GAME NO. 1

MISSOURI 47, MURRAY STATE 7

Chase Daniel set a Missouri record with five touchdown passes, helping the Tigers beat Murray State 47-7 as he led an offensive attack that racked up 589 yards on the night – the 10th-highest single game output in MU school history.

Daniel, making his first career start, was 23-of-32 for 320 yards with a passer rating of 207.44. He broke the school mark that was held by six others, including former record-setting quarterback Brad Smith, who had four in last season's opening 44-17 win over Arkansas State.

Daniel's passing yardage total was also the 10th-highest mark in MU single-game annals.

The Tigers needed just six plays to take the lead for good. Daniel's quick toss to Will Franklin became a 60-yard scoring pass when Franklin spun past the cornerback and ran untouched into the end zone.

Daniel connected with Brad Ekwerekwu on an 8-yard touchdown pass and with Chase Coffman on a 3-yard score later in the first quarter. In the second quarter, Marcus Woods scored on a 2-yard run and Daniel and Franklin connected again, this time on a 34-yard scoring pass in the final minute of the half.

The record-breaking touchdown pass came with 10:53 to play when Daniel hit a wide-open Jared Perry down the left sideline, putting Missouri ahead 47-0.

The Tigers also scored on a safety in the third quarter when Sean Weatherspoon blocked a punt out of the end zone, and on a 38-yard field goal by Jeff Wolfert.

Missouri's defense played well, too. Murray State, in the first game under new coach Matt Griffin, didn't make a first down until 7:34 remained in the second quarter. By then, Missouri was ahead 21-0. Starting quarterback Ryne Salyer was 8-of-13 for 39 yards with a lost fumble and an interception. Backup Zac Barnard was 12-of-17 for 89 yards and a touchdown. The Racers' leading rusher, Chad Cook, gained 12 yards on 31 carries.

Murray State's lone score came late in the fourth quarter on a 13-yard TD pass from Barnard to Nate Moore.

Mizzou's defense held the Racers to only 150 yards of offense on the night, including just 25 rushing yards on 27 attempts. The Tiger defenders held Murray State to just 2-of-13 on third down attempts, and snuffed out the only fourth down try the Racers had all night.

Starting tailback Tony Temple carried 15 times and ended with a career-high 119 yards – the most by an MU tailback since former standout Zack Abron rushed for 139 yards in 2003 against Texas Tech.

Senior linebacker Marcus Bacon led the Tiger defensive charge, with a career-high 12 tackles. Bacon recovered a fumble by noseguard Ziggy Hood, and safety Brandon Massey intercepted a pass to account for two forced turnovers by Murray State.

The win was the 30th in the six-year Missouri career of Head Coach Gary Pinkel, and evened his record at MU to 30-30.

MISSOURI 34, OLE MISS 7

Chase Daniel had 332 yards in total offense, and Missouri got a dominant effort from its defense in a 34-7 victory over Mississippi to move to 2-0 on the season.

Daniel ran for a three-yard score and had a 20-yard touchdown pass in a strong follow-up to his first career start when he threw a school-record five touchdown passes against Division I-AA Murray State. Against the tougher competition of Ole Miss, Daniel went 24-for-40 for 243 yards, while rushing for 89 yards on 13 carries.

Ole Miss managed just 162 total yards, and Mizzou's defense forced Rebel quarterback Brent Schaeffer into throwing three interceptions. The Rebels were outgained 169-7 in the first quarter and surrendered 471 yards overall.

Missouri (2-0) scored on three of its first four drives in the first half and the first two possessions of the second half. The Tigers moved to 2-0 for the first time since 2003, after getting upset by New Mexico and Troy the previous two seasons.

Mississippi's lone score came after a turnover gave the Rebels possession in Missouri territory for the only time. Marcus Woods fumbled a punt return, and Charles Clark recovered at the 40. Two plays later, Schaeffer threw a 30-yard touchdown pass to Marshay Green with 1:50 left in the first half to cut the gap to 17-7.

Daniel accounted for all 80 yards on the Tigers' opening drive, going 6-for-6 for 50 yards and rushing four times for 30 yards. He busted a 25-yard run off a fake handoff and scored on a three-yard run.

A 24-yard pass from Daniel to William Franklin set up a 22-yard field goal by Jeff Wolfert, and a punt downed at the two ended up giving Missouri favorable field position on a 43-yard drive capped by Woods' one-yard run for a 17-0 lead.

