3,000 yards this season, then he will join five others (Ty Detmer of BYU; Chad Pennington of Marshall; Tim Rattay of Louisiana Tech; Kliff Kingsbury of Texas Tech and Timmy Chang of Hawaii) as the only players in Division I-A history to have 3 years of 3,000 yards or more in total offense ... With just 2,500 yards of offense, will become only the 3rd player in D-I history to have 4 years of 2,500 yards of total offense (Antwaan Randle El of Indiana; Timmy Chang of Hawaii) ... Needs just 12 yards rushing to reach 3,000 for his career, and that would make him only the 5th player in NCAA D-I history to have 3,000 yards passing and rushing ... Also needs just 505 passing yards and 512 rushing yards to become only the 3rd player in NCAA D-I history to throw for 7,000 yards and rush for 3,500 yards (Antwaan Randle El of Indiana; Joshua Cribbs of Kent State) ... Needs just 22 points scored to reach 200 for his career, which would make him only the 4th player in NCAA D-I history to throw for 200 points and score 200 points in a career (Rick Leach of Michigan; Antwaan Randle El of Indiana; Joshua Cribbs of Kent State) ... Stands 907 rushing yards shy of Antwaan Randle El's NCAA D-I career rushing record for QBs (3,895) ... Enters the 2005 season ranked 10th alltime in rushing yards for a QB, with 2,988 yards ... Also begins 2005 ranked 53rd in NCAA D-I history in total offense (9,483 yards), and if he reached his three-year average of 3,161 in 2005, he'd end up with 12,644 yards, which would put him 5th alltime ... Needs 2,781 yards of total offense to break the Big 12 record of 12,263 by Texas Tech's Kliff Kingsbury (1999-2002) ... Also needs just 447 rushing yards to break the Big 12 QB rushing record of 3,434 by Nebraska's Eric Crouch (1998-2001) ... After just three seasons, has already broken the MU career records for total offense, and passing TDs (43), and needs just 464 passing yards to break passing record of 6,959 held by Jeff Handy (1991-94) and just 211 rushing yards to break rushing record of 3,198 by Zack Abron (2000-03).

>> 2004 SEASON

Began the season as a top-10 Heisman Trophy candidate, according to most straw polls around the nation ... Wasn't able to stay in that race for the entire season, but still managed a productive junior year, as he accounted for 2,738 yards of total offense ... Ranked 3rd in the Big 12 Conference, and 27th in the NCAA rankings, with his per-game total offense output of 248.91 yards ... Had 2,185 passing yards, and threw for a career-best 17 TDs, which was just one TD shy of the MU single season record ... Threw for a TD in 9-of-11 games, and had 2 or more TDs 6 times, including 3 each versus Arkansas State and Baylor ... Had better success at stretching the field, as he threw for 8 TDs of 20 yards or more (60, 59, 51, 43, 35, 34, 31, 24), after having only 1 TD pass of at least 20 yards in 13 games in 2003 (48 yds. at Colorado) ... Had a hard time finding room to run, as Tiger fans had been accustomed to seeing in his first two years, and was held to 553 yards and 4 TDs on 165 attempts ... His per-rush average of 3.4 yards per carry was down from his average of 6.6 in 2003, when he rushed for 1,406 yards and an MU single-season record 18 TDs ... Despite the overall disappointment of MU's 5-6 season, he led a spirited effort in the season finale when the Tigers, playing for nothing but pride, won at Iowa State (17-14 in overtime) to spoil ISU's chance at their first conference championship since 1918 ... Was the dual threat of old in that game, as he threw for 150 yards, and his offensive line paved the way for a season-best 101 rushing yards and 1 TD ... Broke off a 36-yard TD on a QB read play around right end early in the 3rd quarter that marked his longest rush of the season ... His biggest play of the game could very well have been a tackle he made late in the 4th quarter after ISU picked up a ball ruled a fumble by officials after a Smith completion to Thomson Omboga ... With ISU's Steve Paris running in the open field, Smith raced through traffic to help haul him down at the MU 15 yardline to save what looked like a sure TD at the time ... His tackle with 2:04 remaining helped preserve a 14-14 tie at the time, and MU went on to win in OT after ISU missed a short FG attempt on the ensuing drive after that fumble ... Earned Big 12 Offensive Player of the Week honors for his part in the ISU win ... NOTE – For more information about Smith's 2004 season, please visit www.mutigers.com.

