#11 Missouri (5-1, 1-1 Big 12) at The Southern Scuffle

McKenzie Arena • Chattanooga, Tenn. • Jan. 1-2, 2012 • All Day

Live Results: www.mutigers.com

After a quick two week break for the holidays, the No. 11 Missouri wrestling team looks to continue their hot streak as they head to their first major tournament of the season. The Tigers, who have won four consecutive dual matches by a total of 63 points, will join 21 other squads at the 2012 Southern Scuffle, hosted by the University of Tennessee-Chattanooga. Action will take place on Sunday, Jan. 1 and Monday, Jan. 2.

Joining the Tigers at the tournament will be seven other teams ranked in the latest NWCA Top 25 poll, including No. 3 Minnesota, No. 4 Cornell, No. 5 Penn State, No. 15 Virginia Tech, No. 16 Oregon State, No. 21 Virginia and No. 25 Hofstra. Last year, Cornell and Penn State tied for first place in the team standings at the Southern Scuffle.

Live results will be provided through trackwrestling.com, and fans can find a direct link to the results at mutigers.com. The official Mizzou Wrestling Twitter account, @MizzouWrestling, will also tweet results for those without computer access. ## A LOOK AT THE BRACKETS

Missouri will have 20 wrestlers competing across the 10 weight classes this weekend. Of those 20 grapplers, four Tigers earned the No. 2 seed in their respective class. Here's a look at who will be wrestling in what class, and what other ranked wrestlers make up those classes.

• 125: Missouri will have Boomer Boyd and Alan Waters at 125 pounds, with Waters earning the No. 2 seed in the class. Boyd is just one of six wrestlers at the weight to not earn a first round bye, so he will open up with a pigtail matchup against Daniel Gallagher of Chattanooga. Waters, the third ranked wrestler at 125 according to Intermat, will take on Corey Hodowanic of Minnesota in his first match. Other ranked wrestlers include No. 1 Zach Sanders (Minnesota), No. 7 Frank Perrelli (Cornell), No. 9 Matthew Snyder (Virginia), No. 12 Steve Bonanno (Hofstra) and No. 13 Nicholas Megaludis (Penn State).

• 133: Nathan McCormick grabbed the No. 2 seed at this weight, while Eric Wilson will also compete for Missouri at 133 pounds. Both wrestlers will have pigtail matches to open the tournament, with Wilson set to take on Cameron Throckmorton (North Carolina) and McCormick going up against Andrew Hammer of Ohio. No. 5 David Thorn (Minnesota) is the top seed, while No. 16 Garrett Drucker (Oregon State), No. 18 Aaron Kalil (Navy) and No. 20 Matthew Nelson (Virginia) are also in the field.

• 141: Brandon Wiest and Nicholas Hucce will compete in a field that features five of Intermat's top-20 wrestlers in the class. Both Tigers get byes into the round of 32, with Wiest set to face the winner of Luke Vaith (Hofstra) and Brent Jorge (Unattached). Hucce will take the winner of Undrakhb Khishignyam (The Citadel) and Seth Lange (Minnesota). The top two seeds in the weight class are No. 5 Mike Mangrum, who Wiest took to overtime back in November, and No. 14 Evan Henderson of North Carolina. Other ranked wrestlers include No. 10 Nick Dardanes (Minnesota), No. 15 Michael Nevinger (Cornell) and No. 19 Nick Nelson (Virginia).

• 149: Wrestling for Missouri will be No. 14 Kyle Bradley and Kellen Bounous, with Bradley coming in as the No. 2 overall seed at 149 pounds. Both grapplers open with pigtail matches, as Bounous is set to face Indiana's Taylor Walsh, while Bradley will face David Ivashchenko (The Citadel). Frank Molinaro of Penn State, the No. 1 ranked 149 pounder in the nation, earned the top seed, while No. 11 Dylan Ness (Minnesota), No. 18 Craig Eifert (Cornell) and No. 20 Scott Sakaguchi also join the field.

• 157: A pair of redshirt freshmen in Drake Houdashelt and Austin Lindsay will compete at 157 pounds for Missouri, with Houdashelt earning the No. 4 seed in the class. Both grapplers get byes into the round of 32. Houdashelt is scheduled to take on David Wesley of Virginia, while Lindsay will face No. 16 Roger Pena of Oregon State. Other top-20 grapplers include No. 1 and top-seeded Kyle Dake (Cornell) and Dylan Alton (Penn State), who is ranked 10th.

