MIZZOU LOOKS FOR REBOUND vs. FCS FOE DELAWARE ST. ...

- Following a heartbreaking, 28-27, loss to No. 13/16 Georgia last weekend at Memorial Stadium, Mizzou Football and head coach Barry Odom will look for a bounce-back win as they welcome Delaware State of the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) to The Zou on Saturday (Sept. 24) for a 3 p.m. kickoff on SEC Network. Mizzou is 15-0 all-time against teams from the FCS, including a 34-3 win over Southeast Missouri in last year's season-opener.
- Coach Odom's team suffered a 28-27 setback at the hands of Georgia last weekend as the Bulldogs scored the go-ahead score with 1:29 remaining on a 20-yard TD pass from Jacob Eason to WR Isaiah McKenzie on 4th-and-10 to stun the Tigers, who led for much of the game. Mizzou nearly got into field goal range after WR J'Mon Moore took his eighth catch into Bulldog territory on the first play of the ensuing drive, but a fumble gave the ball to Georgia to seal the win for the Bulldogs. Despite the fumble, Moore was outstanding in the game, totaling 196 yards on eight catches with a pair of scores. It was the ninth-best performance ever by a Mizzou wideout.
- Delaware State was idle a week ago and comes to Columbia with an 0-2 mark on the young season. DSU, led by second-year head coach Kenny Carter, lost to Delaware, 56-14, in week one before falling at home, 34-20, in week two against Monmouth. The Hornets were 1-10 last year in Carter's first year, including a 1-7 mark in MEAC play. The lone win of the year came in the final week of the season when the Hornets topped Howard, 32-31.
- Mizzou's offense has come to life through three games this season thanks in large part to an explosive passing attack. Mizzou ranks fifth nationally in passing offense and leads the SEC with 378.3 yards per game.

Junior WR
J'Mon Moore

- Hauled in eight passes for 196 yards last week vs. Georgia, the ninth-best receiving game in school history. The 196 yards are the most by an SEC player this season.
- Also hauled in two touchdowns, including a career-long 79-yard grab in the second quarter to give Mizzou a 20-14 lead.
- Moore has gone over the 100-yard mark twice this season, both times against a Power 5 opponent (at West Virginia, vs. UGA).
- Moore is averaging 106.7 yards per game and 17.78 per catch this season. He leads the SEC in ypg and total yards (320).

WEEKLY STORYLINES...

- Mizzou will be in search of its second bounce-back win of the season when it welcomes Delaware State on Saturday. After dropping its season opener at West Virginia, Mizzou recovered for a 61-21 win over Eastern Michigan in week two. Saturday's game will mark the final of a three-game homestand for Mizzou. The last time Mizzou played three consecutive home games was in 2013 when Mizzou played Florida (Oct. 19 - 36-17 win; Oct. 26 vs. South Carolina - 24-27 loss; Nov. 2 vs. Tennessee - 31-3 win). Mizzou will be looking to go 2-1 in the three-game homestand.
- Mizzou has outscored its last 12 FCS opponents, 577-96, good for an average of 48.1 - 8.0 in those contests. Mizzou is 15-0 all-time against schools from FCS.
- Mizzou's offense ranks in the national top 10 in passing yards, fewest sacks allowed, fewest tackles for loss allowed and is in the national top 20 in total offense and passing yards per completion heading into week four.
- Delaware State comes into Saturday's contest giving up 300 yards per game on the ground. Mizzou has managed just 148.3 yards per game on the ground through the first three weeks as it has focused heavily on the pass, setting up an intriguing matchup.

Sophomore QB
Drew Lock

AIRING IT OUT

- Following three weeks of play, Mizzou ranks second in the SEC in total offense (526.7 yards per game), based largely on a passing attack that averages an SEC-best 378.3 yards per game. Mizzou ranks fifth in the nation in passing offense after three weeks.
- The passing attack is a stark contrast from Mizzou's 2015 team, which finished the season ranked 112th in passing offense at just 165.5 ypg.
- There have been 16 100-yard receiving outings by SEC wideouts and Mizzou has five of those 16 games, including two by junior J'Mon Moore, who leads the SEC in yards per game and total yards. He had the SEC's top receiving performance last week (196 yards, 2 TDs vs. UGA).
- Sophomore QB Drew Lock ranks fourth nationally and leads the SEC in passing yards (1,106) and yards per game. He is 10th nationally in yards per completion as well (15.80), which also leads the SEC. He leads the SEC in total offense.

