TIGERS FACE STIFF ROAD TEST

The Missouri Tigers (1-0), fresh off a hardfought 17-6 season-opening win over defending MAC champion Miami (Ohio), turn their sights to the desert, where they'll head to Tempe, Ariz. to take on upstart Arizona State (1-0). The game will be played on Friday evening in Tempe, with kickoff for the ESPN national telecast set for 9:30 p.m. (central time).

Mizzou claimed a 17-6 win last Saturday, despite playing without the services of four injured starters, and two more who left with in-game injuries by the midway point of the third quarter.

The Tiger defense led the way by allowing just 6 points and 270 yards of offense to Miami, with the only score permitted coming after the RedHawks took over on the Tiger 14-yardline following an interception. Mizzou's offense, under the direction of first-time starting QB James Franklin, drove 76 yards for a TD (a Franklin 5-yd. run) on its second possession of the game, and gave MU a 10-0 halftime lead. Miami's defense held the Tigers in check much of the game, but Franklin answered Miami's only score with a TD pass of his own on the first play of the 4th quarter to account for the final score, and Mizzou was never seriously threatened the rest of the way, thanks to its stellar defense.

Mizzou will have its hands full with Arizona State, under the direction of 5th-year coach Dennis Erickson, who won national titles in 1989 and 1991 while at Miami, Fla. The Sun Devils have been picked to finish 2nd in the new Pac-12 Conference South Division, and they're coming off a dominating 48-14 home win last Thursday against UC-Davis.

In that game, the Sun Devils bolted to a 24-0 halftime lead that they extended to 41-0 by the end of the 3rd quarter before UC-Davis managed to get on the scoreboard with a pair of 4th-quarter TD runs. ASU rolled up 517 yards of offense, including a nice balance of 300 passing yards and 217 rushing yards, while its defense held UC-Davis to just 243 yards on the night.

TEMPE HAS A FAMILIAR FEEL FOR TIGERS

As odd as it seems to say, Missouri might not feel so out of place this Friday night when they step on Frank Kush Field at Sun Devil Stadium — and that's not a knock at the atmosphere at ASU. First off, Mizzou has sold out of its ticket allotment of over 1,500 seats and expects even more Tiger fans in the stands, thanks to an active and sizeable alumni base in the greater Phoenix area.

More to the point, this will mark the second time in Mizzou's last three games that the Tigers will have played at Sun Devil Stadium. You only have to go back to Dec. 28th of last season, when Mizzou played there against Iowa in the 2010 Insight Bowl.

Mizzou will try for a better outcome this time around, as the Tigers had a late lead erased by a Hawkeye 72-yard interception return for a touchdown in the final six minutes of the game. That big turnaround provided the winning points for Iowa in its exciting 27-24 win over MU, but it didn't put a damper on what was an outstanding 10-win season in 2010.

MIZZOU HAS STRING OF 22-STRAIGHT NON-CONFERENCE REG. SEASON WINS

While conference play is always the most important part of the season, getting to league play in good shape is also a pretty big deal.

Gary Pinkel's Tigers have done a masterful job of navigating the non-conference season over the previous five seasons, and after Saturday's season-opening 17-6 win over Miami (Ohio), Mizzou carries a string of 22-consecutive non-conference wins during the regular season into Friday's game at Arizona State. The last time Mizzou dropped a pre-Big 12 game was back in 2005 (New Mexico).

TIGERS TAKE CARE OF BUSINESS WITH 17-6 WIN OVER MIAMI (OHIO)

Some random notes from Mizzou's 17-6 win to open the 2011 season...

