MIZZOU TRAVELS TO NO. 25 KENTUCKY, HOSTS TENNESSEE ON SENIOR DAY

The Mizzou soccer team (7-7-2, 3-3-2 SEC) hits the road on Friday then returns to Walton Stadium Sunday for the team's home finale. The Tigers travel to Lexington, Ky., on Friday, Oct. 25 to face the No. 25 Kentucky Wildcats (12-3-1, 6-2 SEC) at 7:30 p.m. ET (6:30 p.m.) to kickstart the weekend. Mizzou then returns home to host Tennessee (7-6-3, 2-4-2 SEC) on Sunday, Oct. 27 at 1 p.m. Prior to Sunday's kickoff, Missouri will honor its five seniors for their contributions to the Mizzou soccer program.

Sunday is also Fan Appreciation Day at Walton Stadium. Fans who buy one ticket will get a second for free. Additionally, fans who present Saturday's football ticket stub will receive $1 admission.

The Tigers conclude the regular season on Thursday, Oct. 31 when the team travels to Fayetteville, Ark., to face Arkansas at 7 p.m.

LAST TIME OUT

Mizzou went 1-0-1 on the weekend after 2-1 win over No. 7 South Carolina and a 1-1 tie against Auburn.

The Tigers took a 1-0 lead on the Gamecocks on a goal from junior Taylor Grant in the first half. South Carolina knotted the score at 1-1 in the 52nd minute but senior Alyssa Diggs responded seven minutes later with a goal of her own for a 2-1 Mizzou advantage. The Tiger defense held on to post Missouri's second win over a top-10 team this season.

On Sunday, Auburn took a 1-0 lead early in the second half on a misplayed ball by the Missouri defense. However, the home team scored the equalizer off a set piece a few minutes later. Freshman Lauren Selaidden headed home a free kick from junior Kaysie Clark to tie the game a 1-1. Neither team managed to add another goal in regulation and over two overtime sessions to leave the score at 1-1.

SCOUTING KENTUCKY

Kentucky comes into Friday's matchup with an impressive 12-3-1 record and a 6-2 mark in SEC action. The Wildcats have scored 35 goals on the season and allowed just 18. In SEC play, the ratio sits at 15-11.

Kentucky has a pair of players who have each tallied 10 goals on the year: Arin Gilliland and Stuart Pope. Gilliland leads the team with 28 points, just ahead of Pope's 27. Zoe Swift has added seven goals and five assists for 19 points.

Goalkeeper Kayla King has started all 16 games in net for the Wildcat and boasts a 1.14 goals against average and a .723 save percentage.

SERIES WITH KENTUCKY

Mizzou owns a 2-1-1 record against the Wildcats, including a pair of wins last season. Missouri defeated Kentucky in overtime, 2-1, on Oct. 5, 2012, before beating the Wildcats 2-1 in the quarterfinals of the SEC Tournament on Oct. 31, 2012. The two teams have played in Lexington just one, in a contest that ended in a 1-1 tie on Sept. 18, 1998.

SCOUTING TENNESSEE

Tennessee enters this weekend with a 7-6-3 overall mark and a 2-4-2 record in SEC play.

Caroline Brown paces the Lady Vols with seven goals and an assist for 15 points. Tennessee will be without second-leading scorer Hannah Wilkinson (five goals and five assists for 15 points) on Sunday as she plays for the New Zealand National Team.

Keeper Julie Eckel has started all 16 games in goal for Tennessee and owns a 1.05 goals against average and a .800 save percentage.

SERIES WITH TENNESSEE

Missouri and Tennessee have met just once before on the soccer pitch, when the Lady Vols posted a 1-0 in over the Tigers on Sept. 30, 2012.

TIGERS RECORD SECOND TOP-10 WIN OF 2013

The Tigers' win over No. 7 South Carolina marked the second top-10 win for the squad in 2013, as Missouri also defeated then-No. 7 Florida on Sept. 29. The two top-10 wins in one season are the most for Mizzou since the team knocked off three during the 2008 campaign.