Daniel accounted for 242 of MU's 276 total first half yards.

Brad Ekwerekwu caught a 20-yard touchdown pass to cap Missouri's first drive of the second half. Ekwerekwu set a career high with 95 yards receiving and tied a career best with eight receptions.

Backup quarterback Brandon Coleman capped the scoring for Mizzou with an eight-yard scoring run in the fourth quarter, for his second TD of his career.

The Tigers held Ole Miss scoreless in the second half with plays such as senior Marcus Bacon's interception and 52-yard return.

Bacon had 11 tackles and also forced a fumble in the game.

Freshman Del Howard had his first career interception, picking off a pass in the fourth quarter.

BenJarvus Green-Ellis had 69 yards on 16 carries for Mississippi, which had 240 yards rushing in its opening victory over Memphis.

GAME NO. 3

MISSOURI 27, NEW MEXICO 17

Chase Daniel's fourth quarter touchdown run broke open the game, Tony Temple rushed for 168 yards and Brian Smith tied an MU single-game record with four sacks as the Tigers remained unbeaten with a 27-17 win over New Mexico.

Missouri (3-0) showed plenty of offensive potential with 396 total yards, but the Tigers couldn't capitalize on several scoring opportunities against a New Mexico defense that played good enough to keep the Lobos (1-2) in the game.

Daniel finally gave the Tigers breathing room by taking Missouri on an 80-yard, 11-play drive in the opening minutes of the fourth quarter and scoring on an eight-yard keeper for a 20-10 lead.

Earl Goldsmith added a late two-yard TD for the Tigers and New Mexico scored with 25 seconds left on a 13-yard pass from Chris Nelson to Marcus Smith in garbage time.

New Mexico, whose other touchdown came from linebacker Michael Tuohy's 11-yard interception return of a Daniel pass in the second quarter, had trouble all night against the bigger and quicker Missouri defensive front.

The Lobos finished with 201 total yards - just 33 of them rushing- and Missouri's pressure sacked Nelson eight times. But the Lobos were still thinking upset after Kenny Byrd's career-best 52-yard field goal cut Missouri's lead to 13-10 with 31 seconds left in the third quarter.

That's when Daniel, who completed 25 of 36 passes for 199 yards, led the Tigers on their best drive of the night. He completed four passes in the drive, the two biggest a 16-yarder to Will Franklin and a 13-yarder to Martin Rucker to the New Mexico 17.

The Tigers had wasted a good drive in the third quarter when Temple was hit by Lobo freshman defensive back Frankie Solomon and fumbled the ball into the end zone, where defensive end Phillip Harrison recovered for a touchback.

Missouri led 13-7 at the half, but the Tigers easily could have had a bigger cushion.

The Lobos lost two fumbles and Nelson threw an interception in the second quarter, but all the Tigers got from the three turnovers was a 36-yard field goal by Jeff Wolfert.

Missouri's offense clicked early as Daniel completed his first six passes in a smooth 13-play drive that ended with a 37-yard Wolfert field goal.

After New Mexico went three-and-out, Missouri went 56 yards on five plays, with Daniel hitting Rucker with a six-yard TD. The big play in that drive was a 39-yard run by Temple.

New Mexico, which spent much of the first half with negative rushing, cut it to 10-7 on Tuohy's interception. Missouri's receivers broke upfield on the play and Daniel's pass into the flat went right into Tuohy's hands. It was Daniel's interception this season after seven TD passes.

New Mexico's defense held the Tigers on fourth down at the Lobos' five-yard line late in the first half. That drive started with a fumble by Lobo halfback Rodney Ferguson at the New Mexico 30 that was recovered by linebacker Marcus Bacon. Daniel completed three straight short passes that got the Tigers to the New Mexico seven. On fourth-and-one from the six, Daniel tried to sneak for it and came up short.

New Mexico's offense again gave the Tigers another opportunity when Nelson fumbled and Lorenzo Williams recovered at the Lobos' 19. But Missouri gained just one yard on three plays and settled for Wolfert's second field goal.

GAME NO. 4 MISSOURI 31, OHIO 6

A dominant second-half performance buoyed Mizzou to a 31-6 win over the Ohio Bobcats, and a perfect 4-0 start for just the sixth time in the last 82 seasons (since 1925).

The MU defense, which allowed 157 yards of offense in the 1st half, shut down Ohio after intermission, allowing only 31 total yards in the 2nd half (with 37 coming on its final possession before an MU interception ended the game). The Tiger offense chipped in adequately, despite 3 turnovers in the game, outgaining the Bobcats 211-to-31 in the second half, and 428-to-188 in total on the day.

