Tigers Face Michigan in First Round of National Invitation Tournament

The University of Missouri Men's Basketball squad (16-13 overall, 9-7 Big 12) will face the Michigan Wolverines in Ann Arbor, Mich., on Tuesday night in the first round of the 40-team National Invitation Tournament on ESPN. Tip is set for 9 p.m. EST. The Tigers have won seven of their last 10 contests and will face their fourth opponent from the Big 10 this season when the face off with the Wolverines (Illinois, Iowa and Indiana are the other three).

This will be sixth time the Tigers have played in the NIT in school history and the fifth meeting all-time between Michigan and Missouri with the Wolverines holding a 3-1 advantage in the series. However, the two squads have not faced each other since 1976. The Tigers have qualified for post-season play in each of the last seven years and will be competing in NIT for the first time since 1998. If the Tigers advance, they will face the winner of the Oklahoma vs. LSU matchup. The Sooners take on LSU, Wednesday, (March 17) at 9:30 p.m. on ESPN. Second round games will be played from Mar. 20-23 and dates, times and sites will be announced following the completion of the first round.

ESPN's Ron Franklin and Larry Conley will be on the call for the television broadcast and Mike Kelly and Gary Link will call the action on the Tiger Radio Network.

A Look at the Wolverines

Michigan will be making its seventh all-time appearance in the National Invitation Tournament. Under head coach Tommy Amaker, the Wolverines posted an 18-11 mark overall and an 8-8 record in the Big 10 including five wins in their last eight contests of the year. They have been particularly salty at Crisler Arena, putting together a 13-3 mark at home including five of their last six.

Sophomore Lester Abram leads the Michigan scoring attack, scoring 13.4 points per contest. He is one of five Wolverines averaging better than 8.0 points per contest, is one of nine Michigan players that plays more than 13.5 minutes per game and is one of five players to average between 4.1 and 5.7 rebounds per contest.

Daniel Horton, who is the older brother of Mizzou recruit Jason Horton out of Cedar Hill, Texas, is the Wolverines biggest three-point shooting threat, having knocked down a team-best 55 triples. Head coach Tommy Amaker is in his third year at Michigan. The 18-11 mark Michigan put up this season is its best so far under Amaker.

Plenty of Interesting Sidebars in This One

Tuesday night's contest will pit two high-quality teams anxious to continue their seasons. The Tigers check in with a 16-13 mark overall having played one of the toughest schedules in the country this season while the Wolverines are 18-11 overall including 13-3 at home.

There are also several interesting connections and storylines in this matchup. For instance:

+ Tiger seniors Arthur Johnson and Rickey Paulding will get one last chance to play in their home state of Michigan. Both are from Detroit, which is just 45 minutes away from Ann Arbor.

+ Tiger Head Coach Quin Snyder and Wolverine Head Coach Tommy Amaker were teammates at Duke during the 1985-86 and 1986-87 seasons. Amaker was a junior and senior during Snyder's freshman and sophomore years.

+ Michigan sophomore guard Daniel Horton is the older brother of Tiger recruit Jason Horton, who will be on the Mizzou squad next season and play some point guard.

+ If both the Tigers and Oklahoma Sooners advance to face each other in the second round of the NIT, it will mark the fifth straight year MU and OU will have faced each other in the post season (NCAA, NIT or Big 12 Tournament).

Board Out of His Mind

Tiger senior Arthur Johnson has grabbed more boards than a carpenter during his four year career at Mizzou. The powerful native of Detroit, Mich., became Mizzou's all-time leading rebounder on Mar. 3, with his last of eight boards on the night, to go along with 24 points. Johnson, who is already Mizzou's all-time leading shot blocker with 245 career blocks, now has 1,073 career rebounds, surpassing former Tiger great Doug Smith's mark of 1,053. He is averaging 7.4 boards per contest this season and is on pace to lead Mizzou in total rebounds for the fourth straight year.

With his eight rebound effort, he also moved into second on the Big 12 all-time charts.

He is fighting tooth and nail with Texas' James Thomas, who has 1,057 career boards after Saturday's action, in hopes that he can reach former Kansas Jayhawk Nick Collison, who pulled down 1,143 career boards. Here is a look at the Big 12 all-time rebound leaders:

1. Nick Collison, KU (1999-03)	1,143
2. Arthur Johnson, MU (2000-present)	1,073
3. James Thomas, UT (2000-present)	1,070
4. Stephane Pelle, CU (1999-03)	1,053
5. Chris Mihm, UT (1998-00)	945

A Look at the Last 10

When the Tigers' dropped to 9-10 overall and 4-5 in the Big 12 after losing at Nebraska, they were in desperate need of a spark. A return home to the Hearnes Center to face Colorado on Feb. 10, ignited a six game winning streak that has since come to an end. Despite the end of the streak, the improvements have been evident in several categories over the past eight games. For instance:

	First 19 games	Last 10
Record	9-10	7-3
FG%	.434 (474-1093)	.470 (280-596)
3-pt FG %	.321 (117-365)	.405 (85-210)
FT%	.702 (301-429)	.729 (151-207)
Arthur Johnson PPG	13.5	20.8
Arthur Johnson RPG	7.3	7.6
Jason Conley PPG	3.4	13.3
Jason Conley 3-pt FG %	.185 (5-27)	.411 (23-56)
Rickey Paulding 3-pt FG%	.305 (32-105)	.426 (20-47)

Reading Up on the Rick

Senior Preseason All-American Rickey Paulding has been one of the fiercest competitors in the Big 12 Conference throughout his illustrious career.

Paulding is second in scoring on the Tiger squad, averaging 15.3 points per contest while breaking the 20-point barrier in seven of the Tigers' 29 contests. He earned All-Big 12 second-team honors last season and was named to the Big 12 All-Tournament team. He was named to both the Wooden and Naismith Awards watch lists this season and also earned a preseason All-American nod from the Associated Press. He is in 9th on the all-time Mizzou scoring charts with 1,663 points following his nine-point effort against Kansas. He will now be chasing No. 8 Clarence Gilbert (1999-02, 1,685 points).

MIZZOU

Rick is now alone in fifth on the Mizzou all-time three point field goals made list with 187 career treys.

In Order to Be the Best ...

... you have to beat the best. The Tigers have definitely put that adage to the test this year with one of the toughest schedules in the country. As of Mon., Mar. 8's Associated Press Poll, nine (Oklahoma, Kansas, Gonzaga, Syracuse, Texas, Texas Tech, and Oklahoma State, Memphis and Illinois) of the Tigers 2003-04 opponents are ranked in the top 25 or are receiving votes.

Like the TNT Network, We Know Drama

Sorry to the ESPN family, but that one was just too good to let slip by. The Tigers have made some breathtaking comebacks and have experienced some heartbreaking losses so far this season. Eleven of the Tigers' 29 games have been decided by five points or less and four of them have went to overtime. The Tigers are 6-5 in games decided by five points or less this season.

King Arthur's Court

Preseason Big 12 Player of the Year Arthur Johnson is on a mission. The objective: to leave the Hearn Center in April as one of the best big men in school history. He has certainly had a remarkable career here at MU and continues to work his way up several career charts. The explosive big man with feather-soft touch around the basket already owns Mizzou's all-time shot blocking mark with 245 career swats. With his two-block effort against Coppin State, he became only the fifth player to record 200 or more career blocks in Big 12 conference history.

Big 12 All-Time Blocked Shots Leaders

1. 264 Chris Mihm, UT, 1998-00
2. 245 Arthur Johnson, MU, 2000-present
3. 243 Nick Collison, KU, 1999-03
4. 242 Eric Chenowith, KU, 1997-01
5. 202 Venson Hamilton, NU, 1997-99

He also currently ranks 6th on the all-time scoring charts with 1,733 points after his 24-point outburst against Kansas last Friday. He is now be chasing No. 4 Steve Stipanovich, 1980-83, 1,836 points)

Last season, Johnson became only the fourth Tiger since the 1949-50 season to lead the team in rebounding in three straight campaigns.