In 2008, the Tigers picked up wins over No. 6 Texas A&M (3-0), No. 9 Texas (3-1) and No. 10 Colorado (1-0). All three of those wins came away from home, as Mizzou defeated the Aggies on the road and beat both the Longhorns and Buffaloes at the Big 12 Tournament in San Antonio, Texas.

DIGGS NAMED SEC OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Senior Alyssa Diggs was named the Southeastern Conference Offensive Player of the Week after notching the game-winning goal in a 2-1 win over No. 7 South Carolina on Oct. 18, the league office announced on Monday.

With the Tigers and Gamecocks tied at 1-1 late in the second half, Diggs dribbled toward the

BRYAN BLITZ

Entering his 18th season as head soccer coach at Mizzou, Bryan Blitz holds a record of 195-156-20 since 1996 when he was hired as the program's first head coach.

Under his tutelage, the Tigers have won two Big 12 Championships and earned five NCAA Tournament appearances.

In the program's first season in the South-eastern Conference, Blitz led the Tigers to a 14-7-1 season and their fifth NCAA Tournament berth. The squad's 14 wins tie for the second-most in a single-season. Mizzou also recorded an 8-5 SEC mark and advanced to the semifinals of the SEC Tournament in Orange Beach, Ala.

In 2009, his Mizzou squad earned its first ever Big 12 regular season title as the Tigers clinched the title with a 5-0 shutout over Nebraska on Oct. 25. With his players excelling on the field it seemed only natural that Blitz was named Big 12 Coach of the Year for the second time in three seasons.

In 2008 the Tigers had one of their most successful seasons in program history. Blitz directed his team to a 16-5-2 mark, the Big 12 Conference Tournament Championship and into the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the second consecutive season. Over the course of the year, Mizzou set school records with wins (16), fewest losses (five), shutouts (12), fewest goals allowed (19) and goals against average (0.80), among others.

box, made a cut to her right and unleashed a bending shot into the upper right corner of the net for a 2-1 Mizzou advantage. The tally held up for Diggs' third goal of the year and first game-winner of the season.

Over her four-year Tiger career, Diggs is a two-time all-conference first team selection after earning the honors in 2012 in the SEC and 2011 in the Big 12 Conference. She earned National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) All-South Region third team and Capital One Academic All-District 6 first team honors as a junior in 2012. She leads all current Tigers with 45 career points on 17 goals and 11 assists.

This marks her second career player of the week honor, as she was named SEC Co-Offensive Player of the Week on Oct. 8, 2012. She is the first Tiger to earn SEC weekly honors in 2013.

RICHARDSON AMONG ALL-TIME MIZZOU LEADERS IN GAMES STARTED

Senior Dominique Richardson enters Friday's matchup with 78 starts in all 78 career games with the Tigers. Her 78 starts ranks tied for fourth (with Alysha Bonnick, 2007-10) at Missouri. Assuming she starts against Kentucky, Richardson will move into a tie with Heather Buchheit (1996-1999) for third all-time at Mizzou. If Richardson starts both games this weekend, she will move into sole possession of third-place with 80 career starts.

SAUERWEIN STAKES CLAIM AS ALL-TIME MU'S MOST EXPERIENCED GOALIE

In less than three full seasons as Mizzou's goalkeeper, redshirt junior McKenzie Sauerwein has already become Missouri's all-time leader in minutes in goal and games played in goal.

The North Richland Hills, Texas, native has played 5221:12 minutes in goal in her Mizzou career, which put her past former Tiger great Tasha Dittamore (4945:05) for first all-time at Mizzou. Sauerwein set the career minutes mark at LSU on Oct. 11.

Sauerwein also holds Mizzou's all-time games played in goal record with 59, which she broke against South Carolina on Oct. 18. The previous record of 57 was held by Jackie Adamec (1997-99) and Dittamore.

TIGERS RECORD PROGRAM'S THIRD-BEST CROWD AGAINST TEXAS A&M

Mizzou's fans showed up in droves for the Tigers' matchup with Texas A&M on Sunday, Oct. 6. The attendance of 1,734 ranked as Missouri's third-best crowd ever and biggest attendance number since 2005.