The Tiger defense, ranked second in the nation coming into the game, got challenged early, as Ohio forced a turnover on MU's game-opening possession and took over on the Tiger 41-yardline. The Bobcats mustered only 20 yards, however, and had a 38-yard field goal attempt blocked by LB Marcus Bacon to end the threat.

The Tiger offense responded three plays later, when QB Chase Daniel hit a wide-open WR Will Franklin down the left sideline for a 68-yard TD pass – the longest pass play since 2000 at MU – to give Mizzou the lead, 7-0.

The Bobcats wouldn't go away, however, as they strung together a seven-play, 80-yard TD drive midway through the second quarter to close to within one point, at 7-6. The extra point was blocked by DL Lorenzo Williams and DE Xzavie Jackson, though, to preserve the lead.

That block seemed to swing momentum for the homestanding Tigers, as the offense answered with an 11-play, 75-yard TD drive that ended with Daniel's second TD pass to Franklin (from 11 yards) with 5:26 left in the half to make it 14-6.

After a quick three-and-out forced by MU's defense to open the third quarter, the Tiger offense scored on its first two possessions – on a career-long 44-yard field goal by PK Jeff Wolfert and a five-yard TD run by Daniel – to extend the lead to 24-6 with 6:38 left in the period.

The TD drive covered only 28 yards and was set up by Williams' fumble recovery after CB Darnell Terrell crashed from the corner to force an errant option pitch by Ohio QB Austen Everson that Williams pounced on.

In four third-quarter possessions by Ohio, the Tiger defense held the Bobcats to -13 yards on 14 total plays, while the MU offense totaled 102 yards in the same 15 minutes.

TB Jimmy Jackson capped the scoring with a two-yard run (his first of the season) with 3:13 left in the game to account for the final score. Ohio drove 37 yards on its final drive, only to have Bacon grab his second interception of the season. He returned his pickoff 48 yards before being dragged down.

Bacon led all Tigers, with nine tackles, while Daniel totaled 302 yards of total offense, including 258 passing and 44 rushing. Franklin led all receivers with 99 yards receiving on four catches, and TB Tony Temple had a team-high 60 yards rushing on 15 attempts.

GAME NO. 5

MISSOURI 28, COLORADO 13

The 25th-ranked Missouri Tigers beat Colorado 28-13 in their Big 12 Conference opener to improve to 5-0 and match their best start in a quarter-century.

Chase Daniel threw four touchdown passes as Missouri equaled the 5-0 start of the 1981 team.

Daniel, a sophomore in his first season as a starter, completed 23 of 35 passes for 253 yards, with two interceptions. He has now thrown 13 TD passes this season, including a team-record five against Murray State.

Daniel and tight end Chase Coffman teamed up for first-quarter scoring passes of 2 and 9 yards. Daniel hit Missouri's other tight end, Martin Rucker, on a 1-yard score with 11 seconds left in the first half, and connected with wide receiver Jared Perry on a 9-yard score midway through the third quarter.

Both teams entered the game ranked in the top 10 nationally in team defense - Missouri (5-0, 1-0) was first and Colorado eighth. But the Tigers moved easily to touchdowns on their first two possessions, scoring on drives of 71 and 77 yards.

Colorado, ranked 113th in offense with just 223.5 yards per game coming in, actually outgained Missouri 373-353, but could manage just two Mason Crosby field goals

- a 32-yarder in the first quarter and a 36-yarder in the second - and one third-quarter touchdown.

Missouri's third score was set up by a Colorado mistake when punter Matt DiLallo let a high snap slip through his hands late in the second quarter. He recovered but was tackled at the Colorado 14.

Six plays later, on third-and-goal from the 1 and out of time-outs, Daniel hit Rucker to make it 21-6.

Colorado quarterback Bernard Jackson and wide receiver Dusty Sprague connected on a 63-yard pass on the first play of the third quarter, and Jackson scored from the 1 a play later to make it 21-13.

Missouri answered with a 52-yard scoring drive ending with Perry's score.

Colorado went for it on fourth down five times. All five failed, including a second-quarter effort on fourth-and-goal from the Missouri 4 with the Buffaloes trailing 14-3.

Jackson was 13-of-27 for 190 yards and ran 15 times for 93 yards. Hugh Charles carried 13 times for 87 yards for Colorado. Tony Temple led Missouri runners with 70 yards on 18 carries.