>> 2003 SEASON

Again proved to be one of the most dynamic and versatile players in all of college football ... Was the only player in the nation who ranked in the top-30 in the NCAA in points responsible for scoring (16th – 9.08 ppg), (19th – 14.15 ppg), rushing (20th – 108.15 ypg), and total offense (26th – 260.2 ypg) ... Ended the season with 1,406 rushing yards and an MU single-season record 18 rushing TDs ... Rushing yardage total was the 2nd-best in school history ... Led Tigers to an outstanding eight-win season, including a perfect 6-0 at home and guided MU to its first bowl appearance since 1998 ... Ended with an MU-record 3,383 yards of total offense (1,977 passing & 1,406 rushing) and just missed becoming the 1st player in NCAA history to throw for 2,000 yards and rush for 1,000 yards in a season twice ... He accomplished the 2,000/1,000 feat in 2002 for only the 2nd time in D-IA history (2,333 pass/1,029 rush) ... His 1,406 rushing yards marked the 4th-highest single-season total by a quarterback in NCAA history, and was only 88 yards behind the record of 1,494 set by Air Force's Beau Morgan in 1996 ... His 291-yard, 5-TD rushing day against Texas Tech was the NCAA single-game high for yardage in the 2003 regular season ... The 291 yards rushing was also just 17 yards shy of the NCAA record for a quarterback ... Set MU bowl-game records for most total yards (251) and most passes completed (17) in 2003 Independence Bowl outing versus Arkansas ... Had Tigers playing for chance at Big 12 North Division title into game #11, and directed Mizzou to 8 regular-season wins for only the 3rd time since 1960 ... Also became the first MU quarterback to beat Nebraska since Phil Bradley in 1978, with MU's 41-24 win over 10th-ranked Huskers ... Was responsible for 30 TDs in 2003 (18 rush/11 pass/1 receiving), which was an MU single-season record ... NOTE – For more information about Smith's 2003 season, please visit www.mutigers.com.

>> 2002 SEASON

Claimed virtually every conference and national freshman honor possible after a record-setting first year behind center ... Despite his youth and a rugged schedule, had Mizzou playing for a bowl berth into the final game of the season ... Made history by becoming just the 2nd player in Div. I-A history to throw for 2,000 yards and rush for 1,000 yards in a season ... Ranked 10th in the nation (and 2nd in the Big 12) in total offense (280.2 ypg), and finished the year with totals of 2,333 passing yards and 1,029 rushing yards ... His rushing total set an NCAA freshman record for quarterbacks, breaking the old mark of 1,019 set by Joshua Cribbs of

Kent State in 2001 ... Smith became the first MU player, and just the 16th in NCAA Div. I-A history (including just the 2nd freshman), to throw for 1,000 and rush for 1,000 yards in a season ... His total offense output of 3,362 yards shattered the MU single-season record of 2,545 set by former standout Corby Jones in 1997 ... Under his direction, the Tiger offense led the nation in fewest turnovers, with only 11 committed ... Led MU to 360 points on the year — the 3rd-most ever scored by a Tiger team ... Showed his big-play ability by totaling 48 plays of 20 yards or more (33 passing, 14 rushing and 1 receiving), and had Mizzou's longest play from scrimmage on the year when he scampered 75 yards for a TD vs. Kansas ... •2003 Hon. Men. All-Big 12 (A.P., Coaches)

•2003 Big 12 All-Freshman Team (The Sporting News)

•2003 Team Freshman of the Year

>> 2005 OUTLOOK

Speedy rush end who gives MU one of the premier pass rushers in the Big 12 Conference ... Has led MU in sacks each of the past two seasons, and with 15 career sacks, he stands in 6th place on the Mizzou career list, and needs 8 more to break the all-time record of 22.5 held by former All-American Justin Smith.

2004 SEASON

Had a solid follow-up to his successful freshman season, as he led the team in QB sacks for the 2nd straight season, with 7 sacks in 11 games ... Was named to Hon. Men. All-Big 12 team by the league media for the 2nd straight season ... Came off the bench in all 11 games, as he was used in more strategic situations, and he was very productive in his opportunities ... Ended the year with 22 tackles, 8 tackles for loss (55 yds.) and a team-best 7 QB sacks (51 yds.) ... Also ranked 2nd on the team with 7 QB hurries, and tied for the team lead in forced fumbles, with 2 on the year ... Had a huge night at Baylor, while playing in his home state of Texas, as he registered a career-best 3 QB sacks, had 2 more QB hurries, forced 1 fumble and had a season-high 5 tackles in all, as MU got a road win in Waco ... Was a big part of MU's stingy defensive effort in the season-ending win at Iowa State, as he had 4 tackles, including a QB sack on a big 4th-down play in the 1st quarter with ISU deep in Tiger territory ... His sack at Texas was good for a 13-yard loss and a forced fumble, but the Longhorns were able to fall on the ball deep in their own territory.

