SERIES HISTORY

- Mizzou meets the Jayhawks for the 346th time on Tuesday. Mizzou owns a 218-125-2 all-time record against Kansas.
- The two rivals are meeting for the first time since Mizzou moved to the SEC. The most recent meeting came in 2012 when the Tigers crushed the Jayhawks 12-2 in the Big 12 Tournament semifinals. Mizzou went on to claim the tournament crown that season.
- The series with Kansas is the most frequently played in Mizzou history and one of the oldest, dating to 1901.

TRE TURNING IT ON

- Junior catcher Tre Morris has hit in each of his past four games, including all three in the weekend series versus top-ranked Vanderbilt.
- Morris is hitting .385 (5-for-13) during the four-game stretch and added his third multi-hit game of the season in Saturday's finale with the Commodores.
- In SEC play this season, Morris leads the Tigers with his .400 (6-for-15) batting average. He has a homer and team-leading four RBI during conference action.
- In the series against the Commodores, Morris hit .444 (4-for-9). He also had a pair of hard-hit line drives knocked down by pitchers to rob him of hits in Thursday's opener.

KEEFER KEEPS GOING

- Fifth-year Andrew Keefer has racked up a base-knock in seven of the past eight games. In the first and third games of the Vanderbilt series, Keefer recorded a base hit and a walk.
- Over those eight games, Keefer is hitting .385 (10-for-26) with three doubles, a triple and team-leading five runs scored. He has also added five walks during the stretch to reach at a .484 clip.
- Keefer recorded multi-hit days in each of the last two games at Kentucky, adding a double on Sunday and a run-scored on Saturday.
- For the Kentucky series, Keefer hit a team-leading .455. He went 5-for-11 with a double, two walks and a pair of runs scored.

HISE HOLDS HIS OWN

- Freshman Zach Hise made just his third career start in Saturday's finale against top-ranked Vanderbilt, but the right-hander showed he has what it takes to compete with the best.
- In two trips through the order, Hise held the Commodores scoreless and scattered three hits.
- He struck out a career-best six batters against Vanderbilt in just four innings of work.
- The rookie has been Mizzou's most effective starter in the first two SEC series, earning a 3.12 ERA in 8.2 IP. He's struck out eight batters, one off the team lead in conference action.

MCNAMARA RETURNS TO FOLD

- After winning the second base job out of fall camp, a preseason injury held sophomore Dalton McNamara out of non-conference action this spring.
- McNamara made his return to action at Taylor Stadium against Vanderbilt, pinch hitting in each of the first two games before making the start in Saturday's finale.
- In his Saturday start, McNamara went 1-for-3 with a single and a walk. His fifth-inning knock was his first of the season.

MONTGOMERY MASHES ANOTHER

- Sophomore transfer Torin Montgomery flashed his impressive power once again in Friday's matchup against Vanderbilt.
- The first baseman launched a no-doubt blast deep into the left field bullpen to break up the shutout-bid.
- The homer and three RBI tied Montgomery for the team lead in each category. His three homers match Luke Mann and Cameron Swanger while his 14 RBI are tied with Mann as well.

VEINBERGS' ELECTRIC STARTS

- Lukas Veinbergs made his first career start to open the Frisco Classic and tossed a career-best five innings with seven strikeouts.
- Six days later, Veinbergs outdid himself, tossing 5.2 IP and setting a new career best with eight strikeouts.
- In his two starts, Veinbergs has worked 10.2 IP with a 0.84 ERA and 15 strikeouts.
- The right-hander is scheduled to make his third start on Tuesday in Lawrence.

LOCKDOWN LOHSE

- Freshman Ian Lohse picked up his first collegiate win at Saint Louis (3/10) and followed by earning his second save of the season in Sunday's finale at Illinois State (3/14).
- At Saint Louis, the left-hander worked 3.1 IP in relief and did not allow a run or a hit in picking up the win.
- Lohse struck out a career-best seven batters, including the final batter to seal the 2-1 win.
- At Illinois State Lohse worked the final three innings for Mizzou to earn his second save. He did not allow an earned run and surrendered just one hit in the outing.
- Lohse's success has carried over into the first two SEC series, as the rookie has posted a 1.59 ERA in his past four appearances (SLU, Ill. St., UK, VU). During that stretch, Lohse has worked 11.1 IP with just four hits allowed and a pair of earned runs. He's struck out a team-leading 16 batters in the past 11 games and held opponents to .114 hitting.