More On AJ

And if you just can't get enough info on the big fella they call "Doc," he is also creeping up on the Big 12 career double-doubles mark. With his 29-point, 13-rebound effort against Oklahoma State, he recorded his 43rd career double-double, putting him in 4th on the Big 12 All-Time Double-Double leaders list. A look at that chart follows:

Big 12 All-Time Double-Double Leaders

2. 46 Venson Hamilton, NU, 1997-99

Basketball

Thanks for the Memories ... Here's to Many More

The Tigers played their final game in the Hearn Center on Sunday and will be moving into a state-of-the art arena starting in October of 2004. Mizzou called Hearn home for 32 years now and registered a mark of 405-72 there as of its two point loss at the hands of the Kansas Jayhawks. The 15,000 seat, $75 million new building will feature unbelievable player development facilities (weight room, practice gym, players lounge, film room) and will be the finest on-campus basketball facility in the country.

Tigers Triumph in Season Opener

Missouri 90, Oakland 85

Nov. 29, 2003

ROCHESTER, Mich. - Rickey Paulding scored 21 points and Arthur Johnson added 19 to lead No. 5 Missouri to a tough season-opening 90-85 victory over Oakland.

Paulding, a preseason All-American, and Johnson are both products of the Detroit Public School League. Oakland is located 30 miles north of downtown Detroit, and the pair had a large cheering section among the sellout crowd of 4,055.

Missouri led Oakland (2-4), in just its sixth year of Division I-A play, by only one with less than three minutes to play. The Golden Grizzlies had lost their last two games, to Michigan and Cincinnati, by an average of 27.5 points.

Jimmy McKinney added 21 points for Missouri, which had five players score in double figures. The Tigers hurt themselves by committing 20 turnovers to just seven for Oakland.

Oakland's Rawle Marshall led all scorers with 27 points, while Mike Helms had 21 before fouling out with 8:12 left and Missouri leading 70-67.

The Golden Grizzlies missed 10 of 31 free throws, including five in the final 10 minutes, while Missouri was nearly perfect from the line.

Oakland started the second half with a 12-2 run, including eight points from Helms, and took a 46-44 lead with 17:11 to go.

Helms picked up his fourth foul with 13:08 to play, but Paulding got his fourth just four seconds later.

Oakland led 64-63 with 11 minutes left, but McKinney's 3-pointer started a 7-1 run that forced Oakland to put Helms back into the game.

Mizzou Outlasts Coppin State

Missouri 70, Coppin State 61

Dec. 2, 2003

COLUMBIA, MO. -Missouri survived its second straight scare, getting 16 points, six rebounds and three blocks from Travon Bryant in a 70-61 come-from-behind victory Tuesday night over Coppin State.

The fourth-ranked Tigers (2-0) have won 29 straight home openers since losing to Southern Methodist on Dec. 1, 1973. They were 14-1 in the Hearnes Center last season and won this one despite allowing a 14-0 run in the first half.

Arthur Johnson added 14 points and nine rebounds for Missouri, which was frustrated throughout by a zone defense, committed 19 turnovers and got an off-game from preseason All-American Rickey Paulding. He had seven points and seven turnovers.

The Tigers trailed Coppin State (2-5) by eight points in the first half and seven after the break. Missouri won its opener by five points at Oakland (Mich.) on Saturday.

Nicholas King scored 25 points and hit five 3-pointers for Coppin State after entering with an 8.5-point average. The losers, who also got 12 points from Jimmy Boykin, were 11-for-22 from 3-point range.

A pair of free throws by Bryant put Missouri ahead to stay at 50-49 with 10:53 remaining. But the game wasn't secured until the Tigers scored nine points in a row for a 67-57 lead with 3:40 to go. The last five points came from freshman Thomas Gardner.

Defense Sends No. 4 Mizzou To 3-0

Missouri 63, Indiana 58

Dec. 6, 2003

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. - Missouri needed someone to take control Saturday. Freshman Linas Kleiza didn't give it a second thought.

The fourth-ranked Tigers rallied from a 14-point deficit over the final seven minutes, getting four straight points from Kleiza to keep them close and then his go-ahead three-point play as they held Indiana scoreless for the final 4:29 in a 63-58 victory.

Indiana dominated the tempo and consistently took away the Tigers' usual scoring threats. Rickey Paulding finished with eight points, and Arthur Johnson had 15 points and nine rebounds before fouling out with 4:29 left.

But Kleiza filled in admirably. He was 6-of-12 from the field, scored a season-high 15 points, grabbed 13 rebounds, hit a 3-pointer to get the Tigers close and finished the remarkable rally by completing the three-point play with 1:20 left to give Missouri its first lead since the game's opening basket.

Missouri held a 46-28 rebound advantage and grabbed three times as many offensive rebounds (21) as the Hoosiers.

Indiana appeared headed to its first victory over a ranked team in six games when it jumped to a 39-26 halftime lead, one it maintained throughout most of the second half.

When Wright connected on a long 3-pointer with 7:15 to go, the Hoosiers were up 56-42. But the Tigers clamped down on defense, not allowing Indiana another basket, and when Missouri needed an inside presence late, Kleiza stepped forward.

Travon Bryant and Jimmy McKinney scored six straight points to get the Tigers within eight. Bryant finished with 16 points.

After Sean Kline drew Johnson's fifth foul and made two free throws to push the lead to 10, the Tigers charged right back.

Kleiza made one free throw, then hit his second 3-pointer of the season. Paulding followed that with a layup and Bryant hit an open 3 from the left corner to make it 58-57 with 2:05 left.

Forty-five seconds later, Bryant missed a 15-footer and Kleiza grabbed the rebound, put it in and was fouled. His free throw made it 60-58 and Indiana never recovered - twice turning the ball over in the final minute as it tried futilely to come back.

Mizzou Falls in OT to Gonzaga

Gonzaga 87, Missouri 80

Dec. 13, 2003

SEATTLE, Wash. - In recent years, the Gonzaga Bulldogs have shown they can compete with the top programs in the NCAA tournament.

Now they're doing it in the regular season.

Ronny Turiaf scored 21 of his 23 points after halftime and Blake Stepp added 14 points and 10 assists in No. 17 Gonzaga's dramatic 87-80 overtime victory over No. 3 Missouri on Saturday.

Rickey Paulding scored 23 points for Missouri, including a 3-pointer with 10 seconds remaining in regulation that tied it at 73. Turiaf lost control of the ball on the ensuing possession, and the teams went to overtime.

Linas Kleiza had 16 points and 13 rebounds while Travon Byrant scored 13 for the Tigers, who kept it close despite shooting 34 percent.

"It was a high-level game for a December game," Missouri coach Quin Snyder said. "I thought we both played at a very high level."

After two free throws by Morrison gave the Bulldogs an 83-80 lead with 30 seconds left in overtime, Paulding was called for another offensive foul, this time drawn by Gonzaga's Erroll Knight.

"Those are always some of the tougher calls to make," Snyder said. "Those were momentum plays."

The game, at supposedly neutral KeyArena, had the tempo and feel of an NCAA tournament showdown, with exciting runs for both teams, key players working through foul trouble and big shots down the stretch by both sides.

The loss spoiled a homecoming for Snyder, who grew up in the Seattle suburb of Mercer Island. He got a polite cheer during introductions but the pro-Gonzaga crowd saved the noise for the Bulldogs.

Paulding had a great second half, hitting two big 3-pointers. One came from the right corner and another from the left wing as the Tigers went ahead 62-61 with 4:49 to play.

