SEC GYMNASTICS WEEKLY HONORS

SEC Gymnast of the Week – Florida’s Selena Harris-Miranda, a junior from Las Vegas, Nev., finished first in the all-around in the win over No. 10 Kentucky with a score of 39.875, the highest mark in the SEC this season and the second highest score nationally. It was Harris-Miranda’s fourth all-around title this season and the 16th of her career. She earned a 10.0 on the balance beam to win the event title along with a share of first place on bars (9.95). Harris-Miranda was runner-up on vault (9.975) and shared second place on floor (9.95).

SEC Co-Specialists of the Week – Florida’s Danie Ferris, a sophomore from Palm Coast, Fla., recorded her first collegiate 10.0 on vault in the win over no. 10 Kentucky. It was Ferris’ second win on vault this season and the third of her career. She also equaled her season-high score of 9.90 on floor to close out the regular season.

Missouri’s Helen Hu, a redshirt senior from Chicago, Ill., capped off the regular season with a 10.0 on beam in the win at No. 16 Arkansas. With the second perfect score of her career, Hu became the only individual in the country this season with two 10s on the balance beam. Her performance helped lead Mizzou to a team score of 49.575, the top team beam score in program history. Hu is the second Tiger to record a pair of perfect scores in the same season.

SEC Co-Freshmen of the Week – LSU’s Kailin Chio, a freshman from Henderson, Nev., finished the regular season with a 39.650 in the win at No. 14 Auburn. Chio secured her first career perfect 10 with her performance on vault in the Tigers’ regular season finale. Her 10.0 on vault was the third perfect score by any gymnast on the apparatus this season and the first by a freshman. Chio also recorded a 9.925 on floor, 9.90 on bars and a 9.825 on beam.

Oklahoma’s Addison Fatta, a freshman from Wrightsville, Pa., earned a career-high score of 39.650 in the all-around in the win at No. 9 Georgia. Fatta set career highs of 9.90 on vault and 9.95 on floor and tied her career high on beam with a 9.925. All four of her scores contributed to the team total as she helped the Sooners to season-best scores on vault (49.625) and beam (49.675).

The No. 12 Alabama gymnastics program concluded its regular season defeating No. 17 Michigan (10-6, 6-3 Big Ten).

The Crimson Tide used its second-highest road score of the season, 197.050, to top the Wolverines who posted a 196.675.

The Crimson Tide registered higher team rotation scores on vault, bars and beam than Michigan as UA captured at least a share of every event title, with Lilly Hudson leading the way with three event titles (beam, floor, all-around).

Alabama will now turn its sights to the 2025 SEC Gymnastics Championships on March 22 in Birmingham, Ala., where the Tide will compete in Session I.

In the team's last regular season meet on March 14, the No. 16 Gymbacks put up a good fight, but ultimately fell to the No. 7 Missouri Tigers 197.800-197.225.

Freshman Joscelyn Roberson scored a 39.525 all-around, matching her rookie all-around record that she set just a week prior. She did not score lower than 9.825 in any routine and also came away with a share of the floor title with a 9.925.

Redshirt junior Frankie Price tied Roberson for the floor gold and helped Arkansas put a 49.425 event score together on the event.

A total of 8,199 fans were in attendance on Friday, the seventh-best number in program history. That brings Arkansas' total season attendance to 39,575 and the average attendance to 7,915, both new records.

In their Neville Arena finales, No. 14 Auburn's seniors went out in style on March 14, while the Tigers' underclassmen earned big scores to help the team reach a 197.550 in a loss to No. 2 LSU.

The visiting Tigers won the meet with a 198.200 and clinched a share of the SEC regular season championship.

Auburn saw eight career highs from seven gymnasts, including six freshmen and sophomores.

One of those athletes was sophomore Paige Zancan, who reached a career high in two of her three events: vault (9.975) and floor (9.925).

Sophomore Olivia Greaves earned a share of first place on the bars with a 9.975.

With the final score, the Tigers sealed their spot at the 2025 SEC Championship next week in Birmingham. Auburn will be in the afternoon session on March 22 at the BJCC.

A trio of 10.0s helped lift No. 3 Florida gymnastics to the nation's season-high of 198.625 on March 14 in its win over No. 10 Kentucky for Senior Night & GNV Night presented by Florida Dairy Farmers.

Kentucky posted its second-highest total of the season, 197.725, in front of 8,071 at the Exactech Arena at the Stephen C. O'Connell Center.

Both Florida and defending NCAA champion LSU head into the 2025 SEC Gymnastics Championships as the nation's only teams to post three consecutive team totals of 198.00 or better this season.

Florida led throughout the meet, boosted from the opening event with the nation's top vault total of 49.70.

Three different Gators found perfection Friday, starting with sophomore Danie Ferris earning her first collegiate 10.0 on vault. Junior All-American Selena Harris-Miranda posted her first balance beam 10.0. Earlier this season, she became the nation's first to earn a vault 10.0. Senior All-American Leanne Wong closed her evening with the second floor exercise 10.0 of her career. That was her 10th perfect mark of her career, moving her to second on Florida's career 10.0s list.

Harris-Miranda shared the uneven bars win with sophomore Alyssa Arana at 9.95. The all-around total of 39.875 by Harris-Miranda is the nation's high this season and gives her all-around win No. 4 for 2025.

Wong's runner-up total of 39.725 is also among the nation's leading all-around totals. The duo have eight appearances among the nation's top 15 all-around totals of 2025.