• 165: Mizzou will feature three wrestlers at 165 pounds, led by No. 12 Zach Toal, who picked up the fourth seed. Joining him will be Jordan Gagliano and Patrick Wright. All three Tigers earned byes into the round of 32. Toal is set to face Coleman Gracey (Army), while Gagliano will take on Nijel Jones (North Carolina). Wright's first match will be against Sheldon Brandenburg of Cleveland State. No. 1 David Taylor of Penn State highlights the weight as the top seed, while No. 3 Paul Gillespie (Hofstra), No. 10 Cody Yohn (Minnesota) and No. 20 Kyle Blevins are other top-20 wrestlers set to compete.

NOTES ON MISSOURI'S WRESTLERS

125: Alan Waters	Defeated No. 10 Ryak Finch by a 13-4 major decision in his last match; 9-0 on the year with all wins by bonus points.
125: Boomer Boyd	Currently 7-4 on the year; finished second at the Kaufman-Brand Open in early December.
133: Nathan McCormick	Five of his last six wins are by fall; beat RJ Hallman of ISU by a 9-5 decision last time out.
133: Eric Wilson	Currently leads all Tigers with 17 victories on the year. Has three top-four finishes in tournaments.
141: Brandon Wiest	Looks to snap a three-match losing streak; currently stands at 6-6 on the season.
141: Nicholas Hucke	Has an 8-2 record on the year, finishing in second and third in the two opens he's competed in.
149: Kyle Bradley	Has won eight straight matches after starting 0-3, with his last three wins coming by fall late in the match.
149: Kellen Bounous	Has three top-four finishes in opens this year and currently stands at 14-5.
157: Drake Houdashelt	Picked up a 13-3 major decision against ISU's Michael Moreno to improve to 9-2 on the season.
157: Austin Lindsay	Has placed in two of the three tournaments he's wrestled in this year and has a record of 12-4.
165: Zach Toal	Dropped his first match of the year against Iowa State, losing to No. 4 Andrew Sorenson.
165: Jordan Gagliano	Currently 10-4 on the season with two top-three finishes in opens.
165: Patrick Wright	Is 14-2 on the season, with losses coming to Chris McNeil of Oklahoma State and teammate Dorian Henderson.
174: Dorian Henderson	Fell to 8-2 on the season after dropping a 7-4 decision to then-No. 7 Chris Spangler of Iowa State.
174: Todd Porter	Has two third place finishes and a runner-up finish in his three opens; stands at 13-3 on the season.
174: Johnny Eblen	Placed in all three opens this year, highlighted by a second place finish at 184 pounds at the Kaufman-Brand Open.
174: Clarence Neely	Has three top-six finishes in tournaments this year, including a first place finish at the Lindenwood Open.
184: Mike Larson	Is 9-1 on the year with eight straight victories, including his last two by fall.
197: Brent Haynes	Scored a 15-0 technical fall win over Cole Shafer in Mizou's dual against Iowa State two weeks ago.
HWT: Devin Mellon	Defeated Matt Gibson of ISU, 3-2, to improve to 8-3 on the year.

• 174: Four Tiger grapplers will wrestle at 174 pounds, with senior Dorian Henderson, who ranks seventh overall, comes in as Mizzou's fourth No. 2 seed. Juniors Todd Porter and Clarence Neely, along with redshirt freshman Johnny Eblen, are also in the field. Porter's first match will come in the round of 32 and he'll take on Levi Clemons of host Chattanooga in his first match. Eblen is scheduled to face No. 17 Turtogto Luvsandorj (The Citadel) in his opening contest, while Neely will face the winner of Adrin Taylor (Old Dominion) and No. 11 Logan Storley (Minnesota). Henderson will be the only Tiger in the class to wrestle a pigtail match, as he prepares to face Stephen Doty (Virginia) in the opening round. No. 2 Ed Ruth (Penn State) earned the No. 1 seed, while No. 14 Nick Purdue (Ohio) and No. 15 Te Edwards (Old Dominion) join Henderson, Storley and Luvsandorj as top-20 wrestlers in the class.