On Gonzaga's next possession, officials didn't make an apparent goaltending call against Bryant when Stepp drove. Few went berserk on the sideline and was hit with a technical foul.

McKinney hit both free throws to make it 64-61 and, after Turiaf made one foul shot, Missouri's Josh Kroenke made another 3-pointer to put the Tigers ahead 67-62 with 3:36 to go, capping a 15-3 run.

Tigers Outrun UNC Greensboro, 106-98

Missouri 106, UNC Greensboro 98

Dec. 21, 2003

COLUMBIA, Mo. - COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP) - All No. 10 Missouri needed to end its streak of close calls was a hot streak from Rickey Paulding and scoring help from Jason Conley.

Paulding, a preseason All-America, was held scoreless until the midway point of the second half, but scored nine points in a late run as Missouri beat North Carolina-Greensboro 106-98 Sunday.

Conley, a transfer, had 19 points in his Tigers' debut, while Arthur Johnson scored 19 points and Linas Kleiza and Travon Bryant each had 17 for Missouri (4-1).

Paulding hit a 3-pointer from the top of the key to ignite an 11-0 run that gave Missouri a 92-76 lead with under seven minutes to play. After a layup by Jimmy McKinney, Paulding added six consecutive points and the Spartans (4-5) got no closer than eight the rest of the way.

Missouri's three previous victories were by a total of 19 points, and its only loss came in overtime to Gonzaga. The Tigers even needed a 21-2 run to close its latest win over Indiana.

Jay Joseph and Ronnie Burrell each had 22 points for the Spartans, while Dwon Clifton and Ronnie Taylor each added 13 and Ricky Hickman 10.

Conley and Randy Pulley made an instant impact in their first games with the Tigers.

Conley, a junior who led the nation in scoring as a freshman at VMI, had to sit out until Missouri's semester break after transferring at the end of the first semester last year.

Missouri had been anticipating the arrival of Conley as another scoring threat in an already potent lineup. Conley averaged 29.3 points and 8.0 rebounds at VMI his freshman year, then averaged 22.2 points and 7.3 rebounds in 10 games last season.

He and Pulley, who sat out the team's first four games while school officials reviewed his academic records, helped Missouri rebuild its lead after Greensboro pulled within 61-57 just after halftime. Conley had 10 points, including two dunks, and Pulley added a driving layup as the Tigers took a 78-67 lead.

During the run, Conley put back a missed dunk by Paulding and completed the three-point play, then slammed down an alley-oop pass from Paulding on the Tigers' next possession. He later added a 3-pointer and a two-handed pump jam after Josh Kroenke made a steal and a baseball pass to a waiting Conley.

Tigers Lose Heartbreaker to Illinois, 71-70

Illinois 71, Missouri 70

Dec. 23, 2003

COLUMBIA, Mo. - It was one that almost got away for No. 21 Illinois (7-2), which held a 21-point lead late in the first half only to have Missouri (4-2) tie it with 1:30 to play on a 3-pointer by Travon Bryant.

Sophomore forward James Augustine scored on a layup with 58.5 seconds to play to put Illinois back on top for good. Augustine had 14 points and 10 rebounds.

Bryant had a career-high 19 points, as did Rickey Paulding, for Missouri, which lost for the second time in three games. Bryant also matched a career-high with 12 rebounds and blocked two shots.

Illinois hadn't played for 10 days, but if there was any rust, it didn't show. The Illini dominated the early going, outrunning and outlasting Missouri.

Illinois took to a 9-2 lead and added runs of 16-2 and 13-2 later in the first half. Missouri missed 13 of its first 16 shots.

Despite a size advantage for the Tigers, Illinois worked the ball inside for layups, hooks and short jumpers and built a 40-19 with 4:20 to go in the first half. Missouri committed 11 of its 18 turnovers in the opening half.

But Missouri went on a 15-2 run of its own to cut the margin to eight with 17:33 to go, then chipped away, eventually tying the game at 67-67 on Bryant's 3-pointer.

After Augustine's basket, Missouri's Arthur Johnson had a chance to tie the game again, but missed a short jumper with 23 seconds left. After Brown made two free throws with 19.7 seconds left, Missouri's Jimmy McKinney hit a 3-pointer with 0.4 seconds left. After a timeout, the Illini iced the game by simply inbounding the ball.

Illinois has won the last four "Braggin' Rights" games and 15 of the series' 23. The sellout crowd at the Savvis Center was about a 60-40 split of fans, with the mostly yellow clad Missouri fans slightly outnumbering the mostly orange Illini faithful. But the folks in orange had the most to cheer about. Among those in attendance were U.S. Sens. Kit Bond and Jim Talent of Missouri, and Attorney General John Ashcroft, a former Missouri governor.

Paulding, a preseason All-American who was shooting 33 percent from the field entering the game, was 6 for 10.

Comeback Comes Up Short Against Memphis

Memphis 61, Missouri 59

Dec. 27, 2003

MEMPHIS, Tenn.- Antonio Burks scored 17 points and Sean Banks added 13 points and eight rebounds in Memphis' 61-59 victory over No. 11 Missouri, the Tigers' third loss in four games.

Missouri (4-3), which also lost to No. 21 Illinois this week, got within 60-59 on Rickey Paulding's 3-pointer with 4.5 seconds remaining. Jimmy McKinney's running shot from just beyond the 3-point line as time ran out bounced off the rim, giving Memphis (7-2) its third straight win.

Arthur Johnson, who fouled out with 2:40 remaining, led Missouri with 14 points and 12 rebounds. Paulding and Travon Bryant each scored 13 points. Bryant grabbed 10 rebounds as Missouri controlled the boards 49-35.

Poor shooting in the first half hampered Missouri. Memphis led 35-26 at halftime after Missouri shot 24 percent from the field (9-of-37). Missouri made just one of its first 10 attempts.

Memphis led by 15 points twice, the first time capping a 12-2 run midway through the half.

Memphis made its run with fast breaks to offset the Missouri rebounding advantage, which included 17 offensive boards in the half. Burks had the hot hand, hitting his first four shots and he had 11 points in the first half, including three 3s in four attempts.

Johnson had eight points for Missouri, but was 3-of-11 from the field. Missouri trailed 54-45 with just under 5 minutes to play, but went on an 8-0 run and made it 54-53 when McKinney hit a 3-pointer from the top of the key with 3:06 to play.

Missouri committed 16 turnovers to seven for Memphis.

Mizzou Falls To Belmont, 71-69

Belmont 71, Mizzou 69

Dec. 30, 2003

COLUMBIA, Mo. For the third straight game, No. 23 Missouri fell behind and then rallied only to fall short, losing 71-67 Tuesday night to Belmont of the Atlantic Sun Conference.

Missouri (4-4), ranked as high as No. 3 this season, has lost three in a row and four of five. Coach Quin Snyder is 88-53 overall in four seasons at Missouri, but just 13-12 in December.

Steve Drabyn had 16 points for Belmont (6-3), while Nick Otis added 15, Adam Mark 14 and Jesse Snyder 12. The Bruins shot more 3s than 2s, 35-20, and made 13 shots from beyond the arc.

Freshman Linas Kleiza scored 10 straight first-half points and 18 overall for Missouri, while Rickey Paulding had 21, Jimmy McKinney 15 and Arthur Johnson 10.

The Tigers appeared headed for an easy win after taking a 31-21 lead late in the first half. But a 36-14 run put Belmont up 57-47 with 8:50 to play.

Missouri went on a 12-2 run to tie it at 59 on Jason Conley's free throw with 3:29 to play, before Belmont went back ahead for good. The Tigers had a chance with 12 seconds left when Drabyn missed the front end of a 1-and-1, but Belmont got the rebound and Drabyn, fouled again, made both free throws.

Missouri outrebounded Belmont 41-30, but had trouble working the ball inside against the Bruins' 2-3 zone.