- — Mizzou received a stiff test last Saturday, but came out on top against the defending MAC champion Miami (Ohio) RedHawks, getting a strong defensive effort to go with outstanding special teams play and timely offense to give MU a 17-6 win. The Tigers were without the services of four players who were projected as starters going into fall camp, due to injuries, and they lost two other starters due to in-game injuries midway through the third quarter. Unavailable for the Miami game were projected starters Elvis Fisher (LT), Jerrell Jackson (WR - hamstring) and Travis Ruth (C - achilles) on offense, and Kip Edwards (CB - hamstring) on defense. Leaving Saturday's game early due to injuries were starters Jacques Smith (DE - elbow) and Will Ebner (LB - ankle). Fisher was lost for the entire 2011 in the second week of fall camp with a ruptured patellar tendon in his left leg, while the others will get status updates Monday from Coach Gary Pinkel...

- — Despite missing all of those standouts, the Tigers still took care of business in workmanlike fashion on Saturday as they took a 7-0 lead on their second possession of the game, and led the entire game from there. Mizzou held a 10-0 lead at halftime, and the Tiger defense allowed its only score in the third quarter when Miami started a possession on the Mizzou 14-yardline after an interception. The offense rebounded with a touchdown drive late in the third quarter/early in the fourth quarter to put the game away...

- — Mizzou's defense, which led the Big 12 and ranked 6th nationally in fewest points allowed in 2010 (16.08 ppg), was at it again on Saturday, allowing only six points to the RedHawks, on the aforementioned short field touchdown possession. The Tiger defense forced three 3-and-out possessions, and buckled down when Miami threatened its most throughout the game — CB E.J. Gaines intercepted a ball in his own endzone to thwart a big scoring threat just before halftime; the defense held and forced a 41-yard FG attempt that was missed on Miami's game-opening drive; and a sack/fumble recovered by Mizzou closed out the RedHawks' last possession of the game near midfield...

TOP TIGER PERFORMERS

Here's a look at the top performers from Saturday's 17-6 win over Miami (Ohio)...

DEFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK — DOMINIQUE HAMILTON — DT, Sr., 6-5, 305, El Paso, Texas

- — Hamilton, playing in his first game since breaking his ankle in game #7 last season again Oklahoma, had a very successful 2011 debut, as he tied a career-high with 8 tackles and he also recovered a fumble in Mizzou's 17-6 win over Miami (Ohio)...

- — Hamilton's 8 tackles were second-best on the Tiger squad. His fumble recovery came late in the fourth quarter and effectively iced the game...

- — His play was a major factor in the Tiger defense holding Miami to just 76 yards rushing and 270 yards of offense and just six points...

OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE WEEK — JAMES FRANKLIN — QB, So., 6-2, 225, Corinth, Texas

- — Making his first career start, Franklin accounted for 201 yards of total offense and both of Mizzou's touchdowns in a 17-6 win over Miami (Ohio)...

- — Franklin engineered the second possession of the day and marched the Tigers 76 yards downfield for a touchdown and a 7-0 lead, as he scored on a 5-yard keeper with 4:23 left in the 1st quarter. After Miami closed to within 10-6 midway through the 3rd period, Franklin struck back with a 10-yard scoring strike to WR Marcus Lucas to give the Tigers some breathing room on the first play of the 4th quarter...

- — Franklin ended the day completing 17-of-26 passes for 129 yards and 1 TD, with 1 INT (rating of 112.06). He also led Mizzou in rushing with a career-high 72 yards (on 14 carries) and the rushing TD. His average per completion went up in the 2nd half, to 10.4 yds. (7 comp., 73 yds., 1 TD) after averaging 5.6 yds. per completion in the 1st half (10 comp., 56 yards)...

SPECIAL TEAMS PLAYER OF THE WEEK — TREY BARROW — P, Jr., 6-1, 195, Moberly, Mo.

• — In his first start as punter, Barrow was lights out, and played a huge role in helping Mizzou claim a 17-6 season-opening win over Miami. Barrow averaged a solid 44.7 yards per punt on 7 tries, and he pinned the RedHawks inside their 10-yardline three times on the day...