2003 SEASON

Made huge contributions as a redshirt freshman, and was named 1st-Team Freshman All-American by several outlets (Scripps/FWAA, The Sporting News, College Football News, Rivals.com, College Sports Report) ... Had an NCAA freshman high 8 sacks on the year (49 yards), and was among national top-25 among all players with his team-best 4 forced fumbles ...

Also led the team with 13 quarterback hurries, nearly double that of the next-highest (7 by C.J. Mosley) ... Started the year off like a shot, as he had 5 sacks and 3 forced fumbles in MU's first 3 games ... Had a single-game best 5 tackles in 4 outings, against Eastern Illinois, Middle Tennessee State, at Kansas and at Colorado ... Got to the Buffalo QB twice in that game (2 sacks for 14 yards) and added another QB hurry on the day.

2002 SEASON

Redshirt year ... Was named defensive scout team player of the week twice, for his efforts during the week of the Illinois and Texas Tech games.

HIGH SCHOOL

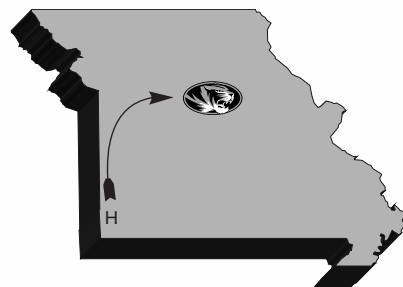

One of the top pass rushers out of the state of Texas who was rated among the top-30 weakside defensive ends in the country by Rivals.com ... Rated the 50th-best player in the state of Texas by the Dallas Morning News ... A two-time all-state selection and two-time Denton High School Defensive Player of the Year ... Led his team to the state title in 2001 ... As a senior, tallied 160 tackles and 35 quarterback sacks ... Also recovered four fumbles ... As a junior, made 103 tackles, 20 of those going for quarterback sacks ... High school coach – Joey Florence.

Kansas City, MO (Rockhurst HS)

•Spring 2005 Team Most Improved Offensive Back

>> 2005 OUTLOOK

Sophomore tailback who looks to be healthy after an injury derailed his freshman season in 2004 ... Was a prolific runner in high school who was one of MU's most high-profile recruits, and who should challenge for some significant playing time during the spring period ... Proved to have great speed, quickness, vision and strength in practice last season ... Played in just 1 game in 2004 before being injured, and hopes to get the year of eligibility back by appeal to the NCAA in a process that won't take place until his senior year of competition ... Had an outstanding spring practice period that saw him earn the team's Most Improved Offensive Back Award ... Enters fall camp listed No. 2 on the depth chart at tailback.

>> 2004 SEASON

Played in one game on the year, being one of only two true freshmen to play in 2004 for the Tigers ... Chose to end his redshirt season in game No. 8 at Nebraska, due to personnel issues at tailback, and his desire to play for the Tigers ... Unfortunately met with injury in the game, and was unable to play the rest of the season ... Carried 6 times for the Tigers at Nebraska, for a total of 13 yards, as the Tiger ground game was held in check all day ... Had a long run of 6 yards on the day, before leaving early in the 4th quarter with his ankle injury.

>> HIGH SCHOOL

One of the nation's top tailback prospects who was a major addition to Mizzou's 2004 class ... Strong Safety

5-9 • 195 • Sr.-3L

St. Louis, MO (Lindbergh HS)

- 2003 Team Outside Safety of the Year
- Spring 2001 Team Most Improved Safety

>> 2005 OUTLOOK

Despite his diminutive stature, is one of the most physical defenders on the team, and hopes to return to form that saw him earn the team's outside safety of the year in 2003 ... Enters fall camp listed 3rd on the depth chart at strong safety, but could challenge quickly for playing time as he was impressive in winter conditioning and spring practice ... Had 4 tackles and broke up a pass in the 2005 spring game ... Has proven to be a very good open-field tackler with good closing speed.

>> 2004 SEASON

Saw production slip, as he was hampered by nagging health issues that kept him from being 100% for some of the year, and just couldn't work himself into the playing rotation ... Played in the first 9 games of the season, and had 8 tackles ... Had 4 stops in game #3 against Ball State ... Wasn't at 100% when fall practice started, after having surgery to repair an injured posterior cruciate ligament (PCL) injury that he had suffered and played with during the 2003 season ... Had initially hoped to avoid the surgery, but after experiencing swelling in his knee during initial winter conditioning efforts, elected to have the knee fixed in January of 2004 ... Missed the spring practice period, as he was recovering from the surgery, and that likely slowed his physical development and acclimation into the new defensive scheme used in the fall.