Junior WR
J'Mon Moore

AERIAL ASSAULT

- Through three weeks of play, one thing is clear for the Mizzou offense under first-year coordinator Josh Heupel: Mizzou is going to air it out. One year removed from finishing 112th nationally in passing offense and 124th in total offense, Mizzou has seen an offensive resurrection, ranking fifth nationally in passing offense and 16th nationally in total offense.
- Mizzou averaged just 165.5 yards through the air a year ago and checks in at 378.3 per contest in 2016, which is by far the largest turnaround in the nation.
- The passing game obviously all starts with the development of sophomore QB Drew Lock, who has flourished under Heupel's direction. Lock threw for 1,332 yards in 12 games (eight starts) a year ago and has almost surpassed that mark through just three games this year (1,106). He has already more than doubled his TD output a year ago (nine this year, four all of 2015) and he leads the SEC in completions, passing yards, passing yards per game and yards per completion. He ranks in the top 10 nationally in yards and yards per completion as well.
- A big part of the resurgent offense has been an arsenal of weapons at Lock's disposal, highlighted by junior WR J'Mon Moore, who just put together the best game of his career last week against Georgia, hauling in eight passes for 196 yards and a pair of scores. To put Moore's 196 yards into perspective, it is the ninth-best performance in school history and the best since Nov. 28, 2009 when All-American Danario Alexander had 233 against Kansas. The 196 yards are the most by an SEC receiver this season and only three players nationally have posted more receiving yards in a game this season. Moore leads the SEC in yards and yards per game, is third in catches per game and sixth in TDs.

- There have been just 16 100-yard receiving performances in the SEC this season and Mizzou owns five of those performances. Mizzou also owns the longest two pass plays from scrimmage in the SEC this season (an 87-yard TD by Johnathon Johnson vs. EMU and a 79-yard TD by Moore last week vs. UGA).

EXPLOSIVENESS ON OFFENSE

- A big key for Mizzou's revamped offense has been its big-play ability. In 12 games a year ago, Mizzou had just 13 pass plays of 20 or more yards and just three passing TDs of 20+ yards. This season has again been a stark contrast: in just three games, Mizzou has 12 pass plays of 20+ yards and four passing TDs of 20+ yards.
- Breaking that down further, Mizzou leads the nation in plays of 70+ yards, is second nationally in plays of 60+ yards and third in plays of 50+ yards. Of Mizzou's 12 pass plays of 20+ yards, seven of those 12 have gone for at least 40 yards, a mark that is fourth nationally and second among teams from a power five league. Mizzou had just four plays of 40+ yards in 12 games a season ago, which ranked 103rd nationally.

- Mizzou's offense has also developed a quick-strike propensity, scoring on the opening drive in each of the last two games. The last time the Tigers scored on their opening possession in two consecutive games was during the 2015 season vs. Florida (Oct. 10, 2015), followed by at Georgia (Oct. 17, 2015). Mizzou recorded a field goal on each of those opening possessions. Mizzou has scored touchdowns on the opening drives of two consecutive games, with the last such occurrence coming with the closing game of the 2011 season vs. North Carolina (Dec. 26, 2011), followed by the opening game of the 2012 season vs. Southeastern Louisiana (Sept. 1, 2012).
- Mizzou scored on each of its first two possessions for the first time since October 5th, 2013 in a 51-28 victory over Vanderbilt.
- Mizzou also has three scoring drives that took just one play this season - Johnson's 87-yard TD vs. EMU and Moore's 79-yard and six-yard TD grabs vs. UGA last week. Mizzou had just one such drive a year ago.