• — Barrow's first punt of the day was a 50-yarder that was within inches of being downed inside the 1-yardline, but officials ruled the ball touched the plane before being downed, and they even went to video review to confirm the call. Later, he did get a ball downed at the 1-yardline, at the 8-yardline and at the 9-yardline, in addition to booming a 57-yarder earlier in the day...

OTHER INDIVIDUAL NOTES

• — Seven Tigers made their first career starts against Miami: Justin Britt (LT), James Franklin (QB) Marcus Lucas (WR) and Jack Meiners (LG) on offense, with E.J. Gaines (CB), Trey Hobson (CB) and Matt White (FS) joining them as first-time starters on defense...

• — Sophomore LB Andrew Wilson led the Tigers with 10 tackles on the day, taking after his father Jay, who was a standout LB for the Tigers from 1980-83 who won All-Big Eight honors in 1983 and left holding the MU career tackles record at the time, with 323...

• — Sophomore CB E.J. Gaines made one of the biggest plays of the day for MU's defense, when he slid off sideline coverage to snag an interception in the endzone just before halftime to thwart a potential scoring drive by Miami. It was the first career interception for Gaines, who also was making his first career start after playing in 13 games as a true freshman a year ago. Gaines was also credited with 5 tackles against Miami...

• — Sophomore DE Brayden Burnett got loose for his first career QB sack, and it was a dandy, as he got a sack and strip to end Miami's final possession of the game. Burnett stripped the ball away from QB Zac Dysert with a tomahawk move near midfield, and teammate Dominique Hamilton fell on the ball at the RedHawk 46 to close the possession...

• — Junior WR T.J. Moe led Mizzou with 6 receptions for 56 yards, ran the ball twice for 14 yards, and also took over punt return duties for the first time. He averaged 15.0 yards on two punt returns, and that is good enough to lead the Big 12 Conference and rank 14th nationally through Saturday's games...

MIZZOU-ARIZONA STATE SERIES HISTORY

Mizzou and Arizona State will take the field for the sixth time when they square off Friday night in Tempe, Ariz., and the Tigers hold a slim 3-2 edge in the previous five matchups.

Friday will mark the first game between the two programs since 1990, when MU upset the 21st-ranked Sun Devils by a 30-9 score in Columbia. That avenged a 19-3 loss in Tempe in the year before, which followed consecutive wins by Mizzou in Tempe in 1977 (15-0) and in Columbia in 1974 (9-0).

The first-ever meeting between the two schools was a wild affair in the 1972 Fiesta Bowl, won in 49-35 fashion by Arizona State in its home stadium. In what was the 2nd edition of the fledgling bowl game, there was 1,129 yards of total offense, including a massive 718 for ASU (MU had 411 yards).

Mizzou Head Coach Gary Pinkel has never faced Arizona State as the head man, but he's no stranger to the Sun Devils overall, as he went 5-5 against ASU as an assistant coach at Washington from 1979-90. Six of those games came at Sun Devil Stadium, where Pinkel's teams went 3-3.

Arizona State Head Coach Dennis Erickson has never faced a Gary Pinkel-led team, but he has coached against Missouri once previously, when as head coach at Miami, Fla., his 2nd-ranked Hurricanes claimed a 38-7 win in Columbia over Mizzou.

MIZZOU VS. THE PAC-12: FRIDAY MARKS A RARE REGULAR SEASON MEETING

Mizzou enters Friday's game at Arizona State with an alltime record of 54-45-5 against teams currently comprising the Pac-12 Conference. That includes a 3-2 record alltime against Arizona State. However, 76 of the 105 games have come against Colorado, who up until 2011 was a fellow conference member with Mizzou. If you back out the record against Colorado, Mizzou stands 12-14-2 alltime against the remainder of the Pac-12 Conference, with Washington being the only school it hasn't ever matched up against.