Crosby's two field goals and extra point gave him 256 career points and made him

Colorado's all-time leading scorer.

The Tigers had not allowed a first-quarter score until Saturday and have outscored opponents 62-3 in the first quarter.

Missouri converted 11-of-18 third down conversions, and its defense held the Buffaloes to only 3-of-12 on third downs, in addition to the 0-of-5 on fourth downs.

GAME NO. 6

MISSOURI 38, TEXAS TECH 21

Missouri enjoyed a total team effort, making enough big plays on both sides of the ball, to earn a solid 38-21 win at Texas Tech, spoiling the Red Raiders' Homecoming game.

The No. 23 Tigers' defense, which came into the game ranked No. 10 in the nation, set up most of the scoring on the night. If there were any questions coming into the game about MU's ability to defend the high-powered Tech offense, the answers came in four turnovers - two interceptions and two fumbles - by Tech quarterback Graham Harrell, which led to 28 points for Missouri. In all, MU collected five turnovers on the night, the most by Mizzou since gaining five in 2003 against Nebraska.

Chase Daniel threw for 171 yards and a touchdown, giving Missouri its first 6-0 start in 33 years.

Xzavie Jackson and William Moore scored on interception returns on consecutive Texas Tech possessions in the second quarter, to help stake the Tigers to a commanding 24-0 lead, before Tech staged a rally to pull to within 24-21 early in the 3rd quarter.

Daniel, who returned to Texas where he played high school football in the Dallas area, kept Tech's defense guessing. The Birthday Boy - Daniel turned 20 on Saturday - completed 15 of 22 passes, threw one interception and ran for 37 yards.

Missouri (2-0 Big 12) got up 24-0 before Texas Tech (4-2, 1-1) crossed the 50. The Red Raiders scored a two touchdowns before halftime and appeared to have momentum turned around. But Missouri stiffened and allowed only one score in the second half. Daniel and his offensive teammates responded after Tech closed it to 24-21 with a methodical 10-play, 73-yard drive for a TD to end the Tech momentum and push the lead back to 31-21, as Daniel connected with TE Chase Coffman from 6 yards out.

Harrell's second fumble came early in the second half and gave the Tigers good field position at Tech's 44. Daniel threw a 36-yard pass to Will Franklin and Tony Temple ran 8 yards for a touchdown (his 2nd of the night) on the first play of the fourth quarter to give the Tigers their winning margin.

Missouri's defense pressured Harrell early, forcing a fumble at the Red Raiders 12 on the first play of Tech's second possession. DeMarcus Scott recovered the ball and four plays later Temple put Missouri up 10-0 on a 1-yard run.

Missouri's defense got better in the second quarter.

Jackson got the first Missouri defensive score on a screen pass over the middle by Harrell and the defensive end lumbered 17 yards into the end zone untouched to give the Tigers a 17-0 lead.

Harrell's very next pass - to Robert Johnson near the sideline - was picked off by Moore, who scampered 22 yards to put Missouri up 24-0.

GAME NO. 7

TEXAS A&M 25, MISSOURI 19

Mizzou was dropped from the ranks of the undefeated, thanks in large part to three costly turnovers and an inability to get a methodical Texas A&M offense off the field, as the homestanding Aggies claimed a 25-19 win over the 19th-ranked Tigers.

The Tigers lost three fumbles on the day – all in the first half – and Texas A&M turned those into 10 points as the Aggies forged a 17-17 tie at halftime.

All 10 of those Aggie points off turnovers had an involvement with instant replay, as both plays that led to points were reviewed, and both ultimately went against Mizzou.

The first was potentially the most crucial play of the game, and it came just three plays into the game. Tiger QB Chase Daniel threw a perfectly-lofted pass deep downfield to a wide-open WR Will Franklin, who caught the ball in stride and raced toward the goalline for an apparent 65-yard TD. However, Franklin was caught from behind by A&M's Jordan Peterson inside the 5-yardline, and Peterson punched the ball out of Franklin's arms as he crossed the goalline, with the ball rolling out of the back of the endzone. The play was originally ruled a TD for MU, but replay showed that the ball came out before Franklin crossed the goalline, and it was overturned for a touchback.

The Aggies drove 74 yards on 15 plays for a 23-yard field goal to take a 3-0 lead, which represented MU's first deficit of the entire season.