Sophomore TE

SHOW ME

A TIGHT END PASSING GAME

- Mizzou's three tight ends have been a key figure in the passing game this season and have been featured prominently through a variety of packages this season. The trio of Sean Culkin, Jason Reese and Kendall Blanton checks in at an average height of 6-5³/₄ and 253 pounds.
- The trio has combined for 14 catches for 147 yards (10.5 avg.) and three scores over the first three games as they are being featured much more prominently than in the past couple years at Mizzou.
- Reese and Blanton (pictured left) each had TD grabs vs. Eastern Michigan. Mizzou had not had multiple TEs with a TD grabs since 2007 before Saturday's game.
- Mizzou has scored six redzone TDs this year after having just 10 all of last season. Three of those six scores have gone to TEs this season as their size and athleticism makes them all weapons in the redzone.

MORE ON OFFENSE

- Sophomore QB Drew Lock is coming off of his third straight game with 20+ completions. Such a stretch has only been accomplished four other times by Mizzou quarterbacks, once by Blaine Gabbert (2010), twice by Chase Daniel (2006, 2007) and once by Brad Smith (2005).
- Lock has thrown for at least 280 yards in each of Mizzou's games this season. The last Mizzou quarterback to throw for at least 250 yards in each of the team's first three games was Chase Daniel in 2007.
- The only other time in Mizzou history that a quarterback has had touchdown passes of 79 yards or more in consecutive games was Blaine Gabbert in 2009. Lock has done it in back-to-back games with an 87-yarder vs. EMU and a 79-yarder vs. Georgia.
- After J'Mon Moore's 196-yard performance last Saturday vs. Georgia, he is now one of three Mizzou receivers since 2000 to accumulate over 100 receiving yards in two of Mizzou's first three games of a season, joining Chase Coffman (2008) and T.J. Moe (2010).

TIGHT END PASSING GAME EMERGES

- Mizzou has certainly had a pedigree when it comes to producing elite tight ends, dating back to the days of All-Americans Chase Coffman, Martin Rucker and Michael Egnew. Even with that pedigree, Mizzou's tight ends had seen their role diminish over the last several years. That appears to have changed this year as offensive coordinator Josh Heupel and TE coach Joe Jon Finley have started to use the tight ends in key spots of the game and in a variety of packages.
- Mizzou's main TE rotation features senior Sean Culkin, junior Jason Reese and sophomore Kendall Blanton. The trio has 14 catches for 147 yards (10.5 avg.) and three scores so far this season. Last season, Mizzou's TEs combined for just 33 catches and 179 yards (5.4 avg.) over 12 games, scoring just one TD.
- Reese and Blanton each hauled in TD passes in Mizzou's 61-21 win over Eastern Michigan. Mizzou had not had multiple tight ends catch a TD pass in the same game since Nov. 3, 2007, at Colorado when Rucker and Coffman combined for four TDs (Coffman -3, Rucker - 1).
- Mizzou's TE trio checks in at an average of 6-5³/₄ and 253 pounds, giving Mizzou QB Drew Lock three big targets to be utilized in a variety of different situations on the field.
- All three touchdowns by Mizzou's tight ends have come as redzone strikes as their size makes them a huge threat near the goal line; they have half of Mizzou's six redzone TDs this year. Considering Mizzou had just 10 redzone TDs in 31 attempts last season, the three by the tight ends this years shows their importance in the offense.

CHARLES BACK IN CHARGE

- Another major storyline from last week's game vs. Georgia was the emergence of preseason All-SEC pick DE Charles Harris. Without a sack in his first two games, Harris went from tied for last in the SEC in sacks to third after a three-sack, four-tackle-for-loss outing last week against Georgia. It was Harris' first career three-sack game and his second career game with 4.0+ tackles for loss.
- Harris' seven tackles on the night are a new season-best, with the DE also recording his first pass break-up of the season.
- Harris' 3.0-sack game was the first for a Mizzou player since the 2013 season, when Michael Sam accomplished the feat vs. Florida (Oct. 19, 2013). Sam was named SEC Defensive Player of the Year in 2013 and broke Mizzou's single season sacks record.
- Harris now ranks tied for third in the SEC with 3.0 sacks and he is fourth in the SEC with his 4.0 tackles for loss.
- Harris is the only player in the SEC with 3.0 sacks this season and he and Mississippi State's A.J. Jefferson are the only players with 4.0 tackles for loss in a single game, although Harris' 4.0 TFLs came against an SEC foe while Jefferson had his outing against South Alabama.
- In three career games vs. Georgia, Harris now has 19 tackles, five sacks and seven TFLs.