The last time (and only time under Gary Pinkel) that Mizzou has faced a non-Colorado Pac-12 team came in the 2006 Sun Bowl, when Oregon State scored a TD and game-winning 2-point conversion with :23 seconds left to post a thrilling 39-38 comeback win. Before that, you have to go all the way back to the 1990 season for the last time Mizzou has faced a Pac-12 team in the regular season — and that came against Arizona State. That season, Mizzou pulled off a 30-9 upset win in Columbia over the 21st-ranked Sun Devils under Head Coach Bob Stull. That win improved Mizzou to 2-2 and led into the very next week, when Mizzou lost the infamous 5th-down game to Colorado in Columbia, 33-31, when the Buffs scored the game winner with no time left on what turned out to be 5th down. Apologies to Colorado SID extraordinaire David Plati, who hates when we mention that game!

MIZZOU HAS 6TH-MOST WINS IN THE NATION SINCE 2007

There's no question that Head Coach Gary Pinkel and his Mizzou Football program has elevated itself to among the nation's elite. With its 10-win season in 2010, MU won its 40th game since 2007, good for an average of 10 per year during the four-year stretch.

As it stands through one game of the 2011 season, MU's 41 wins since 2007 ranks as 6th-most in the nation (among BCS automatic qualifying conferences). Here's a look at the win totals among the nation's best during that time frame:

MOST WINS IN THE NATION, 2007-PRESENT (BCS AQ Conferences Only)

QUICK HITTERS

Some random facts and figures related to top performers for Mizzou:

- Mizzou's offense features one of the top tight ends in the nation, in senior Michael Egnew. After catching a combined total of 7 passes for 47 yards in his first two years (2008-09), Egnew burst onto the national scene in 2010, leading all of the nation's tight ends with 90 receptions, which went for 762 yards and 5 TDs. The 2010 Mackey Finalist was held in check in the 2011 opener against Miami, but he did manage 2 catches for 12 yards against Miami. His next catch will be the 100th of his career (99 receptions, 821 yards, 5 TDs in his career)...

• — Mizzou enjoys the luxury of returning one of the most accurate and dependable kickers in the nation, as senior PK Grant Ressel is back for a third year handling those pressure-packed duties. Since taking over in 2009, Ressel has lined up to try 135 kicks overall. He's made 130 of them, for an eye-popping success rate of 96.3% (44-of-47 FGs, 86-of-88 PATs). Ressel made both PATs Saturday vs. Miami, and made his only FG attempt, from 38 yards. He also handled kickoff duties last week, and managed 2 touchbacks in 4 attempts. Accordingly, Ressel was named in July to the Lou Groza Pre-Season Watch List...

• — Mizzou's defense, which led the Big 12 Conference and ranked 6th nationally in scoring defense in 2010 (16.08 pts. allowed per game — the lowest average allowed by any MU defense since 1981, when Warren Powers' defense allowed just 13.3 ppg), finished the 2010 season ranked 2nd nationally in red zone defense. In 2010, Tiger opponents came away with points only 57.1% of the time they reached the MU 20-yardline or better (35 chances, 20 scores). Last Saturday against Miami, the Tiger defense showed it might be up to more of those tricks, as it allowed the RedHawks to score only once in a pair of red zone chances. E.J. Gaines intercepted a pass in the MU endzone just before halftime to thwart one scoring threat, and the only other red zone score resulted in a Miami touchdown run after they took over on the MU 14-yardline after an interception...

• — Mizzou's offensive line came into the 2011 season with 4-of-5 starters returning from 2010, with a combined 104 career starts under their collective belts. Unfortunately, the injury bug reared its ugly head during camp, and while three of those returning four starters saw the field against Miami in the 2011 opener, only two of them were at the position they were slated for. All-star LT Elvis Fisher, slated for his 4th year as a starter, was lost for the season in the 2nd week of fall camp with a ruptured patellar tendon in his left knee. Later in camp, junior C Travis Ruth went down with a strained achilles tendon, and he was unable to play last week. That prompted senior LG Jayson Palmgren to slide over to center, where he played last week, while RG Austin Wuebbs and RT Dan Hoch were the only linemen to play their natural spot. Making their first career starts last Saturday were sophomore Justin Britt (LT) and Jack Meiners (LG)...

