BRYAN BLITZ

Entering his 17th season as head soccer coach Mizzou, Bryan Blitz holds a record of 181-143-17 since 1996 when he was hired as the program's first head coach.

A dedicated coach, there is little time off the field when he is not working to improve his team. Making an immediate impact to the program with his recruiting techniques, Blitz has set a standard by enlisting some of the nation's top players each season. This year's freshman class was ranked as the ninth-best in the country by BigSoccer.com.

Under his tutelege, the Tigers have won two Big 12 Championships and earned four NCAA Tournament appearances.

In 2009, his Mizzou squad earned its first ever Big 12 regular season title as as the Tigers clinched the title with a 5-0 shutout over Nebraska on Oct. 25 With his players excelling on the field it seemed only natural that Blitz was named Big 12 Coach of the Year for the second time in three seasons.

In 2008 the Tigers had one of their most successful seasons in program history. Blitz directed his team to a 16-5-2 mark, the Big 12 Conference Tournament Championship and into the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the second consecutive season. Over the course of the year, Mizzou set school records with wins (16), fewest losses (five), shutouts (12), fewest goals allowed (19) and goals against average (0.80), among others. The Tigers advanced once again to the second round

UP NEXT

Mizzou hits the road next weekend for a pair of road conference contests. First, the Tigers travel to Athens, Ga., on Friday, Sept. 28 to face Georgia at 7 p.m. ET (6 p.m. CT). Then Mizzou heads to Knoxville, Tenn., on Sunday, Oct. 30 for a 1 p.m. ET (Noon CT) game against Tennessee.

LAST TIME OUT

Mizzou opened Southeastern Conference play on the road with a pair of wins at Auburn (2-0) and South Carolina (1-0).

Against Auburn, sophomore Kaysie Clark and senior Haley Krentz each scored goals to lead the visiting Tigers to victory. Redshirt sophomore McKenzie Sauerwein made a season high eight saves in goal.

Two days later in front of a national television audience, junior Dominique Richardson netted the game-winning goal with two minutes left in regulation against South Carolina. The Tigers completely dominated the second half, outshooting the Gamecocks 14-1 in the frame.

MIZZOU IN THE RANKINGS

The Tigers moved up in all three major polls after two wins last weekend. Soccer Times ranks Mizzou at 15th, while the Tigers are ranked 16th by the NSCAA and 19th by Soccer America.

Additionally, Mizzou is ranked second in the NSCAA's South Region, behind just Texas A&M. The Tigers are ahead of SEC teams Tennessee, Florida, Kentucky, Ole Miss, LSU, Alabama, Georgia and Vanderbilt in the poll.

TIGERS TIE ALL-TIME BEST START

Mizzou's 7-1 start to the 2012 is tied for the best start in school history. The 2006 and 2011 squads also started their seasons 7-1, however both teams lost their ninth game of the year.

The Tigers are also 2-0 in conference play for the first time since 2007.

HU NAMED A COLLEGESOCCER360 PRIMETIME PERFORMER

Senior defender Allison Hu earned national honors this week when she was one of 10 players named a CollegeSoccer360.com Primetime Performers.

The St. Charles, Mo., native helped Mizzou earn its first two SEC wins last weekend with road wins at Auburn (2-0) and South Carolina (1-0). She played all 90 minutes of both games and was an integral part of a Mizzou defense that posted its third and fourth shutouts of the season against the Tigers and Gamecocks. Against Auburn on Friday night, Hu saved an Auburn shot off the goal line to preserve the shutout. In Sunday's game against South Carolina, Hu and the rest of the Mizzou defense held the Gamecocks to just one shot in the second half.

Hu has started all eight games and played every minute this season at defender. In her two years as a Tiger after transferring from Saint Louis, Hu has started all 29 of Mizzou's games, played every minute of 26 games, and helped the Tiger defense record 10 shutouts.

MIZZOU GOES 5-1 IN NON-CONFERENCE ACTION

Mizzou concluded non-conference play with a 5-1 record, including wins against No. 13 Memphis and No. 15 California.