PENTON LOCKING DOWN

- After three weeks of play, Mizzou CB Aarion Penton is quickly establishing himself as one of the nation's top corners. In fact, Penton leads the nation in passes defended (eight), is seventh in interceptions (two) and leads the team in pass break-ups. He leads the SEC in all of those categories as well.
- Penton has also tallied 11 tackles (10 solo) as he is putting together an All-SEC type of season so far.

BREAKING UP IS EASY TO DO FOR MIZZOU

- Staying on the topic of defending passes, Mizzou leads the nation with 29 passes defended over the first three games, averaging 9.67 per contest this season. The 29 passes defended are comprised of a national-best 24 pass-break-ups and five interceptions. Ohio State (24 passes defended) is the next closest school on the list while Alabama (22) is the next-closest SEC school.
- Of Mizzou's 29 passes defended, nine came last week against Georgia with eight PBUs and a 27-yard INT by sophomore S Cam Hilton, the first pick of his career.
- Mizzou had just 53 total passes defended a year ago, averaging less than half (4.42) of what it is averaging through three games this season.

SHOW ME

PENTON LOCKING DOWN

- Through three games, Mizzou senior CB Aarion Penton leads the nation in passes defended with eight (six pass break-ups and two interceptions).
- He is part of a Mizzou secondary that leads the nation with 29 passes defended (24 pass break-ups and five interceptions). Ohio State is the next-closest at 24 while Alabama is the next-closest SEC school with 22.

JUGGERNAUT FOR PIESMAN

While Mizzou's offense has been downright explosive this season, you could make the argument that three of the most exciting plays for Mizzou's offense have been short-yardage conversions. The reason for the excitement: 6-4, 355-pound fullback Josh Augusta. After becoming a fan-favorite as a DT in #DLineZou, Augusta has become an urban legend as a fullback when switching over to offense in short-yardage situations. Below is a look at his short-yardage contributions this season.

- @WVU – 4th-and-1 (4th-Q), carried for a 1-yard gain and a 1st Down...
- EMU – 3rd-and-1 (3rd-Q), carried for a 2-yard gain and a 1st Down...
- EMU – 4th-and-1 (4th-Q), got to second level and blocked two guys (one w/each arm) to spring Fr. Damarea Crockett for a 26-yard TD...
- UGA – 4th-and-1 (4th-Q), carried for a 1-yard gain and a 1st Down. He was gang-tackled by six Georgia players who could not bring him down.

Last week, following the national attention that his downfield, two-arm demolition block of two Eastern Michigan players, Augusta officially declared his candidacy for the Peisman Trophy, an award created by SBNation.com which recognizes offensive and defensive linemen for their contributions. Augusta changed his twitter cover photo to a picture of the Peisman trophy to announce his candidacy.

HEY, MR. WILSON

- Junior free safety Thomas Wilson may be the surprise of Mizzou's defense through three games this season. He is coming off of his second consecutive 10-tackle performance after posting 10 last week against Georgia (nine solo).
- Wilson is currently fifth in the SEC with 25 total tackles and his 20 solo stops are second in the SEC, trailing only Kentucky's Jordan Jones (24).
- Wilson is tied for the team lead in tackles with senior LB Michael Scherer.

