SLAP SINGLES

14

» Mizzou racked up the runs in its win over UMKC to close the Mizzou Tournament. The 14-0 victory was the Tigers' highest run total and largest margin of victory since a 16-0 defeat of Georgia Tech on March 23, 2013.

25

» To do something better than former Mizzou great & 3-time All-American Rhea Taylor is saying something. Taylor Gadbois' current 25-game hitting streak is the new program-best, surpassing Taylor's 18-game streak from 2010.

15

» More double plays than last year? You bet. Mizzou has 15 in 2014, distancing itself from the 2013 total of 12.

6

» Mizzou is joined by Alabama and Arizona State as the only softball programs in the country to appear in the last six NCAA Super Regional rounds.

494

» Coach Earleywine is in the home stretch towards career head coaching victory No. 500. The Tigers' leader has 348 in Columbia, in addition to the 146 he won at Georgia Tech (2004-06).

TIGERS ON THE PROWL

#5

» Finucane was about as clutch as a pitcher can possibly be in the top of the seventh vs. Oklahoma State, striking out 3 batters in a row with runners on 1st & 2nd to seal the 2-1 victory. Finucane finished with 9 Ks, a season-best.

P TORI FINUCANE / FR / 5-7 / L-R

#9

» Gadbois continues to glide around the base paths with her 25-game hitting streak and 25 stolen bases. The Tiger OF notched her latest 3-hit game with a 3-for-4 day in the win vs. Ball State (March 21).

OF TAYLOR GADBOIS / RS SO / 5-10 / L-R

#4

» Heading into the month of March, Sykes' best career RBI output was 3, accomplished twice. But now she's hit 4 (vs. Ohio State), 5 (Ball State) and 4 again (NDSU). Not a bad March!

TIGER TALES - CURRENT STORYLINES FOR #MIZZOU

» No. 18 Mizzou Softball (22-7, 2-4 SEC) put together a perfect 6-0 record over the last week, first sweeping a home doubleheader vs. Illinois State (4-2, 5-0) on March 19, before besting the field in the Mizzou Tournament (March 21-23) with four wins. The Tigers defeated Ball State (11-3 in six innings), North Dakota State (11-2 in five innings), Oklahoma State (2-1) and UMKC (14-0 in five innings).

» Head coach Ehren Earleywine's squad swept the Mizzou Tournament (March 21-23) at University Field with a multitude of standout performances. Both redshirt sophomore OF Taylor Gadbois and senior OF Mackenzie Sykes hit 3-for-4 in the victory over Ball State (March 21), with Sykes hitting two doubles to power her way to a career-best five RBI. Sykes followed that up with Mizzou's second grand slam of the season in the win vs. North Dakota State (March 22).

» Mizzou's most exciting win of the weekend came against Big 12 Conference foe Oklahoma State during the second day of the tournament. Freshman P Tori Finucane held the Cowgirls to one run and just three hits while matching her season-best with nine strikeouts in the 2-1 victory. Her final three strikeouts may have been the most impressive, with the Tiger hurler recording the three whiffs consecutively in the top of the seventh with Oklahoma State runners at first base and second base.

» Runs flew onto the scoreboard in the Tigers' 14-0 win over UMKC to finish off the Mizzou Tournament. Big performances came from redshirt sophomore SS Sami Fagan and freshman P/1B/OF Casey Stangel. Fagan batted 2-for-3 with a double and matched her career-best with three RBI. Stangel was perfect at the plate, also doubling in a 3-for-3 day with a career-high four RBI and three runs scored.

» The Tigers were powered to the opening win (4-2) over Illinois State by redshirt sophomore 2B Ashtin Stephens, who batted 3-for-3 with a career-best four RBI. The second game shutout (5-0) was pitched by Stangel, with standout hitting coming from junior IF Corrin Genovese (3-for-3) and freshman 3B/2B Natalie Fleming (2-for-3). Fleming hit her first collegiate home run in the win.