Kleiza, a 6-foot-8 native of Lithuania, scored on a layup with 14:40 to play in the half, then connected on two layups, a dunk and two free throws to help Missouri go on top in the first half, when the Tigers were seemingly in control of the game.

Then Belmont's 3s began to fall, leading to a 17-3 spurt that put the Bruins ahead 38-34 with 18 minutes to play.

Missouri has made a habit of falling behind and then rallying. Early this season, the rallies led to wins, such as when the Tigers overcame a 14-point deficit in the final seven minutes to beat Indiana. Not lately.

Missouri was down by 21 points to Illinois before tying the game with just over a minute to play, only to lose 71-70. The Tigers trailed Memphis by 15 before rallying, only to lose by two when McKinney's last-second 3-pointer clanged off the rim.

Tigers Take Out Hawkeyes, 76-56

Mizzou 76, Iowa 56

Jan. 4, 2004

COLUMBIA, Mo. - A couple of changes in the starting lineup got the attention of No. 23 Missouri.

Coach Quin Snyder shook up the status quo, leaving Arthur Johnson and Josh Kroenke on the bench for the opening tipoff, and it shook up the rest of the roster in a 76-56 victory over Iowa on Saturday. Linas Kleiza matched his career best with 18 points, including seven in a 2½-minute stretch of the second half, to help Missouri pull away.

The Tigers (5-4) led almost all the way and Iowa's largest margin was two points early in the game. That was a big change from the losing streak, when Missouri fell behind by 21 points to Illinois, 15 to Memphis and 10 to Belmont.

After the Belmont upset loss on Tuesday, Travon Bryant turned his cell phone off for two days.

Missouri had dropped four of five overall after rising to as high as No. 3 in mid-December. But Snyder, in his fifth season, has never lost four in a row. And Missouri, despite the four-point loss at home to Belmont on Tuesday, is 17-2 in the Hearn Center the last two seasons.

Missouri won without much contribution from its two senior stars, Johnson and Rickey Paulding, the pair combining for 11 points. Bryant added 14 points, nine rebounds, four blocked shots and two steals, and Jimmy McKinney had 10 points.

Johnson didn't start for the first time since Feb. 27, 2002, at Texas Tech as Snyder replaced him and Kroenke with Kevin Young and freshman Thomas Gardner. Johnson drew three quick fouls in just under two minutes in the first half and finished with four points, but had three blocks.

Kleiza had two free throws, a baseline fadeaway jumper and a 3-pointer in a 15-2 run that put the game away, giving Missouri a 55-35 lead with 11:22 to go. The freshman ended up two points of his season best.

Kleiza also had nine rebounds, helping Missouri to a 45-37 advantage. The Tigers have outrebounded all nine opponents.

The game was the final pre-conference tuneup for both teams. Missouri opens Big 12 play Wednesday at Iowa State and Iowa is at home against Purdue on Wednesday.

Tigers Drop Big 12 Opener in Ames

Iowa State 70, Missouri 58

Jan. 7, 2004

AMES, Iowa. - Freshman Curtis Stinson hit a spinning shot in the lane to put Iowa State ahead with 38.5 seconds left and the Cyclones went on to beat Missouri 70-65 on Wednesday night.

Stinson, who scored 16 of his 22 points in the second half, helped Iowa State (8-2) build a 12-point lead in the Big 12 opener, then led the Cyclones back after Missouri (5-5) went up by seven.

Missouri pulled ahead 65-64 on Rickey Paulding's two free throws with 2:06 remaining and the Tigers had a chance to expand their lead after a traveling call negated a basket by Iowa State's Jared Homan at the 1:36 mark.

But Paulding missed a 3-point shot and Iowa State capitalized. Stinson, a 6-foot-2 guard, drove into the lane, spun and put up a soft shot that dropped through the basket.

Will Blalock, Iowa State's other freshman guard, then picked off a Paulding pass and Missouri had to foul Jake Sullivan, who hasn't missed a free throw all season. Sullivan made two with 17.1 seconds left for a 68-65 lead and Homan sank two more to finish it off after Paulding missed another 3-point attempt.

Blalock, Sullivan and Homan all finished with 11 points, with Blalock adding five assists and four steals.

Thomas Gardner led Missouri with 17 points and had the Tigers' last field goal, a 3-pointer with 5:47 remaining. Paulding scored 15 and Arthur Johnson had 10.

The game reflected Missouri's up-and-down season. The Tigers seemed to have righted themselves in a 20-point victory over Iowa last Saturday and seized the momentum Wednesday night with a 23-5 run that erased a 12-point Iowa State lead. Gardner's final 3 gave the Tigers a 63-56 lead, but Iowa State came right back. Stinson scored six straight points and Homan followed with a jumper in an 8-0 burst that put Iowa State up 64-63 with 3:14 remaining. Paulding then hit his two free throws to give Missouri its final lead.

Johnson Scores 19 To Lead Tigers Over Aggies

Mizzou 82, Texas A&M 77

Jan. 10, 2004

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Arthur Johnson had 19 points, 12 rebounds and a key blocked shot to lead Missouri to an 82-77 win over Texas A&M on Saturday.

Rickey Paulding added 16 points for Missouri (6-5, 1-1 Big 12), which won for just the second time in its last six games after being ranked as high as No. 3.

Texas A&M trailed 71-58 with 4:46 to go, when Travon Bryant hit two free throws for Missouri, but the Aggies made it close with a late run.

Acie Law's 3-pointer got the Aggies within 76-71 with 1:04 left, and his basket with 14.6 seconds remaining cut the margin to 81-77.

After Missouri called time, Antoine Wright fouled the Tigers' Jimmy McKinney on the inbounds play.

McKinney, who finished with 12 points, hit the first of his two free throws with 14.1 seconds left and Johnson blocked Wright's layup attempt with 3.8 seconds to go.

Texas A&M led 42-41 on Turner's 3-point shot with 16:12 left in the game, but Missouri responded with a 20-6 run for a 61-48 lead with 8½ minutes remaining.

Freshman Thomas Gardner started the Tigers' surge with a 3-point play and later added a 3-pointer that made it 54-44 with 12:24 to go. Another freshman, Linas Kleiza, capped the run with four straight points.

Texas A&M missed six of its first seven shots in the game and trailed by as many as 10 points in the first half but stayed close with five 3-pointers and a 19-17 rebounding edge before the break.

Missouri led 27-17 on Paulding's 3-point play with just over five minutes left in the first half, but then didn't manage a field goal for the next 3½ minutes.

The Aggies hit three 3-pointers in a 13-1 run that put them up 30-28 with 1:45 left, but Johnson scored two inside baskets down the stretch to put the Tigers up 34-31 at the half.

Tigers Fall To 'Cuse at Hearnese

Syracuse 82, Missouri 68

Jan. 12, 2004

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Hakim Warrick had 21 points and 12 rebounds, and No. 17 Syracuse pulled away in the second half to beat Missouri 82-68 Monday night for its 12th straight victory.

Coach Jim Boeheim won his 665th career game, pulling ahead of John Wooden for 19th on the career Division I victory list. He's 665-227 in 28 seasons at Syracuse.

The Orangemen (12-1) are unbeaten since losing the opener to Charlotte. This was their first true road game, and first time outside New York, and they were impressive against a team ranked as high as third earlier in the season.

Five players contributed to a 16-2 run that put the game away in the second half, turning a three-point lead into a 59-42 edge with 11:13 to go. Warrick capped the run with his third dunk of the game, and 37th of the season, off a feed from Josh Pace.

Missouri (6-6) was frustrated throughout by Syracuse's 2-3 zone and went almost five minutes between points during its drought. The Tigers, who got a season-best 25 points from Rickey Paulding, have lost five of seven after starting the season 3-1, and are 4-2 at home including an upset loss to Belmont last month.