#DLINEZOU RESURGENCE

- Before Saturday's game vs. Georgia, the school that had become known as #DLineZou had just one sack credited through the first two games. That all changed Saturday vs. Georgia as Mizzou picked up four sacks and seven tackles for loss as a team.
- All four sacks and 5.5 of the tackles for loss came from #DLineZou, spearheaded by All-SEC standout DE Charles Harris, who turned in the SEC's top sack mark and top TFL mark of the season.
- Harris posted 3.0 sacks, Mizzou's first three-sack outing since SEC Defensive Player of the Year Michael Sam in 2013. He also added a tackle for loss, giving him 4.0 TFLs for the second time in his career. Both marks are the best by an SEC player this season.

FIRST DOWNS, NO PROBLEM

- After three weeks of play, Mizzou has seemed to develop a knack for picking up first downs. The Tiger offense has converted third downs at a .455 clip this season, a mark that ranks fourth in the SEC and in the top 50 nationally.
- Looking deeper into the stat, Mizzou has picked up 74 first downs (24.7 per game) on offense this season, a mark that fourth second in the SEC and 29th nationally.
- Both of the stats are a vast improvement from a year ago when Mizzou converted just 30-percent of third downs while averaging just 15.1 first downs per game last year. Mizzou was 121st in third down conversion last year and 125th in total first downs.

YES HE McCANN

- True freshman PK Tucker McCann has touchbacks on 15-of-18 kickoffs so far this season, including a perfect 10-for-10 mark in Mizzou's 61-21 win over EMU in week two.
- That touchback percentage of 83.3% ranks as seventh-best in the NCAA so far, and second in the SEC (Daniel Carlson of Auburn leads the nation with a 91.7% rate [11-of-12]).
- McCann leads all true freshmen in FBS in touchback percentage. The only freshman to rank ahead of him is Georgia Southern's Tyler Bass (85.0%), who took a redshirt in 2015.

JJ FRESHMAN OF THE WEEK IN WEEK TWO

- RS freshman WR Johnathon Johnson was named SEC Freshman of the Week following Mizzou's win over EMU in week two. Johnson finished with 210 all-purpose yards with a pair of touchdowns and became the first Football Bowl Subdivision player with a punt return touchdown, receiving touchdown and 100 receiving yards in an FBS game since 2001, according to data from Sports-Reference.com.

SHOW ME

A PIESMANTROPHY CAMPAIGN

- Mizzou senior DT Josh Augusta has been getting snaps at fullback throughout the season. The 6-4, 355-pound fan-favorite has picked up three key first downs when carrying the ball and also blocked two men at the same time downfield to spring Damarea Crockett for a 26-yard TD.

A REJUVENATED OFFENSIVE LINE

- Mizzou's offensive line was the youngest group in the nation entering the season, boasting just three career starts before week one. But what was supposed to be an inexperienced group in rebuild mode, the offensive line has been nothing short of sensational this year.
- Mizzou ranks sixth nationally in both sacks allowed and third nationally in tackles for loss allowed. Mizzou has allowed just one sack and only six tackles for loss over the three two games of the season, both of which are SEC-leading marks.
- Sophomore QB Drew Lock has not been touched on a drop-back to pass in two consecutive games and he has thrown the ball 75 times in those two games.
- Both RT Paul Adams and LT Tyler Howell have ranked among the nation's best in pass protections according to ProFootballFocus.com

MIZZOU HAS JUST 16 SENIORS

- When Mizzou hit the field in week one, it did so as one of the youngest teams in the nation. In fact, Mizzou has just 16 seniors on its roster with seven on offense and nine on defense. Only 18 schools in all of Division I have fewer seniors than Mizzou and of those 18, only 12 are from power five conferences. Only 14 schools (nine from power 5) have fewer seniors on offense. What is even more remarkable is that three of the seniors on offense are graduate transfers - WR Chris Black (Alabama), RB Alex Ross (Oklahoma) and OL Michael Stannard (Memphis). Three of the remaining four are walk-ons, leaving TE Sean Culkin as the only five-year senior on Mizzou's offense this season. Below in the table is a breakdown of the fewest seniors by school in the nation this season.