FIVE 1ST-ROUND NFL PICKS RANKS 2ND-BEST IN NATION FOR MIZZOU

Mizzou's success on the field has definitely translated to the next level, as Tiger coaches have done an outstanding job of developing talent for the NFL. In the past three NFL Drafts (2009-11), five Tigers have been selected in the first round, a figure which is second-most in the nation and trails only Alabama (seven).

This past April, a pair of Tiger standouts were selected in the first round of the 2011 NFL Draft, as sophomore DE Aldon Smith (Raytown, Mo.) and junior QB Blaine Gabbert (Ballwin, Mo.) were taken seventh and 10th overall, by the San Francisco 49ers and the Jacksonville Jaguars, respectively. That marked the first time in Mizzou history that two Tigers have gone in the top 10 in the same draft. Prior to 2011, Mizzou had a total of five top-10 draft picks in school history.

Previously, WR Jeremy Maclin (No. 19 to Philadelphia in 2009) became the first Tiger to play under Gary Pinkel to become a first-round pick. He was joined in that same draft by DL Ziggy Hood (No. 32 to Pittsburgh) to mark the first time since 1977 that two Tigers went in the first round in the same draft. That feat was followed in 2010 when LB Sean Weatherspoon became the third first-rounder in two years (No. 19 to Atlanta).

Twenty-two Tigers who played under Pinkel have now been drafted thus far, including the three taken in 2011 (LB Andrew Gachkar was a 7th-round pick by San Diego).

The recent stretch of five first-rounders in three years is unprecedented in Mizzou history. The most comparable stretch came from 1977-81, when four Tigers were taken in the first round during that five-year period. Mizzou also had four first-round picks during an earlier six-year stretch, from 1966-71.

Here's a look at the schools with the most first-round NFL Draft picks over the last three years (2009-11)...

MIZZOU FOOTBALL GAME NOTES

PINKEL NABS CAREER WIN #150 AGAINST KANSAS

Mizzou Head Coach Gary Pinkel is in his 11th season at MU (21st overall as a head coach) and touts a career record of 151-86-3 (63.5%).

Pinkel, who has led MU to a combined record of 56-24 (70.0%) over the past 6+ seasons, and to bowl games in 2003, 2005, 2006, 2007, 2008, 2009 and 2010, has an 11-year record in Columbia of 78-49 (61.4%). Dating back to the 2005 Independence Bowl win over Steve Spurrier and South Carolina, Pinkel has gone 50-19 in his last 69 games overall (72.5%). MU's win in the 2008 opener against Illinois gave Pinkel his 50th MU win, and he now ranks 3rd on the coaching wins list at MU, with 78. The win over Kansas in 2010 was the 150th of his career.

Pinkel is in a select group of Mizzou coaches that includes College Football Hall of Famers Don Faurot and Dan Devine, as well as Warren Powers, to be the only coaches to have an MU record of above .500 (with at least one full season coached) dating all the way back to 1935.

MIZZOU COACHING WINS LEADERS

Coach	Wins	# Seasons (Years)	Record	Pct.	# Bowls
Don Faurot	101	19 (1935-42, 46-56)	101-79-10	.558	4
Dan Devine	93	13 (1958-70)	93-37-7	.704	6
Gary Pinkel	78	11 (2001-Present)	78-49	.614	7
Warren Powers	46	7 (1978-84)	46-33-3	.580	5

In 2007, Pinkel guided the Tigers from unranked in the pre-season to a team which won a school-record 12 games and a final ranking of #4 in the Associated Press Top-25. Mizzou ascended to #1 in the BCS rankings following the regular season, and stood just one half away from playing in the BCS National Championship Game (before Oklahoma pulled away from a halftime tie to win the Big 12 title game). For his efforts in 2007, Pinkel was a finalist for several national coach of the year awards, including the Robinson, Bryant and Munger awards. He was also named the National Coach of the Year by FieldTurf in 2007.

