STOCK NAMED CO-FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK

Freshman Maddie Stock was named the Southeastern Conference Co-Freshman of the Week on Monday after scoring 22 points in just 16 minutes of playing time on Sunday in Missouri's 110-47 win over Southern Illinois. Stock shares the honor with Mississippi State's Sherise Williams who scored a personal best 21 points against Florida A&M on Sunday. Stock proved to be an important weapon for the Tigers on Sunday as she put up 16 straight points in the second half of the game. Stock has reached double-digits in two consecutive games and four times this season. She has also reset her career-best in each of the last two games. Stock shot 88.9 percent against Southern Illinois and made 6-of-7 three-point attempts in the contest. The Tigers finished the game with 110 points, the ninth-most in school history. It also marks the first time since 2005 that Missouri has scored 100 or more points in a contest.

TURN OF THE CENTURY

Missouri's 110 point victory over Southern Illinois marks the first time since 2005 that the Tigers have scored 100 or more points in a game. The number also marks the ninth-best in program history and just 11 off of the school record (121 vs. SLU in 1978) while the 110 points are the most by a Tiger team since they scored 111 against Centenary on Dec. 3, 1999.

BRINGING THE NINETIES BACK

Missouri's 110-47 win over SIU sets a milestone, marking the first time since 1999-2000 that the Tigers have scored at least 90 points in three straight games. (Missouri earned a 90-57 victory over Eastern Illinois On Dec. 18, 1999 and followed that up with a 91-44 win over Illinois State on Dec. 22. The Tigers also topped UW-Milwaukee 90-47 on Dec. 30.) It is also the first time since 2003-04 that the Tigers have had three games with at least 90 points in the same season. In fact, from 2006 through last season, Mizzou had just three 90 points games.

TIGERS UNDEFEATED IN EXHIBITION PLAY

Mizzou Women's Basketball finished the regular season 2-0 after Tuesday's exhibition victory over Lindenwood. The Tigers quickly established their lead over the Lady Lions with a 24-0 run in the first half, which helped Mizzou to an 88-46 win. Newcomers Bri Kulas, Maddie Stock and Lianna Doty came out and put double figures on the board and leading the Tigers in scoring on the night.

RETURNERS FILL BIG SHOES

The Tigers return seven players from last season's squad, which recorded one of the best starts in program history after beginning the season 10-1. Senior Sydney Crafton brings the most experience to the squad as she has three years of collegiate basketball experience under her belt. Of the 13 players on Mizzou's team, 12 have one year or less of collegiate basketball experience. Despite their youth, the Tigers showed strength and skill on the court at the Mizzou Madness exhibition event. The 2012-13 Tigers should prove to be a challenge this season.

OFF TO A STRONG START

Last season's Tiger team saw one of the best starts in program history. Mizzou started out with a 10-1 record, the program's best start since the 2006-07 season when Mizzou began the year 12-1. Under Pingeton's direction, the Tigers went undefeated through the first five games for the first time since 1997. Not only that, but with Pingeton's coaching, senior Christine Flores became the first Tiger to record a triple-double since 1995. Flores set several new records at Mizzou for the most blocks in her career and in a single season before being drafted to the WNBA.

FRAZIER ANNOUNCES RETIREMENT

The Mizzou Women's Basketball program has announced that senior Kendra Frazier will retire from the basketball program at Missouri. Frazier, who suffered an ACL tear in the spring of 2010, has had several surgeries to repair the injury, however she has not been able to fully recover. Frazier has spent the last two seasons playing a vital role on the Tiger bench and will continue to do so until she completes her degree in December. "The last four years have been a great experience for me," Frazier said. "Even through the most trying times, my teammates and the coaching staff have provided me with an amazing support system. I value the relationships that I have built at Mizzou and the experiences that I have had. This was a difficult decision for me, but I think it is one that will benefit me in the long run. I appreciate Coach Pingeton and my team's support through the decision-making process." Frazier joined the Mizzou Basketball family in 2008 and immediately made an impact on the team. She played in 17 games her freshman season and scored her first career basket against Illinois. She played in 19 games her sophomore season averaging 6.3 points per game.