OPPOSITION - ILLINOIS

» Illinois (15-9) is led at the plate by Alex Booker, who holds a .440 batting average coming to the Tiger-Fighting Illini doubleheader. She is joined by three other Illinois batters in the .300 range - Allie Bauch (.337), Ruby Rivera (.333) and Jess Perkins (.300). Perkins is tied for the team-lead in home runs with four, while Booker leads in RBI (21).

» Illinois head coach Terri Sullivan's pitching department is led by Brandi Needham, who has compiled a 1.69 ERA in 95.1 innings pitched for a 10-4 record. Needham is holding opposing batters to a .214 average. The Fighting Illini's No. 2 in the circle is Shelese Arnold, who sports a 3.38 ERA after 58.0 innings of work for a 4-4 record.

» The starkest difference between the two teams meeting on Wednesday is their respective aggressiveness on the base paths. Illinois has 28 steals in 35 attempts, which is doubled up by Mizzou's 59 stolen bases out of 68 tries.

» The story of the Kentucky series (March 14-16) may have been Gadbois recording a hit in all three games to extend her hitting streak to 19 games, topping Three-time All-American Rhea Taylor's program-best 18-game hitting streak from 2010. Gadbois has continued her streak to 25 games, producing a a multi-hit game in 13 of the 25 games. Fagan was recently halted at an impressive 14-game hitting streak, coming up short of a hit in the initial game of the Illinois State doubleheader. Building her own worthy streak is sophomore 2B Emily Crane, who has an 11-game run ongoing.

» Speed. Mizzou is showing plenty of it through the team's first 29 games, totaling 59 stolen bases for a clip of 2.03 successful steals per game. It's a stark improvement from last season in which Earleywine's group averaged 1.1 steals per game (59 SB, 52 games). The major contributor, of course, is Gadbois' 25 steals, which currently ranks at the No. 1 mark in the SEC. Crane has been more aggressive, as well, going 11-for-12 in steal attempts thus far. Crane finished her freshman season in 2013 with 13 steals in 52 games. Behind Gadbois and Crane is Fagan's 8-for-9 stolen base rate.

» Earleywine is in his eighth season leading Mizzou and 11th season as a head softball coach with a major milestone within reach. The former Georgia Tech head coach (2004-06) went 146-55 in Atlanta before returning to his home state to lead the Tigers, winning 348 games to run his career total to 494.

» Earleywine's crew was given preseason rankings of 14th and 17th by the USA Today/NFCA Division I Top 25 and ESPN.com/USA Softball Collegiate Top 25 polls, respectively, marking the fifth-consecutive season that the Tigers begin their season ranked in the Top 15. Mizzou is currently 18th and 20th in the two polls.

DID YOU KNOW?

Three-time First Team All-American Chelsea Thomas (2009-13) finished her Mizzou career with 17 weekly conference honors. That total includes five in 2013, which was her final season as a Tiger, but first in the SEC. Her five recognitions not only led the conference handily (three other SEC pitchers had two), but it tied the conference record for weekly awards in a single season (matching Tennessee's Monica Abbott, 2005).

EHREN EARLEYWINE

HEAD COACH
EIGHTH SEASON
WESTMINSTER, 1994
2007 BIG 12 COACH OF THE YEAR
2011 BIG 12 COACH OF THE YEAR
348-111 (.758) AT MIZZOU

Mizzou Head Coach Ehren Earleywine has built a national power for Tiger fans to be proud of by striving for excellence in all phases of the game. Shut-down pitching, consistent fielding and explosive offense have been constants during Earleywine's tenure in Columbia. In his seven seasons at the helm of the Missouri softball program, the Tigers have made three Women's College World Series appearances, recorded the first three 50-win seasons in school history and have advanced to six NCAA Super Regionals. These accomplishments have come while building an incredible .758 winning percentage to rank as one of the winningest programs in the nation since 2007.

Mizzou Softball has competed at the highest level during Earleywine's time leading the Tigers, including the capture of two of the programs' seven all-time conference championships. As part of a stellar 50-12 overall record in 2009, Mizzou won the 2009 Big 12 Conference Tournament. The Tigers followed that up with a Big 12 Regular Season Championship in 2011, posting a stout 53-10 overall record. In Mizzou's first season of Southeastern Conference action in 2013, Earleywine's squad left an immediate impression. The Tigers placed third in the league's regular season standings before finishing as runners-up at the SEC Tournament.