Mizzou's bowl appearance in 2010 meant that Pinkel has led MU to 7 bowl games overall, and that is the most bowl games by any MU coach.

Pinkel has directed Mizzou to 7 winning seasons (8-5 in 2003, 7-5 in 2005, 8-5 in 2006, 12-2 in 2007, 10-4 in 2008, 8-5 in 2009 and 10-3 in 2010), with those representing 7 of MU's 9 winning campaigns dating back to the 1983 season.

The Big 12 North Division titles won by Mizzou in 2007, 2008 and 2010 represent the only football conference titles of any kind Mizzou has won since 1969 — the last time it claimed a share of the old Big Eight Conference crown. In April of 2011, Pinkel agreed to a two-year contract extension, meaning he'll patrol the Tiger sidelines through the 2017 season.

MIZZOU HAS BEEN AMONG THE BIG 12'S BEST OF LATE

With three division titles in the last four seasons (2007, 2008, 2010), Mizzou has been among the very best in the stout Big 12 Conference. A look at the past four years of conference games also shows that the Tigers have won the 2nd-most games in the league, with 22.

MIZZOU FOOTBALL GAME NOTES

THE GRADUATE(S)

•After the senior classes from 2008-2010 have seen 53-of-57 earn their degrees, the current Mizzou senior class is doing outstandingly well in regards to its graduation timetable, as well. Consider the following facts:

Eight current Tigers have already earned their degrees:

- Luke Lambert (December, 2010)
- De'Vion Moore (December, 2010)
- Jimmy Costello (May, 2011)
- Grant Ressel (May, 2011)
- Austin Wuebbels (May, 2011)
- Terry Dennis (August, 2011)
- Elvis Fisher (August, 2011)
- Trey Hobson (August, 2011)

Ten Tigers are scheduled to graduate in December:

- Brendan Donaldson
- Michael Egnew
- Brandon Gerau
- Dominique Hamilton
- Dan Hoch
- Kenji Jackson
- Andrew Jones
- Wes Kemp
- Terrell Resonno
- Jacques Smith

The final nine seniors will graduate in May:

- John Birdwell
- Beau Brinkley
- Quinn Brown
- Will Ebner
- Jerrell Jackson
- Marvin Norman
- Tony Randolph
- Jayson Palmgren
- Corey Sudhoff

MIZZOU ALSO TOPS IN THE CLASSROOM IN THE BIG 12

The 2010 season was quite a year for the Missouri Tiger Football program, as Mizzou claimed its third Big 12 Conference North Division title in the last four years, thanks to the school's third 10-win season in four seasons.

In the off-season, a pair of Tiger standouts became top-10 NFL Draft picks, when sophomore DE Aldon Smith was taken seventh overall by the San Francisco 49ers, and he was followed shortly by junior QB Blaine Gabbert, who was the number 10 pick by the Jacksonville Jaguars.

The latest bit of great news came down from the NCAA in May, as Mizzou's Football team won a league championship in the classroom, as the Tigers' team Academic Progress Rate of 967 was tops in the Big 12 Conference.

Thirteen Tiger football players recently earned their degrees from Mizzou, including five (Terry Dennis, Elvis Fisher, Trey Hobson, Grant Ressel and Austin Wuebbels) who will take part in 2011 as graduate students.