Attendance	Opponent	Date
1,926	Memphis	Aug. 6, 2001
1,774	Oklahoma	Oct. 7, 2005
1,734	Texas A&M	Oct. 6, 2013

MIZZOU DEFENSE HOLDING STRONG

In 16 games this season, the Tiger defense has allowed just 18 goals for an average of 1.12 per game. McKenzie Sauerwein's GAA stands at 1.13 in 2013, just over her stellar mark of 1.07 in 2012.

In conference play, Mizzou's defense has played even better. The Tigers allow just 1.00 goals per game in their eight SEC matches, which ranks third in the league.

If the Tiger defense continues at this pace for the rest of the year, the team's 1.12 GAA will rank third all-time at Mizzou. Only the 2008 (0.8) and 2012 (1.07) teams have posted better goals against averages in the other 16 years in program history.

STRIKING EARLY THE KEY?

A common occurrence has happened in all seven of Mizzou's wins: the Tigers scored the first goal of the game. Missouri boasts a 7-1 mark when scoring first, compared to a record of 0-6-1 when the opponent tallies the game's first goal.

Mizzou's lone loss when scoring first came at Portland. The Tigers got on the board in the second minute but ultimately fell to the Pilots, 3-2. Portland is now ranked sixth in the country with a 12-1-1 record.

CLARK GETS AGGRESSIVE

One of Mizzou's most skilled players, junior Kaysie Clark spent the majority of her first two years with the program as the offense's point guard. The Liberty, Mo., native often would pass up open shots to dish off to her teammates.

In her junior campaign, Clark is finally taking those shots when they arise. She currently leads the team with 15 points and six goals, to go along with three assists. Most recently, she scored in the third minute against Vanderbilt.

Her six goals so far this season are already a career best for her, bettering the four tallies she set last season as a sophomore in 19 games.

SAUERWEIN CREEPING UP THE CHARTS

In less than three seasons, redshirt junior goalkeeper McKenzie Sauerwein already has her name scattered throughout the Mizzou record book.

The North Richland Hills, Texas, native holds Mizzou records for minutes played in goal (5221:12) and games played in goal (58). She also ranks second in shutouts (15), wins (33) and saves (284), tied for second in goals against average (1.15) and is third in games started in goal (53).

GRANT PICKING UP THE OFFENSE

Junior Taylor Grant entered her junior season with 10 career points, eight as a freshman in 2011 and two last year as a sophomore. She hit a bit of a sophomore slump in 2012, as she could not manage to find the back of the net after a four-goal freshman campaign.

In her junior season, however, Grant has been one of Mizzou's most consistent offensive weapon. She already has a new career high in points and has tied her single-season best in goal. She currently second on the team in points (12) and goals (five). She also has two assists.

NOTTINGHAM BACK TO HER OLD SELF

After missing seven matches due to injury, senior forward Danielle Nottingham has returned to the lineup and and picked right up where she left off. She played Mizzou's first two games in 2013 and notched a goal and three assists against Pacific and Memphis. She injured her knee in the second half against Memphis on Aug. 25 and missed Missouri's next seven games.

Since her return, Nottingham has posted assists on goals against Florida and Vanderbilt to up her total to a team-leading five in just nine games this year.

TIGERS UPSET NO. 7 FLORIDA

Mizzou's 1-0 win over No. 7 Florida marked the Tigers' first win over a ranked opponent in 2013, and the first victory over a top-10 foe since 2011.

The last time Missouri defeated a top-10 team was a 1-0 win over No. 7 Ohio State on Aug. 26, 2011, in Columbia. Current senior Dominique Richardson tallied the game-winner in that contest.

The win over Florida also marked the first ever victory for the Tigers over the Gators. Florida entered the game with a 4-0-1 record against Missouri. Two of those Gator wins came in 2012, when Florida posted a 2-1 home win over the Tigers on Oct. 12 and a 3-0 win in the semifinals of the SEC Tournament in Orange Beach, Ala.