The No. 9 Georgia GymDogs earned a season-high score in their regular season finale but ultimately fell to No. 1 Oklahoma 198.475-197.975 on March 14 at Stegeman Coliseum.

Friday's meet marked the first time that the GymDogs have hosted Oklahoma in Athens since 2018.

Georgia posted the sixth-highest regular-season score in program history and earned season highs on all four events.

Freshman Nyla Aquino lead the Bulldogs on vault, contributing a career high 9.950, the highest vault score by a Georgia gymnast this season. Graduate student Anaya Smith tied her career-high score on vault with a 9.900 for her final vault in Stegeman. The team matched their season-high score in the event.

The GymDogs crushed their season high on bars, posting a 49.575. Junior Csenge Bácskay led off the event, securing a career-high 9.900. Junior Ja' Free Scott posted a 9.950, tying her career high, followed by sophomore Lily Smith as anchor, recording a season-high 9.975. Smith's score is the highest given to any GymDogs' bars routine this season.

On the beam rotation, junior Kara Eaker tied her season high with a 9.925. Junior Naya Howard and Scott each added scores of 9.900, which tied Howard's career high.

The GymDogs beat their season-high floor score by 0.175, posting a 49.675 in the event. Junior Nicole King took to the floor for the first time since the Florida meet and performed a career-high 9.900. Aquino secured a career-high score of 9.975, the highest floor score of the meet. Junior Csenge Bácskay and sophomore Ady Wahl each captured a 9.925, a season high for Bácskay and a career-high tie for Wahl.

Counting five 9.9+ scores in the final rotation, No. 10 Kentucky tied the program record beam score with a 49.575 to post the team's second highest total score of the season in a 198.625-197.725 defeat at No. 3 Florida. Florida's score was the highest mark in the country this season.

It was a high scoring night for the Cats in the Swamp, as nine season highs and six career highs were either set or matched. Additionally, Kentucky gymnasts scored 9.9 or high in exactly half—12 of 24—of their routines.

Skylar Killough-Wilhelm posted her second consecutive all-around total at 39.600 or higher, scoring 9.925s on vault, beam, and floor—all season highs—to score a 39.600. Creslyn Brose and Hailey Davis each contributed a pair of 9.9+ scores, with Brose posting a career high on beam with a 9.950 and a 9.925 on floor and Davis matching her career high of 9.925 on bars and earning the same score on floor.

With their score, the Cats improved their National Qualifying Score to 197.315, securing their post in the 2025 SEC Gymnastics Championships, held on Saturday, March 22 at Legcay Arena in Birmingham, Ala.

For the third time in program history, the No. 2 LSU Gymnastics team were named 2025 SEC regular-season champions after defeating No. 14 Auburn by a score of 198.200-197.550 in their regular season finale on March 14 inside Neville Arena.

The Tigers share the regular season title with No. 1 Oklahoma, who own the same 7-1 conference record after defeating No. 9 Georgia. It is the first regular season title for LSU in six years, having previously won in 2017 and 2018.

LSU's score of 198.200 on the night marked their second highest score on the road in the regular season in program history, only trailing a 198.425 scored in the 2024 Podium Challenge. The highlight of the night came in the second rotation when freshman phenom Kailin Chio scored the first 10.00 of her collegiate career on vault, the second consecutive week that an LSU Tiger posted a perfect score.

The LSU Tigers swept all five titles on the night. Chio won vault with her perfect score, senior Haleigh Bryant claimed bars with a 9.975, beam with a 9.950 and the all around with a 39.775 while senior Aleah Finnegan took home the floor title with a 9.975.

The 2025 SEC Championships will kick off at 7 p.m. CT on Saturday, March 22 inside the Legacy Arena at The BJCC in Birmingham, Alabama.

No. 7 University of Missouri earned its second-best team score in program history, highlighted by the second perfect 10 of redshirt senior Helen Hu's career, as the team defeated No. 16 Arkansas, 197.800-197.225, on March 14 at Bud Walton Arena.

The victory marked the 100th of head coach Shannon Welker's career. Mizou's score in the win clinched a spot in Session II of the 2025 SEC Gymnastics Championship for the first time since joining the league.

Hu made history in the meet, becoming the second gymnast in program history to score a 10 twice in a season. Mara Titarsolej earned 9.975 on her uneven bars routine, marking the third-straight meet she has scored at least 9.950 on the apparatus. Sophomore Hannah Horton tied her career-best vault result of 9.950.

Missouri opens the postseason at the 2025 SEC Gymnastics Championships on Saturday, March 22 in Birmingham, Ala. at Legacy Arena. The Tigers will compete in Session II alongside Oklahoma, LSU and Florida at 7 p.m. ET on SEC Network.

The No. 1 Oklahoma women's gymnastics team claimed its first SEC regular-season title with a 198.475-197.975 victory over No. 9 Georgia inside Stegeman Coliseum on March 14.

Finishing with a 7-1 record in their first season in the league, the Sooners shared the title with LSU as the two teams had matching conference records.

OU closed out the regular season with a bang as the 198.475 marked a new season best team score. The Sooners will head to SEC Championships with a 15-1 record in the regular season.

Faith Torrez and Jordan Bowers shared the all-around title with matching 39.750s. Torrez also claimed the beam title with a near-perfect 9.975. Lily Pederson and Keira Wells shared the vault title with 9.950s. Addison Fatta had a career night, earning a 39.650 in the all-around and setting or tying her career high on vault, beam and floor.

Up next for the Sooners is the 2025 SEC Gymnastics Championships in Birmingham, Ala., on Saturday, March 22.