The Tigers twice cut the deficit to eight points in the final four minutes. But Syracuse was clicking in all areas, including making 17 consecutive free throws at one point after entering the game shooting only 63 percent from the line.

Warrick has four double-doubles this season and paced an attack that had four players in double figures. Seven-footer Craig Forth added a career-best 18 points, hitting six of his first seven shots on layups off slick feeds.

Gerry McNamara had 17 points, including three 3-pointers, for Missouri, and Josh Pace added 15, and McKinney 12.

Syracuse finished the first half on a 14-4 run, getting six points from Warrick and the last four from Pace and connecting on its last five shots. That erased a four-point deficit, giving the Orangemen a 38-32 lead at the break.

Tigers Drop OU in OT

Mizzou 79, Oklahoma 75

Jan. 17, 2004

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Even with Missouri trailing by 12 points and Oklahoma's fans in a frenzy, Rickey Paulding's confidence never wavered.

A scuffle late in the second half sparked the Tigers' rally and Paulding took over, scoring nine of his 23 points in overtime to lead Missouri to a 79-75 win over No. 11 Oklahoma and extend the Sooners' losing streak to three games.

The Tigers (7-6, 2-1 Big 12) scored seven straight points to open overtime, punctuated by a 3-pointer by Paulding to take a 65-58 lead.

Oklahoma made a frenzied rally over the final two minutes and pulled within 72-69 on a 3 by freshman guard Drew Lavender with 41.2 seconds left.

But Missouri shot 7-for-8 from the line down the stretch to clinch perhaps its most important victory of a tremendously disappointing season.

Emotions between these desperate teams bubbled over late in the second half when Brown and Missouri forward Arthur Johnson got tangled up while going after a tipped ball. Brown threw a punch at Johnson that missed and had to be restrained by a teammate.

A technical foul was called on Brown, and Paulding made one of two free throws as Missouri closed within 47-45 with 7:49 left in the game.

Two minutes later, the Tigers took their first lead since the first half on a 3-pointer by Travon Bryant.

The game was tied four times, at 52, 54, 56 and 58, as both teams traded shots inside the paint in the final five minutes.

The Sooners looked as if they might finally pull away after opening the second half with a 14-4 run, keyed by a couple of 3s from McKenzie.

But Linas Kleiza scored six straight points to get the Tigers' rally started, and after the tussle between Johnson and Brown, Missouri never trailed by fewer than two points. Missouri got clutch contributions from all of its senior stars: Paulding made all four of his 3-point attempts, Johnson had 16 points and 11 rebounds and Bryant added 12 points.

Texas Tops Tigers in OT

Paulding has 20 points in tough loss.

Jan. 20, 2004

COLUMBIA, Mo. - For the second straight game, Royal Ivey was Texas' go-to guy at the finish.

Ivey scored 10 of his career-high 24 points in overtime to lead the No. 16 Longhorns to a 75-69 victory Tuesday night over Missouri, their second straight narrow escape. Ivey also was the hero in a two-point victory over Nebraska Saturday, getting the winning basket with 2.4 seconds left.

Rickey Paulding had 20 points for Missouri (7-7, 2-2 Big 12), but missed five free throws in the final four minutes of regulation and overtime. Paulding, a 78-percent free throw shooter, was 6-for-12 overall.

Missouri played its second straight overtime. The Tigers won 79-75 at Oklahoma on Saturday. The Tigers were 1-2 in a three-game, eight-day stretch against ranked opponents and fell to .500 for the second time of the season.

Texas forced the extra period on a 3-pointer by Brian Boddicker with 6.7 seconds left, after Arthur Johnson had blocked Ivey on a drive. Paulding, who drove the baseline for a dunk that put Missouri ahead 61-58 with 31 seconds left, was too long on a 3-pointer for the win at the buzzer.

In retrospect, Snyder wished Johnson hadn't picked up his fifth blocked shot of the game because Ivey's basket would have left Missouri ahead by one.

Johnson added 16 points and seven rebounds for Missouri, and Linas Kleiza had 14 points.

Texas has beaten Missouri six straight times, three times on the road. The Longhorns are 29-12 on the road in Big 12 play in six years under Barnes.

Mouton had seven points and Kenton Paulino four during a 13-4 run to start the second half that put Texas ahead 35-29 with 15:50 to go.

But the game was tied eight times in the final eight minutes of regulation and neither team led by more than three points.

Missouri has lost six of its last nine games.

Tigers Defeat Huskers in Columbia

Mizzou 72, Nebraska 51

Jan. 24, 2004

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Rickey Paulding had 19 points and cleared up free-throw shooting problems that cost Missouri in its last game, going 6-for-6 at the line in a 72-51 victory over Nebraska on Saturday.

Missouri (8-7, 3-2 Big 12) defeated Nebraska in football and basketball in the same season for the first time since 1978. Football was responsible for almost all of that drought before the Tigers ended a 24-game losing streak last fall with a 41-24 victory over the Huskers.

The Tigers were ice-cold at the start of the game, missing 14 of their first 17 shots and trailing by as many as 10 points before taking a 1-point lead at the half. They outscored Nebraska 29-7 in the final 9:33, after the Huskers had taken their only lead of the second half.

Thomas Gardner added 17 points on 7-for-9 shooting for Missouri, which avoided falling below .500 at this juncture of the season for the first time since 1978-79. The blowout came after consecutive overtime games, a victory at Oklahoma and a loss to Texas.

Paulding had seven points and Jimmy McKinney five in a 17-0 run that put the game away, giving Missouri a 60-44 lead with 5:19 to play. The run came after Nebraska (11-5, 1-4) had taken its first lead of the second half on a 3-pointer by Brian Conklin with 9:33 left.

Nebraska didn't get another basket for eight minutes, by which time the run had grown to 27-2 and the score was 72-48. This from a team coming off a 29-point victory over Baylor and a two-point loss at Texas.

Paulding hit three free throws during the run and was 6-for-6 overall after going 6-for-12 in an overtime loss to Texas. In that game Paulding missed five free throws in the final four minutes of regulation and overtime.

Arthur Johnson added 10 points for Missouri, which has won six in a row over Nebraska and nine of the last 10.

Tigers Trip to Boulder Rocky

Colorado 83, Mizzou 70

Jan. 28, 2004

BOULDER, Colo. - Michel Morandais scored 28 points on 9-of-11 shooting, and David Harrison had 22 points and 10 rebounds to lead Colorado to an 83-70 win over Missouri on Wednesday night.

Colorado (11-6, 3-3 Big 12) used a 21-4 run early in the second half to open up a 19-point lead, and Missouri got no closer than 10 points after that.

Missouri (8-8, 3-3) was led by Arthur Johnson, who had 19 points, 16 of them in the second half.

Colorado outshot Missouri 55 percent to 40 percent and made 23-of-36 free throws compared to the Tigers' 3-of-6.

Colorado, leading 34-30 at halftime, broke it open in the first 10 minutes of the second half.

Morandais scored 11 points during that span, including nine points during the Buffaloes' 21-4 flurry.

Johnson kept the score respectable, scoring Missouri's next 12 points, but Colorado still led 65-50 with 5:50 to go.

Jimmy McKinney's 3-pointer cut the deficit to 77-67 with 1:34 left, but Colorado hit 6-of-10 free throws the rest of the way.

After Missouri climbed back into a 12-12 tie, Colorado scored the next nine points, including 3-pointers by Blair Wilson and Morandais, for a 21-12 lead with 11:19 left in the half.

The Tigers erased the nine-point deficit on three straight 3-pointers by Thomas Gardner, making it 23-23.

Colorado responded with seven straight points, including Harrison's layup and his short jumper while falling backward onto the floor. Bryant had a pair of 3-pointers in the final four minutes of the half as Missouri cut into the lead.

