Press Services: You will receive pre-game notes and a scorecard. Box scores will be distributed at halftime. If you need first-half play-by-play sheets, see the SID crew in the working area of the press room, located beneath the grandstand. Following the game, a complete packet will be available, including box score, play-by-play and shot charts.

FAX Service: Reporters needing statistics or stories FAXed to their papers should contact Rondi Payne or Jack Watkins.

Post-Game Interviews: Reporters wishing to interview Coach Rutherford may do so in the hallway after a 10-minute cooling off period. Players will be made available upon request.

Coach Joann Rutherford: Coach Rutherford is in her 15th season as the Tigers' head coach and her 301-140 career record ranks her 18th among active Division I coaches. On Dec. 16, the Tigers presented her with her 300th collegiate coaching victory, an 89-57 triumph over Memphis State. Rutherford has guided Missouri to five NCAA championship appearances in eight years, finishing in the top 16 in 1982. In Big Eight play, Rutherford's teams have won more conference games than any other school, posting a 67-31 (.684) record in the seven years of home-and-away play. Her teams have won the Big Eight tournament crown in 1978, 1983, 1985 and 1986, and were the regular-season champs in 1983-84, 1984-85 and 1986-87. Named the Big Eight "Coach-of-the-Year" in 1984 and 1985, Rutherford received the Big Eight "Coach-of-the-Decade" honor for the 1980s.

Series Record: Missouri and Chicago State will be meeting for the first time.

Fields In Fine Form: Starting at the center position for the third time this year, sophomore Ericka Fields scored a career-high 24 points to help lead the Tigers to a 90-71 victory over Loyola-Chicago in Missouri's last game before the holiday break. This erased the previous career high (16 points) she had posted only the week before against Memphis State. Ending the Memphis State game in the "double-double" category, Fields also grabbed a career-high 10 rebounds. Continuing to hit the boards hard against Loyola, Fields again led the team in rebounds with nine. She has seen action in all nine Mizzou games and has scored in double figures seven times this season. Fields comes into tonight's game averaging 12.1 ppg and 4.8 rpg.

Charting Marcia Brooks: Transferring from Moberly Junior College where she was a Kodak Junior College All-American as a sophomore, senior guard Marcia Brooks enters the Chicago State game with 125 career assists. Dishing out a total of 93 assists during her first season with the Tigers, Brooks is currently averaging 3.6 assists per game. She needs 83 more to pass Debra Walker who ranks 10th in total career assists for Missouri. This is even more impressive considering that Walker spent her entire collegiate career with Missouri.

Injury Report: Senior guard Lori Sandbothe is continuing treatment for a sprained left knee and remains sidelined for tonight's contest. Receiving a starting nod in the Dec. 9 game against Creighton, Lori Sandbothe suffered the injury about midway through the second half. She remains questionable to see any playing time during the three-game roadswing through Texas.

Linneman Makes Mizzou Debut: Tonight's contest marks the beginning of the season for freshman forward/center Lynette Linneman. Suffering a pre-stress fracture in her right ankle the week before the Tigers' season-opener, Linneman has spent all nine games of the season on the disabled list. Linneman came to Missouri following her senior year in which she averaged 25 points and 12 rebounds per game while leading her Salisbury High team to the Missouri state 2A title last season. She was a first-team all-state choice as well as the conference MVP her final two prep seasons.

Simpson Returns To Action: Missing the Tigers' three previous games with tendonitis in both knees, freshman center Terri Simpson returns to the Missouri lineup. Prior to her stay on the disabled list, Simpson had seen action in two games. During eight total minutes of play, she had scored two points, grabbed one rebound, and dished out one assist.

Next: Following tonight's contest, Missouri heads to Texas for a three-game roadswing this coming week. The Tigers close out the 1989 portion of their season with a game against Texas Christian (3-5), on Sun., Dec. 31. Game time in Fort Worth is set for 4:00 p.m. Missouri then travels south to Waco, Texas to face the Baylor Bears (3-6 prior to a game against North Texas Dec. 30), on Tues., Jan. 2, at 6:00 p.m. Then before returning home to face Oklahoma State in the Big Eight opener, the Tigers play Southern Methodist (0-6 prior to meeting Texas Christian Jan. 3), in Dallas, Thurs., Jan. 4. The tipoff is set for 7:30 p.m.