YOUTH ALONG O-LINE

- Staying on the topic of youth on offense, Mizzou's O-Line may be its youngest position group on offense. In fact, the starting offensive line boasts three RS sophomores and a pair of juniors. The group had combined to make just three starts (all three by RG Alec Abeln) before week one when four players made their first career FBS O-Line starts. The three starts at the beginning of the year were the fewest of any O-line group in the nation (Navy had 4, Iowa St. had 6). The two-deep on the offensive line features just three upperclassman and one lone senior: graduate transfer Michael Stannard.

STRONG IN PASS PROTECTION

- In what was supposed to be an area of concern and inexperience for Mizzou, the offensive line has been outstanding early this year. Through three games, Mizzou has been sacked just once and been tackled behind the line just six times. Mizzou and Florida are the only teams in the SEC to give up just one sack on the year this season.
- Heading into this weekend's tilt against Delaware State, Mizzou ranks third in the nation in tackles for loss (six total) and sixth in sacks allowed (one total). Both marks lead the SEC.
- Sophomore Drew Lock has dropped back to pass 75 times over Mizzou's last two games and has not even been touched.
- The protection in the pass game is one of the key's to Mizzou's pass offense ranking among the top in the nation and atop the SEC and it is a vast improvement from a year ago. Despite losing four seniors (including two to the NFL), Mizzou's revamped offensive line full of youngsters has taken the team from ranking 93rd in sacks allowed and 114th in tackles for loss allowed in 2105 to top-10 national marks in each category this season.

NEWCOMERS ON THE DEPTH

- In addition to not featuring many seniors as a team, Mizzou's week two two-deep depth chart features 14 first-year players, including eight true freshmen. The depth also features nine players who are considered first-year starters, once again hinting at Mizzou's youth at virtually every position. Mizzou has had 11 players make their first collegiate starts this season while 25 players have made their collegiate debut in 2016.

FATONY PICKS UP WHERE HE LEFT OFF

- Freshman All-American punter Corey Fatony had a tremendous freshman year in 2015 and seems primed for an even better encore as a sophomore. Fatony had eight punts in week one at West Virginia and averaged 39.2 yards per kick. His first kick went for 50 yards and five of his eight punts went for 45 yards or more. He also put three inside of WVU's 20 yard line.
- On the year, Fatony is averaging 43.6 yards per punt with six inside the 20 and five kicks of 50+ yards, including a 60-yard bomb last week vs. Georgia, just one yard off of his career-long.

"The offensive line played their game. I didn't get touched once. It's safe to say we'll be going out to a little Sunday dinner."

BARRY ODOM

1st Season as Mizzou Head Coach

Mizzou, 1999

Career Record: 1-2

- ▼ 14 Years of Experience at Mizzou
- ▼ Spent Last 4 Years as a Defensive Coordinator (3 at Memphis, 1 at Mizzou)
- ▼ Mizzou Linebacker (1996-99) under Mizzou head coach Larry Smith
- ▼ Safeties Coach at Mizzou from 2009-11
- ▼ Mizzou Football Operations from 2006-08
- ▼ Head Coach of Rock Bridge High School (Columbia) from 2001-02
- ▼ True Son who Graduated from Mizzou in 1999
- ▼ Native of Maysville, Okla.

A longtime fixture at Mizzou, Odom, 39, takes over a program he has been immersed in at every level for some 14 years — including six in an administrative capacity (2003-08), four as a coach (2009-11, 2015) and four as a highly-successful student-athlete (1996-99). He has spent the past four seasons as a defensive coordinator, including three at Memphis (2012-14) and one at Missouri, where his units were considered among the best in the nation.

Odom recently finished up an outstanding season as first-year defensive coordinator for Mizzou and retired coach Gary Pinkel, as his Tigers ranked ninth in the nation in total defense, allowing just 302.0 yards per game. Since the NCAA began tracking defensive statistics in 1978, this marks the first time in MU history that Mizzou has had a top-10 defense. Odom's defense was also ranked seventh nationally in scoring defense (16.2 avg.), seventh in pass defense (169.2 avg.) and second in tackles for loss (8.8 avg.).