SUNDAY SALVAGE

- Mizzou bounced back in the finale at Kentucky to take a 5-3 win leaving the weekend.
- Cameron Swanger delivered the big blow for the Tigers, a pinch-hit, three-run homer in the top of the eighth to give Mizzou a 4-3 lead.
- Konnor Ash, making his first appearance of the season, picked up the win with a scoreless inning of work. Ash struck out one in a 14-pitch frame.
- Jacob Kush went 1.2 IP for the hold and Lukas Veinbergs induced a soft grounder to second to earn the save.
- Collectively, the Mizzou bullpen allowed just one hit in 5.1 scoreless innings.

ASH IS BACK

- Senior RHP Konnor Ash was slated for the starting rotation before a preseason injury held the veteran out of the first 19 games of the year.
- Ash made his 2021 debut in the Sunday finale at Kentucky, working a scoreless inning in relief and striking out a batter to earn the win out of the bullpen.
- Mizzou's most experienced arm on the staff, Ash has worked 91 innings in his career. He was 2-0 in the shortened 2020 season as a starter, working to a 4.15 ERA in four trips to the bump.

HISE MOVES TO THE ROTATION

- It was only a matter of time before freshman RHP Zach Hise took the hill as a Mizzou starter. After beginning his career in the backend of the bullpen and earning two saves early in the season, Hise joined the rotation in the final weekend of non-conference action.
- As a starter, Hise has worked 12.2 IP while allowing 12 hits. He's surrendered six runs to post a 4.26 ERA and has struck out 11.
- Hise is the second freshman in as many seasons to earn a spot in the starting rotation, joining ace Spencer Miles who made two starts in 2020.

SHUTOUT SPECTACULAR

- Mizzou opened the last weekend of non-conference play with its best pitching performance of the season. Behind ace Spencer Miles, the Tigers held Illinois State to just two base runners on Friday night.
- Miles led the pitchers' duel with seven sparkling innings of two-hit baseball. The outing was a career long for the sophomore, who added six strikeouts on the night.
- Junior Jacob Kush picked up the win in relief, working 1.1 perfect innings with a pair of strikeouts. Kush was the beneficiary of a seven run ninth inning for the Tigers.
- Sophomore Shane Wilhelm put the cap on the night, recording the final two outs in his first outing of the season.
- The Mizzou staff did not allow a baserunner after the third inning, retiring the last 19 Redbirds they faced.

BULLPEN KUSH(ION)

- Junior Jacob Kush is establishing himself as a trusted option out of the Tiger bullpen in his first campaign in Columbia. The JUCO product has worked 7.2 IP in relief and allowed three earned runs.
- Each of Kush's last two outings, against Oklahoma and Illinois State, have been scoreless.
- Kush worked a perfect 1.1 IP on Friday night at Illinois State to earn his first win at Mizzou. He finished the outing with back-to-back strikeouts, part of a stretch of 19-straight retired by Mizzou pitchers in the win.

Mizzou Baseball head coach Steve Bieser enters his fifth season at the helm of the program. In his first three years in Mid-Missouri (2017-19), Bieser's 104 wins were the most-ever by any Mizzou Baseball coach in his first three campaigns (Gene McArtor: 91 wins (1974-76) // Tim Jamieson: 89 wins (1995-97). Additionally, his 104 victories marked the winningest three-year stretch by the Tigers since 2008-10 (103 victories). Bieser has produced 39 wins in Southeastern Conference play since taking over the program, marking Mizzou's top three-year stretch in league play since joining its new conference in 2013. Additionally, it stands as the Tigers' top three-year conference record since 2007-09.