Colorado outshot Missouri 52 percent to 39 percent in the half, but the Tigers were 7-of-12 from 3-point range.

Tigers Extend Winning Streak over Wildcats

Mizzou has now won 20 straight over KSU in Columbia

Jan. 31, 2004

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Thomas Gardner scored all but three of his 16 points in the second half, including three 3-pointers that spurred a long-range attack, helping lift Missouri to a 62-53 victory over Kansas State on Saturday.

The Tigers were 1-for-11 from 3-point range in the first half but 6-for-11 the rest of the way. Missouri hit only 3-pointers, making six of them to go with four free throws, in a 16-minute stretch that ended on Arthur Johnson's shot from the baseline with 2:11 to go.

The Tigers (9-8, 4-3 Big 12) rebounded from a 13-point loss at Colorado on Wednesday despite another off-game from leading scorer Rickey Paulding, who had nine points. They also won with a short bench, doing without forward Linas Kleiza (dislocated shoulder) and point guard Randy Pulley (disciplinary suspension).

Paulding, who averages 15.9 points, was 4-for-12 and is 7-for-24 his past two games. Kleiza will be out two weeks and Pulley was suspended after skipping practice on Friday, two days after he did not play at Colorado.

Johnson added 13 points, seven rebounds, three steals and three blocked shots for Missouri. Jimmy McKinney added 10 points.

Missouri put the game away with a 12-1 run, pulling away after Kansas State had tied it when Hart scored in the lane to make it 34-34 with 13:18 to play. Gardner, Josh Kroenke and Jason Conley hit 3-pointers in the run, with Conley's 3 snapping a personal 0-for-18 slump from long range.

That run made it 46-35 with 6:38 to go, and Kansas State never got any closer than seven points the rest of the way.

Missouri lead by as many as nine points in the first half. But Kansas State scored seven of the last nine points, capitalizing on two turnovers by McKinney in the final minute, to cut the gap to 27-25.

Tigers Fall To No. 20 Kansas

Arthur Johnson scores 15 in tough loss.

Feb. 2, 2004

LAWRENCE, Kan. - Kansas' upperclassmen tried to explain to the freshmen how this rivalry with Missouri was unlike anything they had ever known.

But the youngsters had to see for themselves.

After the No. 20 Jayhawks held on Monday night for a 65-56 victory over the Tigers, J.R. Giddens, for one, was a believer.

The capacity crowd of 16,300 crammed into Allen Fieldhouse let out a thunderous roar when Wayne Simien canned two free throws with 42 seconds to go, sealing the victory for the Jayhawks (14-4, 6-1 Big 12) in a typically hard-fought showdown in the 97-year-old series.

Kansas led by only two points at halftime and was never able to pull away from the Tigers (9-9, 4-4) until the final minutes.

Arthur Johnson, who led Missouri with 15 points, hit a hook shot in the lane to make it 61-56 with 2:46 to go as Missouri sought to post back-to-back wins for the first time since the second and third games of the season.

But then Aaron Miles made two free throws after Travon Bryant missed a 3-pointer for the Tigers, who were just 3-for-18 from beyond the arc.

Miles, who left the game momentarily in the second half with pain in his right ankle, had 11 points and eight assists as the Jayhawks took a half-game lead over idle No. 11 Texas and No. 13 Oklahoma State in the Big 12 race.

Rickey Paulding had 14 points for Missouri and Bryant and Jimmy McKinney had 10 apiece.

Keith Langford took a pass from Miles, the Big 12 assists leader, and stuffed it through for a 51-45 lead as the Jayhawks fought to take control. Then Bryant made a 3-pointer and a moment later McKinney's twisting jumper in the lane made it 53-52.

A few minutes later, after a couple of furiously contested rebounds went the Jayhawks' way, Simien put in a short jumper in traffic for a 59-54 lead.

After Kansas' Jeff Graves fouled out and Johnson missed the front end of a one-and-one, Langford pulled down the rebound and Miles fed Simien for a thunderous dunk and a 61-54 lead.

Mizzou Drops Road Game at Nebraska

Rickey Paulding has 16 in loss

Feb. 7, 2004

LINCOLN, Neb.. - Brian Conklin had 17 points, hitting all five of his 3-point shots, to lead Nebraska to a 78-62 win over Missouri.

Nebraska (12-8, 2-6 Big 12) opened up a 17-point, first-half lead Saturday, and Missouri got no closer than nine the rest of the game as the Cornhuskers took their largest win over the Tigers since the 1996-97 season.

Nebraska's biggest lead came on Conklin's 3-pointer with 4:18 remaining, giving Nebraska a 70-50 lead. Missouri (9-10, 4-5) was able to cut Nebraska's 12 point halftime lead to nine on Rickey Paulding's basket with 16:20 remaining that made the score 42-33.

A 10-2 flurry capped by a Conklin 3-pointer put Nebraska up 52-35 with 13:55 remaining, and Missouri never seriously threatened again.

Nebraska turned 12 offensive rebounds into 22 second-chance points. The Huskers also got 24 points off 17 Missouri turnovers and outscored the Tigers by five from the 3-point line and by seven from the free-throw line.

Joining Conklin in double figures for Nebraska were Marcus Neal Jr. with 14, Nate Johnson with 13 and John Turek with 10.

Paulding had 16 to lead Missouri. Bryant added 15 for the Tigers, Jason Conley had 12 and Arthur Johnson added 10.

Bryant Has Big Night as Tigers Take Out Buffaloes

Senior scores 17 points, pulled down nine rebounds and handed out six assists.

Feb. 10, 2004

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Travon Bryant had 17 points, nine rebounds and six assists, and Missouri made it back to .500 with a 77-65 victory over Colorado on Tuesday night. A late 18-2 run proved decisive for Missouri (10-10, 5-5 Big 12), which had lost two straight road games and fallen below the break-even mark for the first time in five seasons under coach Quin Snyder.

Jason Conley led the final charge, scoring seven of his 12 points, after Colorado had taken a 59-57 lead. Arthur Johnson added 16 points and Rickey Paulding had 10 points and seven steals - one shy of the school record - as Missouri avenged its 83-70 loss at Colorado on Jan. 28.

Michel Morandais had 18 points for Colorado (13-8, 5-5) and David Harrison had eight points and 10 rebounds. Colorado made eight 3-pointers and got 12 points from reserve Marcus Hall. But the 7-foot Harrison, a 56 percent free throw shooter, hurt the Buffaloes by going 2-for-11 at the line. Seven of the misses came in the final 10 minutes.

Missouri profited from a rare pre-game practice, which Snyder conducted about 90 minutes before the game. The session began with just Snyder and Bryant working on his shot, but soon blossomed with Snyder tossing passes from beyond the 3-point line. Missouri has won seven in a row at home over Colorado, which fell to 1-4 on the road in conference play.

Bryant had streaks of 10 straight baskets and 11 straight free throws over a two-game span. The free-throw run ended when he missed a chance for a three-point play for the lead with 15:53 to go and he had been 5-for-5 from the field before misfiring on a 3-pointer with 8:23 left. Bryant had 11 points and Johnson had 10 in the first half as Missouri emphasized its inside game for a 37-32 lead.

Colorado committed 15 turnovers, nine of them in the first nine minutes, but kept it close with a 17-9 rebounding advantage. Missouri played its first game since dismissing point guard Randy Pulley for skipping two practices. The Tigers also were without guard Josh Kroenke, whose leg was gashed on Monday when Thomas Gardner dunked and brought the backboard down on a practice court.

Tigers Dominate Vegas, 94-60

Five Tigers reach double figures in win

Feb. 15, 2004

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Missouri scored on 21 of 22 possessions in a dominating first half, and got a season-best 23 points from Arthur Johnson and a career-best 20 from freshman Thomas Gardner in a 94-60 victory over UNLV on Sunday.