The Tigers responded quickly, however, driving 73 yards in just 7 plays to take a 7-3 lead as TB Tony Temple scored on a 5-yard run.

Texas A&M used a reverse pass that went for 67 yards on its next possession to key a drive that saw them regain the lead at 10-7, but Mizzou again responded with a TD drive of its own, with Daniel and Franklin hooking up for a TD pass that covered 38 yards this time.

The next big replay that hurt MU came midway through the 2nd quarter, as Temple ran into traffic in the middle of the field, and was ruled to have fumbled the ball, which was recovered by A&M on the Tiger 23 yardline. Replay showed that Temple's knee appeared to be down, but the call was not overturned by replay officials, giving the Aggies field position that they cashed in for a subsequent TD to take a 17-14 lead.

MU's Jeff Wolfert tied the game just before half with a 39-yard field goal, and things looked to be going the Tigers' way when A&M QB Stephen McGee had to fall on an errant snap in his own endzone on the opening possession of the 3rd quarter for a safety, giving MU a 19-17 lead.

However, the Tiger offense – despite owning great field position at its own 45-yardline – couldn't seize the momentum, and went three-and-out.

A&M responded with a 13-play, 80-yard drive that was aided by a McGee 12-yard pass to himself that was deflected at the line of scrimmage by MU's Brock Christopher. McGee caught the deflection and raced for 12 yards on a 2nd-and-10 situation to the A&M 43-yardline. Instead of facing a 3rd-and-10, the Aggies were near midfield and on their way to what would ultimately prove to be the winning score. That came 10 plays later, when TB Mike Goodson scored from 2 yards out with 6:38 left in the 3rd quarter, and after McGee rushed for the 2-point conversion, A&M held a 25-19 lead.

The Tigers certainly had plenty of opportunities to regain the lead, but it couldn't score in any of its last four possessions. Its best chance came early in the 4th quarter, as Daniel directed a sharp drive that went from MU's 20-yardline to the A&M 4. Daniel hit his first 7 passes on the drive, before his 3rd-and-goal attempt to TE Chase Coffman in the endzone was batted away. After taking a delay of game penalty back to the 9-yardline, Mizzou went for the jugular, as it tried a fake field goal, but holder Brad Ekwereku's rush attempt was stopped after gaining only 3 yards.

That would prove to be MU's best chance to score the rest of the way, as the Tiger defense twice more got the ball back for the offense. But the Mizzou offense couldn't convert a 3rd-and-2 from its own 42-yardline on its first chance, and also came up short on a 4th-and-2 rush by Temple from its own 46 on its last possession. Replays showed that Temple might have gotten a bad spot, as he came up a football length short, but the the play was not reviewed.

A&M held the ball for a commanding 41 minutes and 30 seconds, and converted 9-of-15 third down situations, as the Tiger defense couldn't muster any turnovers, one week after forcing 5 Texas Tech turnovers that turned into 28 MU points.

GAME NO. 8

MISSOURI 41, KANSAS STATE 21

A wet field, a slippery ball, a 13-game losing streak — none of it mattered to Chase Daniel.

Missouri's sophomore quarterback put on another passing display, throwing touchdown passes to four different receivers as the 24th-ranked Tigers beat Kansas State 41-21, snapping a 13-game losing streak against the Wildcats.

Missouri (7-1, 3-1) overcame a turnover turned into a touchdown on the first play from scrimmage to bounce back from the previous week's 25-19 loss to Texas A&M and get off to its best start since 1969. After starting 3-0 under new coach Ron Prince, the Wildcats (4-4, 1-3) dropped their fourth game in their last five.

The game, played in a driving rain, marked Missouri's first win over Kansas State since a 27-14 victory in Columbia in 1992.

Kansas State seemed poised for the upset early. Defensive end Rob Jackson broke around left end on the first play from scrimmage at the Missouri 41 and blindsided Daniel, forcing a fumble that was scooped up by linebacker Zach Diles, who ran 43 yards for the score.

After Jeff Wolfert made a 30-yard field goal for Missouri, the Wildcats had a chance to go up 14-3 early in the second quarter. But on fourth-and-goal from the 1, James Johnson was stopped for no gain.

Prince said going up 14-3 would have given his young team — the offense starts five freshmen — confidence on the road.

Missouri then drove 99 yards in 10 plays, scoring on a 14-yard pass from Daniel to tight end Martin Rucker.

The Tigers made it 17-7 later in the half. On third-and-1 from the Missouri 48, Daniel threw a short sideline pass to Will Franklin, who spun around a defender on single coverage and ran untouched to the end zone.