The Big 12 Football APR results are as follows:

1. Mizzou - 967
2. Oklahoma - 960
3. Nebraska - 958
4. Kansas - 952
5. Baylor - 951
6. Texas Tech - 944
7. Oklahoma State - 942
8. Texas - 941
9. Texas A&M - 940
9. Kansas State - 940
11. Iowa State - 932
12. Colorado - 929

MIZZOU-ARIZONA STATE SERIES RECAPS

December 23, 1972

Arizona State 49, Missouri 35

In the 2nd Annual Fiesta Bowl the Sun Devils rolled up 718 yards of offense including 452 on the ground in a 49-35 win over Missouri. Woody Green was the game's MVP, rushing for 202 yards and four touchdowns and Brent McClanahan added 171 yards and one TD. The Sun Devils had built a 28-7 halftime lead with the last score coming on the first of two touchdown passes from Danny White to Randy Beverly 41 seconds before halftime from 34 yards. The Tigers would cut the lead to 28-21 in the third quarter on two John Cherry to Chuck Link touchdown passes. The first from 48 yards on the first play after Mink intercepted a Danny White pass. The Sun Devils then drove 80 yards to score on a Green run but Fink returned the ensuing kickoff 101 yards for a touchdown to cut the lead to 35-28. ASU then would score two touchdowns in 1:14 wrapped around a Cherry interception to put the game away. The first came on a 53-yard White to Beverly bomb. Tommy Reamon, who finished with 155 yards rushing, closed out the scoring on a 31-yard touchdown run.

September 28, 1974

Missouri 9, Arizona State 0

The Tigers used to five turnovers to hand Arizona State its' first shutout in 97 games, 9-0. The Tigers touchdown came after Don Bruenig intercepted a pass by Tiger QB Ray Smith on the last play of the first quarter but fumbled and it was recovered by Mark Miller at the ASU 36. The score came four plays later on an 18 yard Smith to Miller pass after Miller had gotten it closer on an 18-yard reverse. The Tigers added a field goal on the first play of the fourth quarter to make it 9-0. The score was set up by a 27-yard punt return by Tony Gillick to the ASU 38. The Tigers running game churned out 200 yards led by Ray Bybee (83) and Tony Galbreath (57). The Tigers intercepted four passes including Rob Fitzgerald with 4:04 left in the game and Gillick got his second interception with 48 seconds left to seal the game. The game featured muddy conditions left by heavy pre-game rains before a Missouri homecoming crowd of 59,770.

October 1, 1977

Missouri 15, Arizona State 0

The Tigers picked up their first win of the season picking off five Arizona State passes and recovering three fumbles in a 15-0 win. After Dennis Sproul was intercepted in the end zone with 3:18 left in the first quarter by Russ Calabrese, the Tigers drove 80 yards for the touchdown, capped on 33-yard Phil Bradley to Joe Stewart pass to make it 6-0 for the only score in the half. The Tigers drove 80 yards again to start the second half with Bradley going over from the one-yard-line. The key play of the drive was a fake punt pass for 10 yards from Monty Montgomery to Earl Gant from the ASU 43 on 4th-and-7. Gant also led the rushing attack with 115 yards. The Tigers tacked on a 35-yard field goal in the fourth quarter by Jeff Brockhaus set up by Steve Hamilton's 43-yard interception return. Calabrese finished with two interceptions and a fumble recovery.

MIZZOU FOOTBALL GAME NOTES

September 30, 1989

Arizona State 19, Missouri 3

The Sun Devils got two fourth quarter touchdown runs (4,1) from Jeff Simoneau to break open a 5-3 game in a 19-3 win. (Simoneau would later transfer to Kansas State and start on the defensive line) ASU finished with 252 yards rushing led by David Winsley 134 yards. The Tigers actually led at half 3-2, preserved by Adrian Jones interception in the end zone of Paul Justin, 1:24 before halftime. The Tigers could only manage 193 yards of total offense.