Prior to that, Odom became one of the more highly sought-after coordinators in the country due to three stellar years directing Memphis' defense from 2012-14. His 2014 defense was a key component of Memphis' 10-3 season, as his unit finished the regular season ranked fifth nationally in scoring defense (17.1 avg.) and 22nd in total defense (343.3 avg.). That marked an impressive incremental improvement under Odom's watch, as Memphis ranked 117th nationally in total defense the season prior to his arrival. In his first season at Memphis, the defense improved to 50th nationally (383.6 avg.), followed by a jump to 39th in 2013 (370.7 avg.). Memphis earned a share of the 2014 American Athletic Conference title, giving them a conference championship for the first time since 1971.

A true son of Mizzou, Odom, a Maysville, Okla. native, played under former Coach Larry Smith, and starred as a linebacker from 1996-99. He ended his playing career with 362 tackles, which still ranks as seventh-most in school history. Odom was a captain for his senior year of 1999, and was a key figure on the Missouri teams which reached bowl games in 1997 and 1998, ending a 14-year postseason drought for Tiger fans.

Success followed Odom's career path at each future stop after his playing days. After earning his undergraduate degree in December of 1999, he served as an intern with Mizzou's Tiger Scholarship Fund while he worked on his Master's in Education from the University of Missouri (which he would earn in May of 2004). He returned to his home state of Oklahoma in July of that year to serve as an assistant football coach for his alma mater Ada High School, which finished that season as runners-up for a state title.

Odom was quickly back in his adopted hometown of Columbia, Mo., the next spring, as he took over as head coach at Rock Bridge High School. He quickly built the Bruins into a power, as they went 6-4 in 2001, and won a conference championship. He followed with an 8-4 campaign in 2002 that saw Rock Bridge reach the semifinals of the state championship playoffs.

Running a college program became a focal point next, and Odom began that path by joining the Mizzou staff, first as an administrative graduate assistant for Gary Pinkel in 2003. He spent the 2004 and 2005 seasons as Pinkel's director of recruiting as the staff assembled a core group which would help lead Mizzou to consecutive Big 12 Conference North Division titles in 2007 and 2008 which consisted of 12-win and 10-win seasons, respectively. From 2006-08, Odom helped run Pinkel's program administratively as his director of operations. In that role, Odom oversaw coordination of the team's budget, travel plans (including bowl trips to the Sun, Cotton and Alamo bowls during that stretch), compliance issues, facilities operations and scheduling, as well as assisting with recruiting operations and managing the day-to-day overall operations of the program.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING...

FORMER MIZZOU HEAD COACH GARY PINKEL ON BARRY ODOM

"I'm so happy for Barry, he's absolutely the right guy for the job. You saw the reaction he got from the team last Thursday, and that says it all. He's got a great plan to take the MizzouMade legacy and make it even better, and I know he'll work extremely hard to do that and make our fans proud. Barry is a man's man, he's a person of great integrity who treats people the right way. He's got exceptional leadership skills and people skills, and he will run a tough, disciplined program. At the same time, he cares very much for his players, and it will show. I know he expects to come in and take Mizzou Football to a higher level, and I look forward to watching that happen."

VIRGINIA TECH HEAD COACH JUSTIN FUENTE ON BARRY ODOM

"The University of Missouri has selected an outstanding coach and leader in Barry Odom. Not only does Barry possess a great defensive mind, he has a unique ability to connect with and motivate kids. I've always known that it was not a matter of if, but when, Barry would be a head coach. I have no doubt he'll do a great job with the opportunity he's been given."

OKLAHOMA ATHLETIC DIRECTOR JOE CASTIGLIONE ON BARRY ODOM

"From the moment I met him on his official visit as a prospective student-athlete, through watching his playing years as a Tiger, it was clearly evident that Barry Odom's character, leadership skills and intent to make everyone around him better would position him for success in everything he pursued. I've followed his career journey ever since with great interest. I'm absolutely thrilled for him as he realizes his dream of becoming Head football Coach at Mizzou. He has taken every opportunity to properly prepare for this moment and I firmly believe he will lead Missouri to a lot of success."