Daniel, who set a team record with five TD passes in a season-opening 47-7 win over Murray State, was 24-of-31 for 262 yards. He broke Terry McMillan's record of 18 touchdown throws in a season, set in 1969.

Franklin had five catches for 87 yards and a touchdown, and tight end Chase Coffman had six catches for 75 yards and a 14-yard fourth-quarter score. Tony Temple gained 62 yards on nine carries.

Kansas State freshman quarterback Josh Freeman, who came in completing just 43.1 percent of his passes, was 5-of-19 for 63 yards, was intercepted twice and lost a fumble. He was also sacked four times, twice by linebacker Marcus Bacon.

But the Wildcats had success running the ball, rushing for 262 yards. Johnson carried 20 times for 127 yards and a fourth-quarter 9-yard score, and Patton rushed 18 times for 112 yards and a 15-yard touchdown run in the third quarter.

The start of the second half was a disaster for Kansas State as the Wildcats committed turnovers on three of their first four plays from scrimmage, resulting in 17 Missouri points.

Freeman was intercepted by Dedrick Harrington at the Missouri 48, and the Tigers eventually scored on a 3-yard pass from Daniel to Tommy Saunders. After the kickoff, Darnell Terrell outmuscled Yamon Figurs for a Freeman pass at the Kansas State 29 and returned it to the 11, setting up a 20-yard field goal by Wolfert.

Two plays after that, Missouri's Brock Christopher jarred the ball loose from Patton, and David Overstreet picked up the fumble and ran 41 yards for a touchdown.

GAME NO. 9

OKLAHOMA 26, MISSOURI 10

Paul Thompson threw two touchdown passes and ran for another score as No. 19 Oklahoma turned five Missouri mistakes into points in a 26-10 victory over the 23rd-ranked Tigers.

Two interceptions, a fumble, a blocked punt and a roughing the kicker penalty set up every point scored for Oklahoma (6-2, 3-1 Big 12), which beat No. 23 Missouri for the 15th time in 16 tries.

The Tigers (7-2, 3-2) lost at home for the first time in nine games.

Thompson was 11-for-19 for 127 yards, passed for two touchdowns and ran for another. Allen Patrick, in his second game as a starting for the injured Adrian Peterson, carried 36 times for 162 yards.

Missouri came in averaging 33.1 points, but struggled against the Sooners' 11th-ranked defense. Chase Daniel was 23-for-44 passing for 284 yards and three interceptions (with two of them coming in desperation time near the game's end). He also ran 20 times for 75 yards and a score, but was held without a passing TD for the first time this season – breaking a school-record string of eight consecutive games with a TD pass. Other than Daniel, Missouri gained 1 yard rushing on seven carries.

Things started promising for Missouri.

Leading 3-0, the Tigers missed a chance for a sure 66-yard touchdown when tight end Chase Coffman, uncovered down the right sideline, let a pass slip off his fingertips.

Instead of taking a 10-0 lead, on the next play, Daniel's pass was tipped and linebacker Zach Latimer intercepted, giving Oklahoma the ball at the Missouri 33. That set up Thompson's 3-yard TD run on an option play seven plays later to make it 7-3 in favor of the Sooners.

After driving into Sooner territory on their next possession, Mizzou lost the ball again when Tony Temple fumbled and Lendy Holmes recovered at the Oklahoma 42. The drive ended with Thompson's 18-yard scoring pass to Joe Jon Finley on the first play of the second quarter.

After Daniel's fumble resulted in a 21-yard loss in MU's next series, the Tigers were forced to punt from their 12. Oklahoma's Jason Carter blocked Adam Crossett's kick and Crossett recovered in the end zone for a safety, and OU led 16-3.

Missouri took advantage of an Oklahoma turnover to cut the margin to 16-10 early in the third quarter. Patrick fumbled and Missouri recovered at its own 34. Daniel was 4-for-4 passing on the drive and ran the other four plays for 30 yards, including a 13-yard score on a quarterback draw.

Oklahoma was forced to punt on its next possession and the Tigers would have had the ball at midfield along with a worldly amount of momentum. But Missouri's William Moore was called for roughing the kicker on the punt, giving the Sooners an automatic first down. Given new life at their 35, the Sooners drove to the Missouri 15, where Thompson connected with Quentin Chaney for a touchdown to extend the lead to 23-10.