September 29, 1990

Missouri 30, Arizona State 9

The Tigers used the Arizona connection of Kent Kiefer-to-Damon Mays to upset #21 Arizona State 30-9. Kiefer connected with Mays for two touchdown passes, the second a 61-yard flea-flicker, 3:25 apart in the second quarter to put them up 23-6 10:17 before halftime. Missouri took the opening drive 75 yards, scoring on the first of Mike Jones' two touchdown runs. The Missouri defense recorded five sacks, two fumble recoveries, intercepted two passes and knocked QB Paul Justin out of the game on a sack and fumble. The defense was keyed by freshmen Rick Lyle (sack, fumble recovery) and George Hunt (2 sacks, 3 tackles for loss). Maurice Benson returned an interception 75 yards and had 51 yards in punt returns, including a 32-yarder that set up a Jeff Jacke field goal in the first quarter.

2011 GAME RECAPS

GAME #1 • #21 MIZZOU 17, MIAMI (OHIO) 6

SEPT. 3, 2011 • FAUROT FIELD/MEMORIAL STADIUM • COLUMBIA, MO. • (58,313)

COLUMBIA, Mo. (AP) - James Franklin's gut reaction: He flunked his first career start.

"Umm, I probably failed this test today," Franklin said after No. 21 Missouri's tougher than expected 17-6 victory over stubborn Miami, Ohio. "I'd say, eh, around a D, maybe."

As the sophomore quarterback kept talking, he eased up on himself. Although his interception led to Miami of Ohio's lone score, he did run for one score and passed for the clinching touchdown.

"I just think a win's a win and it's something I have to learn to enjoy," Franklin said. "There's things that I'm worried about and things that I'm focused on that I didn't do so well. I'll give it a C-minus, being positive."

Franklin was 17 for 26 for 129 yards. That was often a half-game under the three quarterbacks who preceded him at Missouri - Blaine Gabbert, Chase Daniel and Brad Smith - all of whom are in the NFL. Coach Gary Pinkel noted that Franklin made some nice throws in the second half, and said there was plenty of room for improvement.

"You grow from adversity," Pinkel said. "You don't like going through it, but you grow from it."

E.J. Gaines had an end zone interception for the Tigers, who whipped the RedHawks by 38 points in their final pre-Big 12 tuneup last season but had their struggles on both sides of the ball in 90-degree heat. Three of their first four possessions ended quickly with punts for an offense that averaged 30 points last season, and Miami moved the ball with some success.

Gaines' pickoff halted a 67-yard drive near the end of the first half with Missouri up 10-0.

"The momentum shift stuns you," first-year Miami coach Don Treadwell said.

"Kind of like a boxer, you get that uppercut but you don't go down."

Missouri hurt itself with 81 yards on nine penalties, and has a short week ahead with the next game Friday night at Arizona State.

Miami recovered from a 51-13 spanking at Missouri last fall to win the Mid-American Conference, and entered the opener with a six-game winning streak. The RedHawks gave Missouri a scare, trailing 10-6 after Erik Finklea's 10-yard run late in the third quarter.

Missouri, which had been around a 20-point favorite, answered on the first play of the fourth quarter. Marcus Lucas' 10-yard catch was his first college touchdown and in his first start as the fill-in for injured Jerrell Jackson.

Dayonne Nunley's interception and 5-yard return of Franklin's overthrown pass gave Miami possession at the Missouri 19 and set up Finklea's score.

Down by 11, Miami ran out of downs at the Missouri 30 midway through the fourth quarter. Dominique Hamilton recovered quarterback Dysert's fumble with 1:49 left.

Two Missouri defensive players left with injuries. Linebacker Will Ebner sustained a high left ankle sprain in the first quarter, which could sideline him for a month, and end Jacques Smith has a dislocated left elbow that'll keep him out for at least one game.

Franklin's 5-yard run up the middle capped a 76-yard drive late in the first quarter.

The RedHawks struggled on the kicking game, with Mason Krysinski wide left on a 41-yard field goal attempt in the first half and the extra point kick partially blocked after Finklea's score. It was the first game for Krysinski, a sophomore.