OC JOSH HEUPEL

ASSISTANTS BOAST IMPRESSIVE CREDENTIALS

WR COACH ANDY HILL

► Andy Hill has coached 20 seasons at the University of Missouri, making him the longest-tenured coach on the Tiger football staff. In fact, only two other assistant coaches in MU football history have enjoyed longer tenures at Mizzou: Clay Cooper (29 seasons) and Chauncey Simpson (21), who Hill will match this season.

► In 2016, Hill will transition back to coaching the wide receivers, a role that gained him some well-deserved recognition from 1996-2012, coaching some of the best players in Mizzou history. He has spent 2013-15 coaching Mizzou's quarterbacks, including mentoring freshman starter Drew Lock in 2015.

THE COORDINATORS

► OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR JOSH HEUPEL: Barry Odom recruited Josh Heupel to join Mizzou as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach.

► Heupel brings with him an impressive track record of success, including four national championship game appearances, seven BCS bowl games and coaching oversight of two Heisman Trophy winning quarterbacks. He has 13 years of coaching and recruiting experience at the highest level, including the last five seasons as offensive coordinator and play caller at Oklahoma and Utah State.

► DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR DeMONTIE CROSS: Barry Odom has added Mizzou alum and successful veteran coach DeMontie Cross to his staff. Cross will serve as Mizzou's defensive coordinator and linebackers coach.

► Cross comes home to Mizzou after spending the past 18 seasons with numerous programs, including 12 years with Power 5 programs and five more in the National Football League. In all, he has been part of eight bowl teams and three conference championship teams since beginning his coaching days as a graduate assistant/outside linebackers coach at Mizzou for Larry Smith (1998-99).

► CO-DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR RYAN WALTERS: Ryan Walters came to MU with Barry Odom in February of 2015 when Odom was announced as the defensive coordinator. Now Mizzou's head coach, Odom kept Walters on board for his second season coaching the safeties. Thanks to his outstanding work on the field, as well as in recruiting circles, Odom named Walters Co-Defensive Coordinator this off-season.

RB COACH CORNELL FORD

► Cornell Ford is in his 16th season at Mizzou but is entering his first working with the Tiger running backs. Before working with the running backs, Ford spent 12 years coaching the Tiger cornerbacks, after he focused on MU's outside safeties his first three years. Ford is also the Tigers' chief recruiter in St. Louis, where he has signed some of the very best players in the state who have been critical to Mizzou's success over the years. He was elevated to Assistant Head Coach in the offseason.

OFFENSIVE ASSISTANTS

► O-LINE COACH GLEN ELARBEE: Elarbee will serve as Mizzou's offensive line coach, a position he has coached successfully for the past six seasons at several programs, including the last two while also serving as co-offensive coordinator at Arkansas State.

► TE COACH JOE JON FINLEY: Finley will serve as Mizzou's tight ends coach, a position in which he was an all-conference performer in his playing days for the Oklahoma Sooners and has helped coach for several seasons at the Power Five level. He spent the 2015 season on the coaching staff at Baylor, where he worked extensively with the tight ends as an offensive quality control specialist.

DEFENSIVE ASSISTANTS

► CORNERBACKS COACH GREG BROWN: Brown will serve as Mizzou's cornerbacks coach, and he comes to MU with a long resume of success coaching the secondary at both the collegiate and professional levels, including defensive coordinator stints at both Arizona and Colorado.

► D-LINE COACH JACKIE SHIPP: Jackie Shipp, who has coached defensive line for all but one year of his accomplished 25-year-career, has coached in four national championship games, including the 2001 Orange Bowl, where his alma mater Oklahoma won the BCS National Championship. Shipp comes to Mizzou after spending the last three seasons (2013-15) mentoring the defensive line at Arizona State

• Associate Head Coach Andy Hill is Mizzou's longest-tenured assistant coach, entering his 20th year on the Mizzou sideline.

• Defensive Coordinator DeMontie Cross was a standout player at Mizzou and has had a successful coaching career before returning this year. Ryan Walters (below) was elevated to Co-Defensive Coordinator in the spring.