DONALDSON STRIKES EARLY

Freshman Melanie Donaldson has notched three goals during her inaugural campaign with the Tigers, which is tied for second on the team. However, all three of Donaldson's tallies share a theme: all were scored in the second minute of play.

Donaldson posted her first collegiate goal against UMKC, when the midfielder headed in a corner just 1:39 into the match. On Sept. 13, she put Missouri up 1-0 1:49 into the game against Eastern Illinois after she collected a rebound in the box. At Portland on Sept. 15, she struck just 1:13 into the match on a similar play to the Eastern Illinois goal.

RUSSELL FINDS THE BACK OF THE NET

Sophomore Reagan Russell was a big reason the Tigers posted a 5-1 win over Pacific on Aug. 23 - the Sugar Land, Texas, native tallied two goals in the game. Most importantly for Mizzou, Russell notched two goals in one game after going scoreless all of last season.

She added another goal in Mizzou's loss to San Diego on Sept. 8 to give her three on the season.

THE FRESHMAN JOIN THE PARTY

Three freshman notched their first collegiate points in Mizzou's games against SEMO and UMKC.

Midfielder Lauren Selaiden got things started with a pair of goals in Missouri's 4-0 win over Defender Erin Webb assisted on Missouri's third goal of the match for her first career point. She also notched a goal on Missouri's third and final goal against UMKC on Sept. 1.

Midfielder Melanie Donaldson notched Missouri's game-winning goal over UMKC in the second minute for her first career goal. She added the first assist of her career on Mizzou's final goal of the match.

HIGNETT BRINGS INTERNATIONAL EXPERIENCE TO TIGERS

The Mizzou soccer team gains international experience to its roster with the addition of freshman Rachel Hignett, a midfielder from Wales.

Hignett arrived in Columbia on Aug. 26, as she was representing Wales in the UEFA U-19 Championship. She started all three of Wales' games in the midfield.

The newcomer is also a member of the Welsh Senior National Team after making her debut in January of 2013 against Greece.

NOTTINGHAM FINDS HER OFFENSE

Senior Danielle Nottingham is back in her comfort zone as the Frisco, Texas, native returns to her natural forward position in 2013. She played forward her first two years at Mizzou, scoring eight goals and seven assists over the two years. Last season she moved to left back to help the Tigers in a position of need. She accumulated seven points on one goal and five assists in 2012.

Nottingham's 36 career points rank third among current players, just behind Alyssa Diggs (45) and Dominique Richardson (37).

DIGGS NAMED A CANDIDATE FOR SENIOR CLASS AWARD

Senior forward Alyssa Diggs was selected as a candidate for the 2013 Senior CLASS Award for women's soccer, announced on Wednesday, Aug. 21. The award, which honors both on and off field excellence, is eligible to senior Division I student-athletes who have notable achievements in four areas of excellence - community, classroom, character and competition. Diggs is one of 30 women's soccer candidates and the only female student-athlete from the Southeastern Conference.

An acronym for Celebrating Loyalty and Achievement for Staying in School®, the Senior CLASS Award focuses on the total student-athlete and encourages students to use their platform in athletics to make a positive impact as leaders in their communities. The Senior CLASS Award winners will be announced during the 2013 NCAA Women's College Cup® championship in December.

MISSOURI PICKED TO FINISH FOURTH IN THE SEC EASTERN DIVISION

The Tigers were selected to finish fourth in the Eastern Division in the SEC Preseason Coaches' Poll, announced on July 23.

Florida was selected tops in the Eastern Division by garnering 89 total points (11 first-place votes). Kentucky and Tennessee (three first place votes) tied for second in the East with 71 points each. Following Mizzou were South Carolina (42 points), Georgia (30) and Vanderbilt (26).

Texas A&M was picked first in the Western Division with 91 total points (13 first-place votes), ahead of LSU's 67 points (one first-place vote). Auburn placed third with 62 points, followed by Alabama (59), Ole Miss (52), Arkansas (33) and Mississippi State (21).