Over the past two seasons, the Tigers have compiled a 14-3 record against non-conference opponents, for a winning percentage of .824. In 2011, Missouri went 9-2 against non-league foes.

TIGERS AMONG LEAGUE LEADERS

Mizzou has stacked up well statistically with its fellow SEC teams so far this season. As a team, Mizzou ranks third in goals per game (2.38), tied for third in goals (19), fourth in goals against average (0.62) and corners (7.88) and tied for fourth in goals allowed (five).

On an individual level, senior Haley Krentz ranks tied for first in assists (five) and is

In all, 11 different Tigers have recorded at least one point in the team's first eight games.

MISSOURI ON ESPNU

Sunday's game against South Carolina marked the sixth time the Tigers played on ESPNU since the 2008 season. The contest against the Gamecocks also marked the fourth road game Mizzou has played on the network. With its 1-0 win over South Carolina, Mizzou now has a record of 3-0-1 in road ESPNU games, with wins against Texas A&M (3-0 in 2008) and Oklahoma (5-2 in 2011), plus a tie with Texas A&M (4-4 in 2009).

TIGERS FEATURE BALANCED LINEUP

The Tiger lineup is as balanced as they come with good mix of experienced veterans and younger players. Eight games into the season, the senior class accounts for 25 starts, the junior class 18, the sophomore class 29 and the freshman class 16.

SCOUTING OLE MISS

Ole Miss enters Friday's matchup with an 8-1 overal record and a 1-1 mark in SEC play. The Rebels won their first eight games of the year before falling 4-0 to Texas A&M on Sunday. As a team, Ole Miss averages a league best 3.33 goals per game, while allowing 0.89 goals per game it its opponents.

Juniors Mandy McCalla and Rafaella Souza pacesthe Rebels with 21 points on nine goals and three assists apiece. Freshman Olivia Harrison ranks third on the team with 11 points on five goals and an assist.

Sophomore goalie Kelly McCormick has started all nine games in goal and posts a 1.00 goals against average and a .771 save percentage.

SCOUTING VANDERBILT

Vanderbilt is 3-3-3 on the year and is coming off a pair of ties to open SEC play a week ago. As a team, the Commodores average 1.33 goals per game, while allowing opponents to score 1.00 goals per game

Freshman Cheyna Williams leads the team with 12 points on four goals and four assists. Senior Dana Schwartz is second with three goals and an assist for seven points. Sophomore keeper Alexa Levick has started all nine games in goal and posts a 0.97 goals against average and a .791 save percentage.

DIGGS, JOHNSON HONORED FIRST WEEK OF THE SEASON

Junior forward Alyssa Diggs and freshman defender Candace Johnson started2012 with a bang as both earned honors for their play in Mizzou's opening weekend. Johnson was named the SEC Freshman of the Week and earned a spot on the Soccer America Women's Team of the Week, while Diggs was named as one of CollegeSoccer360.com's Primetime Performers and as College Sports Madness SEC Player of the Week.

Johnson helped the Tigers open the 2012 season with a perfect 2-0 record and wins over No. 11 Memphis (5-1) and UC Santa Barbara (2-0). The freshman started both games at defender and scored Mizzou's first goal against the Tigers on Friday in the 15th minute to record her first collegiate tally. She played all 90 minutes in the contest against Memphis. Johnson's SEC honor made her the first-ever Mizzou player to earn an SEC player of the week award, as the Tigers are in their inaugural season in the conference.

Diggs scored three goals in Mizzou's first two games of the 2012 season. In the Tigers' 5-1 upset of No. 11 Memphis on Friday, Aug. 17, she tallied two goals in less than one minute. Two days later, she scored another goal in Missouri's 2-0 defeat of UC Santa Barbara.

CLARK NAMED TO TOP DRAWER SOCCER'S SEC TOP-20

Sophomore Kaysie Clark was named to Top Drawer Soccer's list of top 20 players in the SEC. The forward/midfielder, the only Tiger named to the list, was ranked eighth in the conference.