In four seasons thus far at Mizzou, Bieser has helped guide 17 players to the MLB Draft (one - 2020, five - 2019, six - 2018, five - 2017). In 2020, RHP Ian Bedell was selected in the fourth round (122nd overall - St. Louis Cardinals), becoming the 11th Mizzou pitcher to be selected in the first five rounds. In 2019, OF Kameron Misner (35th overall - Miami Marlins) and LHP TJ Sikkema (38th overall - New York Yankees) became Mizzou's eighth and ninth all-time first round selections. Misner became only the Tigers' second-ever position player to garner first round accolades, joining C Steve Patchin in 1971. Sikkema became the first Tiger hurler to be selected in the first round since RHP Tanner Houck did so in 2017. In 2018, LHP Michael Plassmeyer was selected in the fourth round (118th overall - Seattle Mariners), marking the third-highest drafted lefty hurler in program history.

Prior to the 2020 campaign being canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic, Mizzou was off to a scorching start after the calendar turned to March. The team was set to go into the first weekend SEC play at Alabama riding a seven-game winning streak beginning with a win over former Big 12-foe Texas in the final game of the Shriners Hospitals for Children College Classic in Houston, Texas. The tournament at Minute Maid Park was highlighted by a walkoff extra-inning victory over No. 22 Oklahoma.

During the 2019 campaign, Mizzou produced five series victories in SEC play, including an impressive 4-1 mark at Taylor Stadium. Two of those series triumphs in Mid-Missouri occurred against nationally ranked foes, highlighted by the program's first-ever series win versus LSU. The five SEC series victories were the most by a Mizzou squad since 2015.

Following a three-game SEC series sweep vs. South Carolina (April 26-28, 2019), Bieser earned his 100th career win at the helm of Mizzou. He produced victory No. 100 in his 161st game in Columbia, becoming the second-fastest head coach in program history to reach 100 wins. He trailed only John "Hi" Simmons, who produced win No. 100 in his 139th career game at Mizzou.

Bieser was named Mizzou's 14th head coach and just the fourth since 1937 on June 30, 2016. Bieser came to Mizzou after an extremely successful career at Southeast Missouri, where he became the only coach ever to win three consecutive Ohio Valley Conference championships and guided the Redhawks to a 2016 NCAA Regional appearance, their first NCAA bid since 2002.

A two-time OVC Coach of the Year, Bieser won 35 or more games in each of his last three seasons at Southeast Missouri, a feat that had been accomplished just once before he took over the program in 2013. Bieser turned in a .587 winning percentage in his time with the Redhawks, marking the best total among any coach in program history.

Bieser turned in a banner year in 2016, as he earned his 100th career victory and opened OVC play with a perfect 12-0 record, the best start in program history. The season culminated in a regular season OVC championship, an OVC Tournament title and the school's first NCAA Regional since 2002, qualifying for the Starkville Regional at SEC champion Mississippi State.

After a successful playing career at Southeast Missouri, Bieser was drafted in the 32nd round of the 1989 MLB Draft by the Philadelphia Phillies. He played 13 years as a professional with nine of those years coming at Triple-A or higher. He made his Major League debut on April 1, 1997, with the New York Mets and played 60 career MLB games between the Mets and the Pittsburgh Pirates, compiling a .250 career average and a .351 career on-base percentage. Bieser made his Major League debut as a catcher, but his versatility led him to play a variety of positions over his career. He closed out his professional career with the Memphis Redbirds (St. Louis Cardinals Triple-A affiliate), where he guided the team to a Triple-A World Series in 2000. He played every position on the field during his professional career.

Bieser, a native of Saint Genevieve, Missouri, went to Southeast Missouri after a very successful tenure as head coach at St. John Vianney High School in Kirkwood, Missouri. In seven seasons leading the Griffins, his team won two state championships in 2004 and 2006, as he compiled a career record of 137-51 (.729).

Bieser and his wife, Diahann, have a son Cole and three daughters, Whitley, Briley and Carley.