Earleywine's teams have been ranked in the Top 10 for five straight seasons, including as high as No. 3 in the nation during a three-week run in 2010. Mizzou has finished as a Top 10 team in the polls three times under Earleywine's leadership.

Big offense led to success in Earleywine's first season in 2007, in which he took a team that posted just 26 wins and had a losing record the year before and turned them into a 40-win squad that finished the year with a regional bid and a Top 20 national ranking.

Named Missouri's head coach in August of 2006, Earleywine's model for winning was rewarded with a seven-year contract extension on Aug. 31, 2011, making him the first Olympic coach in Missouri history to receive an extension greater than five years. In his seven seasons at Missouri, Earleywine has managed a record of 326-102 and became the fastest Missouri softball coach to reach 300 victories. Since beginning his head coaching career in 2003 at Georgia Tech, Earleywine has turned in an outstanding .748 winning percentage. He was the fifth fastest coach to reach 100 wins in NCAA Division I softball history.

In seven seasons, the three-time conference coach of the year has become the first Missouri softball coach to lead his squad to six-straight NCAA Regional titles, doing so on the road in 2008 and again at home in Columbia, Mo., from 2009-13. In fact, Mizzou is currently one of only three schools in the country to win six-straight regional titles. The Tigers are joined by Arizona State and Florida in achieving that feat.

Since Earleywine took the reins, Missouri's batting averages have been on the rise, which includes a .313 mark in 2009 and a .304 mark in 2013, while the team ERA has been on the decline, highlighted by 2011's 1.40 mark, the Tigers' best end of the year ERA since 1998.

Mizzou's entire softball staff has received deserved recognition while helping the program ascend to the upper echelon of college softball. Earleywine and crew were named NFCA Midwest Region Staff of the Year three times in a four-year span (2009, 10, 12).

In addition to the success Missouri has seen on the field, Earleywine's squad has received exemplary marks in the classroom. Mizzou posted a 994 NCAA Academic Progress Rate (APR) for the 2011-12 academic year, the second highest mark for an SEC softball program. In 2011, Missouri led the Big 12 with a 997 APR rate for the softball team, while 10 Tigers were named to the Academic All-Big 12 list, the most in the league. They followed that up with eight in 2012.

In a new league of competition, Mizzou's book smarts were apparent again. Ten Tigers were honored to the SEC's Academic Honor Roll. Additionally, the team grade point average (GPA) under Earleywine has never fallen below the adept mark of 3.0. It has even soared as high as 3.4 in recent years, illustrating Mizzou's commitment to excellence on and off the field.

A 1994 graduate of Westminster College, Earleywine played baseball at Missouri State University (formerly Southwest Missouri State) for one year before transferring to the Fulton, Mo., school for the remainder of his collegiate career. Earleywine served as an assistant coach at Westminster through the 1997 campaign under the guidance of former Major League Baseball outfielder and former Tiger, Phil Bradley, then took the reigns as head coach until 1999. Following his time at Westminster, Earleywine was named assistant baseball coach at Texas A&M-Corpus Christi in 2000, remaining there until 2002 before taking the head assistant coaching position at Georgia Tech.

A standout in men's major fastpitch softball, Earleywine was a four-time member of Team USA (2000, 2001, 2002, 2003) including being named captain for his final two seasons with the national team. In 2002, Team USA captured its first-ever gold medal in the Pan Am Qualifier, where Earleywine hit .429. During his career, Earleywine collected four medals, one gold, two silver and one bronze. At the 2003 Pan Am Games, hosted by the Dominican Republic, Earleywine helped lead Team USA to a silver medal, doing so again in the 1999 Pan Am Games held in Winnipeg, Canada. Earleywine and his team earned bronze in Valencia, Venezuela, at the 1998 Pan Am Qualifier.

Earleywine is a graduate of Jefferson City High School and is married to Linn, Mo., native Lisa. The two have two children, son, Connor, and daughter, Duran.