The Tigers (11-10) played their most complete game of a mostly discombobulated season, taking a commanding 54-27 lead and hitting a season-best 13 3-pointers overall. Missouri was in such command, displaying a transition game missing most of the season, that its offensive rebound total (13) topped UNLV's overall rebound total (11) in the half.

Missouri took control with an early 15-0 run for a 19-8 lead with 11:24 left, then finished the half with a 22-6 run that included eight points from Johnson.

Gardner was 4-for-5 from 3-point range and had 18 points in the half, while Johnson had 16 points on 8-for-12 shooting.

Jason Conley added 17 points and Travon Bryant 11 for Missouri, which perhaps benefited from another pre-game practice session led by coach Quin Snyder. Snyder introduced the tactic before a 77-65 victory over Colorado on Tuesday.

Johnson had eight of Missouri's first 13 points en route to the first 20-point game of the season for the Big 12 preseason player of the year. The Tigers ran away in the first half despite a poor start from leading scorer Rickey Paulding, who was 1-for-6 and had only two points before finishing with 12 points and a career-best nine assists.

Missouri's first-half point total topped its previous season best of 52 points against North Carolina-Greensboro in a 106-98 victory Dec. 21. The Tigers topped 80 points for the first time in 10 games and had, by far, their largest margin of victory.

Missouri stretched the lead to as many as 38 points in the second half despite playing with only four reserves. Freshman forward Linas Kleiza, who has a dislocated right shoulder, elected to have season-ending surgery and senior swingman Josh Kroenke missed his second game with a gash in his leg from a practice accident.

Mizzou Makes it Three Straight With Win over ISU

McKinney scores 21 to lead Tigers

Feb. 18, 2004

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Arthur Johnson had 16 points, 11 rebounds and three steals to lead Missouri to an 82-70 victory over Iowa State Wednesday night, as the Tigers continued their second-half surge.

Jimmy McKinney had 21 points and Rickey Paulding 19 for Missouri (12-10, 6-5 Big 12), which has won three in a row for the first time since opening the season with victories over Oakland, Coppin State and Indiana.

The Tigers, attempting to rescue their season after being ranked as high as No. 3 in mid-December, fought off a second-half charge from Iowa State (14-8, 5-6) and overcame 23 turnovers to send the Cyclones to their 22nd consecutive conference road loss.

Johnson earned the 42nd double-double of his career, but his first in nine games, while playing 38 minutes to help Missouri continue the momentum it built with earlier victories over UNLV and Colorado.

Paulding was 3-for-5 from 3-point range to compensate for a poor game from Thomas Gardner, who followed a career-best 20 points with three points on 1-for-8 shooting. Jason Conley added 14 points.

Curtis Stinson had 18 points, seven assists and six rebounds and Jake Sullivan had 17 points for Iowa State. But the Cyclones' big men, Jackson Vroman and Jared Homan, were in foul trouble throughout. Vroman had seven points and five rebounds, five shy of his Big 12-leading average, before fouling out in the final minute. Homan had four points, seven below his average, and three rebounds before fouling out with 6:04 to play.

Iowa State is 13-1 at home, but is 0-5 on the road in conference play. Missouri twice led by 17 points early in the second half, the last time at 52-35 with 16:52 to go. Iowa State shaved the gap to four with a 10-0 run capped by Homan's inside basket with 9:55 left.

Missouri finished the first half on a 12-3 run, including four points from Johnson in the final minute, to take its biggest lead at 43-31. The last two games the Tigers have started fast with an overall 97-58 advantage over the Cyclones and UNLV.

Conley Explodes for 24 as Tigers Get Road Win

Tigers now have won four in a row.

Feb. 21, 2004

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Rickey Paulding scored 15 points, including three free throws in the final 18 seconds, as Missouri held on to beat Baylor 70-66 Saturday.

Jason Conley scored 24 points for the Tigers (13-10, 7-5 Big 12), who led for much of the second half but allowed Baylor to pull within 67-66 on Harvey Thomas' twisting layup with 29 seconds left.

After two Paulding free throws put the Tigers up 69-66, Baylor (7-18, 2-10) had a chance to tie, but Terrance Thomas couldn't get off a 3-pointer. He passed to Matt Sayman, who missed a 22-footer with 5 seconds left.

Thomas led Baylor with 16 points and three blocks, but he also lost five turnovers. R.T. Guinn went 3-of-5 on 3-pointers to finish with 15 points for the Bears. Sayman had 12.

The game was close throughout, and there were eight lead changes. Baylor tied the score at 61-61 on two Sayman free throws with about 4:30 remaining, but Conley hit a layup and Missouri never trailed again.

Missouri led 33-32 at halftime despite Baylor hitting 52 percent in the first half.

The Tigers outrebounded the Bears 34-22 and outscored them in the paint 38-30.

Mizzou Tops #6 OSU in Double Overtime Thriller

Paulding and Johnson team for 60 total points in win

Feb. 24, 2004

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Rickey Paulding and Arthur Johnson picked the right time to live up the preseason hype.

Paulding, a preseason all-American, scored 31 points Tuesday and Johnson had 29, including a pair of free throws with 30.3 seconds left in the second overtime to give Missouri a 93-92 win over sixth-ranked Oklahoma State. The two seniors have suffered through up-and-down seasons but have played significant roles in the Tigers' late-season surge.

Paulding flung the ball into the stands and hundreds of fans stormed the court to celebrate when a last-second jumper by Oklahoma State's John Lucas bounced off the rim, giving the Tigers (14-10, 8-5 Big 12) their fifth straight win and putting them back in contention for an NCAA tournament berth.

Missouri led for most of the game and seemed headed for a relatively easy win after consecutive 3-pointers by Paulding put the Tigers up 71-62 with 4:52 to play.

But Oklahoma State went to a full-court press for the rest of regulation that baffled the Tigers, forcing five straight missed shots. The Cowboys went on an 11-2 run that sent the game into overtime.

Missouri's Thomas Gardner made an off-balance 3-pointer with 24 seconds left in the first overtime to tie the game and force the second overtime.

In the second overtime, the lead changed hands six times, the last when Johnson hit both free throws after he was fouled by Tony Allen, who had 24 points.

After an Oklahoma State timeout with 25 seconds left, Lucas dribbled away the clock before attempting a last-second 3-pointer that bounced high off the back of the rim.

Missouri improved to 2-5 against ranked teams. Five of the Tigers' losses have been in overtime or by four points or less.

Missouri led by as many as 13 points in the first half and was up 50-39 at the break. Both teams came out running, but the Tigers were hot, hitting 18 of 32 first-half shots (56 percent). Missouri began the game with a 9-3 run, but Oklahoma State went ahead 21-20 with 12:35 to go in the first half when Jason Miller tipped in a missed shot. The Cowboys wouldn't lead again until overtime.

Missouri dominated the final 12 minutes of the first half, going on a 25-11 run to go ahead 45-32 after Johnson blocked a shot at one end and Paulding made a 3-pointer at the other with 2:17 to go.

Mizzou Dominates Second Half in Win Over KSU

Paulding scores 17 second half points in 10-point Tiger win.

Feb. 28, 2004

MANHATTAN, Kan. - Jason Conley scored 20 points and Rickey Paulding had 17 as Missouri beat Kansas State 79-69 on Saturday, sweeping the Wildcats for the third straight year.

Missouri (15-10, 9-5 Big 12) rallied from a 10-point deficit to win its sixth straight of the season and its seventh straight over Kansas State (12-13, 4-10).

With the Tigers trailing 39-31, Paulding dunked over Frank Richards with 17:07 to go in the game. Richards was called for a foul, sending Wildcat fans into an uproar.

Paulding completed the three-point play, igniting a run that put Missouri up 48-40 with 12:39 to go. Paulding scored nine points during the stretch.