The Tigers reached the Oklahoma 1 on their next drive, with a chance to make it a one-score game again. But on fourth-and-goal, Daniel's fade pass to Coffman was incomplete with 44 seconds remaining in the 3rd quarter.

Daniel's second interception, by Marcus Walker with 6:19 to play, set up a 30-yard field goal by Garrett Hartley to close the scoring.

GAME NO. 10

NEBRASKA 34, MISSOURI 20

In a late-season battle for the upper hand in the Big 12 North Division, homestanding Nebraska jumped out to a 27-3 2nd-quarter lead, and held off Mizzou for a 34-20 win on Homecoming.

Mizzou came into the game with hopes of taking over sole possession of 1st place in the North, and was looking for its first win in Lincoln since 1978. Things looked promising early, as the Tigers forced a Husker fumble near midfield on Nebraska's opening possession, but MU couldn't manage a first down, and had to punt the ball away.

The Huskers responded by scoring on three straight possessions, including a field goal and a pair of touchdowns – with the last TD coming after a Tiger interception on MU's 22 yardline – to take a 17-0 lead early in the 2nd quarter.

Mizzou's high-powered offense, which was held in check early on (16 yards in its first 11 plays, with 3 punts and 1 interception), eventually got untracked and put together a 70-yard drive that ended in a Jeff Wolfert FG to cut it to 17-3. After a Husker punt, Mizzou was driving with the ball at midfield, but a 2nd interception of MU's Chase Daniel (with both coming on tipped passes), and subsequent return to the Tiger 17 yardline set up Nebraska for another short drive that they converted into a TD for a 24-3 lead.

Forced to play catch-up from there, the Tigers did their best to stage a rally, but the hole was too deep. PK Jeff Wolfert did his part and more, as he connected on an MU road-record 54-yard FG at the 2nd quarter gun to make it 27-6 at halftime. Wolfert's kick was the longest ever by a Husker opponent at Nebraska's Memorial Stadium, and tied for the 2nd-longest kick in Mizzou history.

The Tigers scored first after the break on a 6-yard TD pass from Daniel to TE Martin Rucker, which cut the score to 27-13. On Nebraska's next possession, Mizzou's defense had the Huskers backed up with a 3rd-down-and-11 on the NU 32-yardline, but couldn't get off the field, as Nebraska threw a screen pass to TB Marlon Lucky that went for 26 yards and a 1st down. The Huskers ended the drive with a short TD run to begin the 4th period that made it 34-13 and effectively iced the game.

Third down was a key stat on the day, as Nebraska converted on 11-of-17 attempts, including three with 11 or more yards to go. Conversely, the Tiger offense couldn't stay on the field long enough to stage a comeback, as they could convert only 3-of-13 3rd-down tries.

Daniel threw for 244 yards and 2 TDs on the day, and TB Tony Temple had a nice day on the ground, as he gained 99 yards on 18 attempts, but the balanced Husker offensive attack was too much to overcome. Nebraska had 419 yards of total offense on the day, including 236 in the air and 183 more on the ground.

Turnovers also proved crucial, as Nebraska converted both of MU's tipped interceptions in the 1st half into 14 points, while MU forced 2 Nebraska fumbles on the day, but couldn't turn them into points.

GAME NO. 11

IOWA STATE 21, MISSOURI 16

A dramatic Tiger comeback victory appeared to have taken place, as QB Chase Daniel scored from a foot out on 4th-and-goal with just 26 seconds left in the game to put MU on top for good. But Iowa State and outgoing coach Dan McCarney ended up with the last laugh, as the Daniel TD was nullified when MU was whistled for holding on the play – a call that was later ruled to be incorrect according to the Big 12 office, after review of film, and Iowa State claimed a 21-16 win in Ames.

The tough break pushed MU back to the 10 yardline and left one more try for the Tigers, and the Cyclones won that battle, as the ISU defense forced Daniel out of the pocket on the ensuing pass play, and sacked him at the 18-yardline as he scrambled to buy time, ending the game and giving Iowa State its only Big 12 win of the season. The loss dropped Mizzou to 7-4 and handed the Tigers their 3rd straight defeat, and 4th in their last 5 games.

But it was so painfully close to going Mizzou's way, as Daniel's apparent TD led a furious Tiger rally that saw MU come nearly all the way back from a 21-10 deficit to enter the 4th quarter. Mizzou had jumped out to a 10-0 lead, and appeared on the verge of breaking the game open, only to see its offense get bogged down in the 2nd and 3rd quarters, while ISU scored 21 straight points over 4 possessions in that span.

