Mizzou Men's Basketball Post-Game Notes
Missouri vs. South Carolina - Columbia, Mo.
Final Score: Mizzou 83, South Carolina 74

GAME NOTES:

• Mizzou stretched its lead to 9-7 in the all-time series against South Carolina. The Tigers have won all but one of the seven matchups against the Gamecocks inside Mizzou Arena.

• Mizzou is now undefeated this season when they score at least 70 points, extending the streak to 21 games.

• Mizzou claimed its 14th home victory this season, the most since the 2013-14 squad racked up 16 wins in Columbia. The Tigers are one of just six teams in the country to reach 14 home victories this season.

• Shooting a collective 62.5% from beyond-the-arc in the second half, the Tigers established their best 3-point percentage after intermission in conference play this season.

• Mizzou converted 17-of-21 free throw attempts (81%), the fifth time in the past two seasons they have shot eighty percent from the charity stripe with at least 20 attempts.

• Senior Kobe Brown scored 19 points tonight — extending his streak to 12 games of scoring double digits. This streak is the longest in the senior's career.

• Brown topped the team stats in all three categories – points, rebounds, assists – for the third time this season with 19 points, eight boards and six assists.

• After scoring 18 points off turnovers, Mizzou is now 17-1 when putting up at least 17 points from its opponent's miscues.

• Going 12-for-25 for triples, MU extends its record to 15-0 when knocking down at least eight shots from deep.

• The Tigers improve to 10-1 in games when Nick Honor, D'Moi Hodge, DeAndre Gholston, Noah Carter, and Kobe Brown start.