The Wildcats trimmed the lead to three, but Paulding hit a 3-pointer with 11:05 left and the Wildcats never got closer.

The Tigers were 11-of-23 from 3-point range.

Arthur Johnson scored 14 points and Travon Bryant added 10 for the Tigers.

Jeremiah Massey led Kansas State with 17 points and nine rebounds, Jarrett Hart had 14 and Richards scored 10.

Frank Richards sparked a 6-0 run that give the Wildcats a 35-28 lead at halftime.

Johnson Sets Rebounds Mark But Tigers Fall at TTU

Texas Tech capitalizes on Mizzou Miscues

Mar. 3, 2004

LUBBOCK, Kan. - Andre Emmett scored 28 points to lead Texas Tech to an 87-76 win over Missouri on Wednesday night.

The win gave Tech its 20th victory of the season. It is the third straight 20-win season for Tech, all under coach Bob Knight. For Knight, it was his eighth straight season of 20 or more wins, dating to the 1995-96 season when his Indiana team finished second in the Big 10.

Trailing Missouri by three at the half, the Red Raiders came out and used a 19-6 run to take a 60-50 lead with 13:41 remaining. Ronald Ross scored eight of the 19 points, all layups.

Tech (20-9, 8-7 Big 12) built its largest lead at 72-56 when Emmett stole a Tigers inbounds pass and put it in a layup and a free throw with 10:37 left.

Tech scored 31 points in less than 10 minutes in the second half, missing on only one of 17 possessions. The Red Raiders failed to score on the next five possessions, however, and the Tigers used an 18-9 run to whittle the lead to 78-74 on layup by Jason Conley that was ruled good because of a goal-tending call with 3:07 remaining.

Missouri (15-11, 9-6) got no closer.

Jarrius Jackson scored 19 points, while Ross added 15 for Tech.

The loss stopped the Tigers' six-game win streak, which included a 93-92 overtime win over No. 8 Oklahoma State in late February.

Arthur Johnson scored 24 points and Jimmy McKinney added 14 for the Tigers. Missouri led 44-41 at halftime.

Tigers Drop Tough One To KU

Johnson goes for career-high 37 in two point loss

Mar. 7, 2004

COLUMBIA, Mo. - No. 21 Kansas, victimized so many times over the years at the Hearnese Center, spoiled the final game at the 32-year-old building.

Freshman reserve David Padgett scored with two seconds left and Wayne Simien had 22 points and seven rebounds in the Jayhawks' 84-82 victory over Missouri on Sunday.

Arthur Johnson scored a career-high 37 points and had eight rebounds for Missouri (15-12, 9-7 Big 12). But the Tigers, in need of a victory to bolster their hope of a sixth straight NCAA tournament berth, fell just short after rallying from a 10-point deficit in the final 4:54 and finished 405-72 in the Hearnese.

Kansas, which has the No. 3 seed in the Big 12 tournament, has won five of six. The victory came on a court on which the Jayhawks were often bedeviled over the years.

Kansas has swept the home-and-home series the last two seasons, but in a six-season span beginning in 1996, the Jayhawks lost at Missouri while ranked third, first, third, 19th, seventh and third. In 1997, the year the Jayhawks were No. 1 and lost in double overtime, Missouri finished 16-17.

This time, they spoiled what had shaped up as a big finale for the Tigers.

Padgett, who averages 6.7 points, found himself alone on the baseline after taking a pass from Keith Langford. He swished a 10-footer and finished with six points.

Rickey Paulding had 14 points and Jimmy McKinney and Jason Conley added 10 apiece for Missouri.

The arena was packed a half-hour before the start. Longtime coach Norm Stewart was surprised by a halftime announcement that his name will grace the floor of the new arena next season.

But Missouri missed 12 of its first 23 attempts from the line and went 19-for-32 overall as its six-game home winning streak. At one point late in the second half, the Tigers missed five in a row from the line.

Kansas (20-7, 12-4) silenced the crowd with a 9-0 run over a span of 1:32 for a 77-67 lead before Johnson helped set up the tight finish with eight points, including 6-for-6 from the line.

Tigers Survive Scare from Aggies in First Round of Big 12 Tourney

Jimmy McKinney scores 20 in Tiger win.

Mar. 11, 2004

DALLAS, Texas. - Jason Conley hit consecutive 3-pointers during a 9-0 run late in the second half, sending Missouri past Texas A&M 74-68 in the first round of the Big 12 tournament and ending the six-year tenure of Aggies coach Melvin Watkins.

Watkins announced Wednesday that he was resigning after A&M's next loss. It was no surprise that it came so quickly as the Aggies (7-21) lost their 19th straight conference game. They've lost 11 straight in conference tournaments, starting with the 1994 Southwest Conference finals.

Missouri (16-12) will play No. 18 Kansas on Friday night. The Jayhawks beat the Tigers 84-82 on Sunday.

The rematch gives Missouri a great chance to bolster its hopes of making the NCAA tournament for the sixth straight year. The Tigers were ranked No. 3 early this season, but plummeted to 9-10 in early February. They've worked their way back into consideration by winning seven of nine.

Watkins' Aggies played hard to the end.

A&M led by nine in the opening minutes, but trailed by five at halftime. Down seven early in the second half, the Aggies rallied to lead 54-53 with 7:42 left on a free throw by Antoine Wright, who scored 22 points.

Then the Tigers snapped into action. A perfectly timed putback by Rickey Paulding put Missouri back ahead and Conley's 3-pointers stretched the lead. A free throw by Jimmy McKinney capped the run, leaving Mizzou up 62-54.

A&M hurt itself with turnovers before each of Conley's baskets. The second miscue was Kevin Turner dribbling the ball out of bounds off his foot. Watkins took him out after that, stopping him on his way to the bench for a hug and some encouraging words.

The Aggies were able to keep things interesting until the end, getting within 69-66 with 1:48 left. When it ended, Watkins bit him bottom lip, congratulated the nearest Missouri player, then hugged Tigers coach Quin Snyder and shook hands with the rival staff.

Watkins leaves with a mark of 60-112, 21-76 in conference play. He lost his final 17, with his last win coming Jan. 6 against Long Island.

McKinney led Missouri with 20 points, hitting 5-of-6 shots - all 3-pointers. Arthur Johnson, coming off a 37-point game against the Jayhawks, added 14 points and Travon Bryant had 16 points and nine rebounds.

Mizzou Falls in Second Round of Big 12 Tournament

Tigers are now 16-13.

Mar. 12, 2004

DALLAS, Texas. -Wayne Simien just keeps carrying the Kansas Jayhawks.

Simien had 31 points and 11 rebounds, and the No. 18 Jayhawks beat Missouri 94-69 in the Big 12 quarterfinals Friday night.

Simien made 12 of 14 shots while scoring the most points by a Kansas player in the Big 12 tournament. He went over 20 points for the eighth time in 10 games.

The Jayhawks (21-7), who spent some time as the No. 1 team earlier this season, won for the sixth time in seven games. They handed Missouri (16-13) its second stinging loss in less than a week.

Simien had 17 points in the first half, when Kansas overcame a 12-point deficit and took the lead by halftime. He then scored eight points in a 15-0 second-half run that turned the game into a rout.

After their third loss to Kansas this season, the Tigers are likely to miss the NCAA tournament for the first time in six years. Five days earlier, the Jayhawks won 84-82 in Missouri's final home game at the Hearn Center.

J.R. Giddens added 15 points. Jeff Graves had 14 points, and Keith Langford had 10 points and 10 rebounds.

Arthur Johnson led Missouri with 26 points, most coming on inside baskets or free throws.

The Tigers had hoped another strong showing in the conference tournament could get them in the NCAA again. Last year, they won three games in three days, including a 68-63 semifinal win over Kansas for their 21st win.