The Cyclones dominated the 3rd quarter, turning a 10-7 halftime deficit into a 21-10 ISU lead at the end of the period. Iowa State outscored MU 14-0 in the 3rd quarter, thanks to huge advantages over Mizzou in time of possession (11:03-to-3:57), plays run (26-to-9), total yards (151-to-39) and rushing yards (78-to-6).

It appeared as Mizzou would roll over the Cyclones early, as MU took the opening kick and methodically drove 80 yards for a TD that came by way of a Daniel 8-yard scoring strike to TE Martin Rucker for a quick 7-0 lead. After MU's defense forced a punt, the Tiger offense was rolling again, getting deep in ISU territory before losing a fumble at the Cyclone 31-yardline. The Cyclones had staved off what looked to be a likely 14-0 deficit.

Mizzou did score next, but could manage only a 38-yard field goal at the 13:18 mark of the 2nd quarter by PK Jeff Wolfert to take a 10-0 lead. A key period in the game came next, as ISU took over at its own 10-yardline after a penalty on the ensuing kickoff. Held in check to that point, the Cyclone offense found its rhythm, as it converted 3 3rd-downs and marched 90 yards for a TD to make it 10-7 and give ISU life.

The Tiger offense got the ball 2 more times before half, including its last drive, which reached the ISU 43-yardline. But MU got nothing to show for it on the scoreboard, as both drives ended in punts.

After ISU's dominating 3rd quarter, the Tigers responded by scoring on a 7-yard TD run by TB Tony Temple with 13:46 left in the game to close it to 21-16 (MU's 2-point try failed). The teams traded punts, and after ISU drove 48 yards and missed a 28-yard FG with just 3:33 left in the game, Daniel led the brilliant drive that saw him nearly score on an acrobatic 3rd-down rush from the ISU 7 that was ruled down at the 1-yardline. That set up the nullified Daniel TD run on the next play that will likely go down as one of the most discussed in MU history.

GAME NO. 12

MISSOURI 42, KANSAS 17

Sophomore QB Chase Daniel threw for a career-best 356 yards and four touchdowns to lead Missouri to a 42-17 win over Kansas in the regular season finale.

Sophomore TE Chase Coffman caught two scoring passes for Missouri. The Tigers finished tied for second in the Big 12 North with Kansas State.

The Tigers held a 6-0 lead after a pair of first-quarter field goals by PK Jeff Wolfert before Daniel hooked up with freshman WR Jared Perry on a 74-yard scoring strike. The TD was the longest MU passing play since 1989.

Perry finished the game with 81 yards receiving, a new career high.

Missouri twice led by 13 in the first half, but the lead was shaved to three in the third quarter soon after offsetting personal fouls away from the play nullified a 75-yard touchdown pass from Daniel to Brad Ekwerekwu. Officials first announced that the score would count but changed their minds after huddling for several minutes.

The Tigers ended up punting after a third-down incomplection, and Kansas needed only three plays to narrow the gap to 20-17 when Aqib Talib scored on a 42-yard swing pass from Kerry Meier.

A fourth-down offside call when the Tigers were preparing to punt kept alive the ensuing 11-play drive capped by Tony Temple's 20-yard scoring run that gave Missouri a 10-point lead.

Wolfert added his third field goal of the game in the fourth quarter, which was his 17th field goal of the year, setting a new single-season field goal record.

Wolfert also set a new MU single-season kick scoring record with his 44-yard field goal on the Tigers' opening possession on the game.

Coffman added his second touchdown of the afternoon in the fourth quarter. Both Coffman and junior TE Martin Rucker caught a game-high seven receptions. Rucker extended his career tight end reception record to 113, while Coffman moved into third on the list with 100 career grabs.

Junior WR Greg Bracey added the Tigers' final score on a 26-yard TD reception in the fourth quarter.

Daniel, who was 26-for-38, topped his previous best of 320 yards in the opener against Murray State in his first season as starter. His 74-yarder in the first quarter to Perry, who benefited from a slip in the Kansas secondary on a short pattern, was the school's longest pass play since 1989.

Daniel went over 3,000 yards passing, becoming the first Mizzou quarterback to reach that mark in a season. He also became the sixth quarterback in Missouri history to throw for 350 yards in a game and the first since Kirk Farmer in 2001.

With the win, the Tigers ended a three-game losing streak against the Jayhawks.