>> 2003 SEASON

Earned the team's outside safety of the year award at the team banquet for his play ... Had 45 tackles on the year, including 4 tackles for loss (7 yards) ... Came on strong late, with 31 of his 45 stops coming in his last 6 games ... Stood out with his 7-tackle effort at #1 Oklahoma ... Had a career-best 9 tackles and 1 quarterback hurry against the high-powered Texas Tech offense, as MU held the Red Raiders to 2 touchdowns below their season average in Mizzou's 62-31 win ... Had 4 tackles and forced a fumble in game #3 against Eastern Illinois.

>> 2002 SEASON

Played in 11 games, and recorded three tackles, playing a big role in MU's improvement in special teams play ... Had a single tackle in each of Mizzou's first three games.

>> 2001 SEASON

Redshirted in 2001 ... Gave the Tiger wide receivers a great look on the scout team ... Voted the team's most improved outside safety in the spring.

>> HIGH SCHOOL

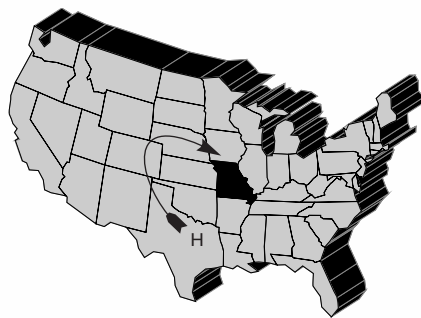

Second team all-state selection at Lindbergh High School in St. Louis ... First team all-district and named the Suburban West Defensive Player of the Year ... Chalked up 102 tackles as a senior, five quarterback sacks and three interceptions ... Made 74 tackles as a junior and picked off two passes ... Rushed for 692 yards in his career, averaging nearly 7.5 yards per carry ... Track star who was a three-time state qualifier ... Led his team to the state record in the 4x100 meter relay in 1998 ... In 1999, was a state qualifier in the 100 meters and the 4x200 meters ... Placed sixth in the state in the 100 meters, third in the 4x100 meter relay and sixth in the 4x200 meter relay in 1999 ... Member of the Big Brothers Mentoring Program, Fellowship of Christian Athletes and Matthews-Dickey Boy's Club ... High school coach – Tim Beauchamp.

>> 2005 OUTLOOK

One of the veteran defenders on the squad who gives Mizzou a very experienced and accomplished secondary ... Enters fall camp atop the depth chart at one cornerback position, and has 8 career starts under his belt ... Will be joined on campus in the fall by younger brother Chad, a fellow DB prospect who is part of Mizzou's 2005 recruiting class.

>> 2004 SEASON

Saw action in 10 games on the season, and recorded 13 tackles as a junior, 11 of which were of the unassisted variety ... Notched 1 tackle for loss on the year, coming on a stop for a 4-yard loss against rival Kansas ... Saw most of his action on special teams, as he played on both the punt return and kickoff return teams ... Was part of MU's rotation at cornerback when he was on the field as part of the Tiger defense ... Twice had season-high tackle totals of 4... Also had 2 tackles against Ball State ... Closed out the spring by notching a sack in the Black and Gold Game ... Changed his jersey number to 1 in the off-season after wearing 17 the last three seasons.

>> 2003 SEASON

Had a solid sophomore season, as he accounted for 4 takeaways on the year (2 recovered fumbles, 1 forced fumble and 1 interception) ... Grabbed 1st career interception and returned it 15 yards on the final play of the game in MU's 62-31 win over Texas Tech ... Had 5 tackles in that game and also broke up 2 passes on the day ... Started 8 of MU's first 9 games on the year, including his 1st career start against Illinois, when he totaled 4 tackles and recovered a fumble deep in MU's territory to snuff out an Illini drive in the 2nd quarter ... Ranked 9th on the team with 52 tackles on the year ... Had 9 tackles against both Ball State and Middle Tennessee State, representing a career-best total ... Ranked 3rd on the team with 6 passes broken up, with 2 each coming against Texas Tech and Middle Tennessee State ... Had 4 tackles at #19 Kansas State and forced a fumble on the night ... Was named to the Columbia Daily Tribune's "All-Interview" Team, based on his quoteability.

>> 2002 SEASON

Redshirted to gain a year of maturity ... Showed his talents as a valuable member of the defensive scout team ... Was twice named scout team player of the week, for his efforts in preparation for games against Iowa State and Kansas State.

>> 2001 SEASON

Excellent athlete who got his feet wet on special teams as a true freshman ... Was one of only four true freshmen to play in Gary Pinkel's first year at the helm, joining Marcus King, Thomson Omboga and Tyrone Roberson ... Came to Missouri as a wide receiver, but was quickly switched to defensive back to take advantage of his size and speed ... Made seven special teams tackles.

>> HIGH SCHOOL