• 184: No. 17 Mike Larson will be the lone Tiger in a class that features seven of Intermat's top-20 grapplers. His first match will be against Ohio's Ryan Garringer in the round of 32. No. 4 Stephen Bosak of Cornell is the top seed, while No. 8 Kevin Steinhaus (Minnesota), No. 5 Quentin Wright (Penn State) and No. 10 Austin Trotman (Appalachian) are the 2-3-4 seeds, respectively. Also set to compete are No. 11 Jonathan Fausey (Virginia) and No. 15 Luke Rebertus (Navy).

• 197: Junior Brent Haynes, ranked 19th in the country, will open the tournament in the round of 32 with a matchup against Virginia's Ryan Malo. Three of the top four wrestlers in this class will be competing this weekend, as No. 1 Cam Simaz (Cornell), No. 2 Sonny Yohn (Minnesota) and No. 4 Matt Powless (Indiana) come in as the top-three seeds. Other top-20 wrestlers include No. 11 Morgan McIntosh (Penn State) and No. 13 Taylor Meeks of Oregon State.

• HWT: At heavyweight, redshirt freshman Devin Mellon prepares for a round of 32 matchup against Andrew Delaney of The Citadel. Just four ranked wrestlers are set to compete at 285 pounds, but those four wrestlers are all ranked in the top-eight according to Intermat. Earning the top seed was No. 7 Anthony Nelson of Minnesota, while No. 4 Clayton Jack of Oregon State comes in as the No. 2 seed. The third and fourth seeds are No. 8 Cameron Wade (Penn State) and No. 5 Jeremy Johnson (Ohio), respectively.

LAST TIME AT THE SCUFFLE

This will be Missouri's first appearance at the Southern Scuffle since 2006, when the Tigers took first place in the team standings with 179.5 points, just edging out Minnesota and their 176.0 points. Mizzou had two individual champions in brothers Ben Askren (174) and Max Askren (197). Ben pinned his way to the championship, recording five first period falls on his way to being named Most Outstanding Wrestler of the tournament. Max pinned three of his opponents, including Ohio State's J.D. Bergman in the finals, and won by decision in his other two matches. Raymond Jordan placed second at 184 pounds, while Ashtin Primus (141) and Nick Marable (165) both came in third.

WHAT'S NEXT

Mizzou returns to dual action next week with a rematch against the Iowa State Cyclones, this time in Ames. Action gets underway on Sunday, Jan. 8 at 2 p.m. CT.

NO. 12 TIGERS BLAST CYCLONES, 31-10

Scoring bonus points has been the theme for the Tiger wrestling team as of late, and Sunday afternoon was no different. No. 12 Missouri (5-1, 1-1 Big 12) won seven of the 10 matches against Iowa State in front of 1,239 fans, scoring bonus points in five of those wins to pace their 31-10 victory.

Iowa State took the early lead with an upset win at 174 pounds, as No. 7 Chris Spangler defeated No. 3 Dorian Henderson by a 7-4 decision. Missouri bounced back, however, with five straight victories to go ahead 21-3. Mike Larson scored a first period fall at 184 pounds, while Brent Haynes won by technical fall, 15-0. Devin Mellon defeated Matt Gibson at heavyweight, 3-2, and then Alan Waters scored a 13-4 major decision over No. 10 Ryak Finch before Nathan McCormick won his match by a 9-3 decision.

Mizzou also got bonus point wins from Kyle Bradley at 149, who scored a fall over Joe Cozart with just one second left on the clock, and from Drake Houdashelt at 157, who won by a 13-3 major decision.

WATERS NAMED BIG 12 WRESTLER OF THE WEEK

Mizzou sophomore Alan Waters was named Big 12 Wrestler of the Week, as announced Monday afternoon by the league office. It's the first career weekly honor for Missouri's 125 pounder, and the first honoree for the Tigers since Todd Schavrien won last December. Waters went 5-0 at the Kaufman-Brand Open last Sunday, Dec. 4, with four of his matches coming via first period falls. His fifth win, coming in the championship bout, was won by technical fall.

On Friday against No. 20 Kent State, Waters opened the dual with a dominating 12-1 major decision victory over No. 2 Nic Bedelyon. Waters opened the scoring with a takedown midway through the first period, and tilted Bedelyon to the mat twice for a pair of three point nearfalls to take a commanding 8-0 lead. After a scoreless second period, Waters worked an escape and another takedown to go with riding time.

MIZZOU PINS THEIR WAY PAST KENT STATE, 34-12

The No. 12 Missouri Tigers (4-1) scored a huge victory over No. 20 Kent State (2-3) on Friday night, blasting the Golden Flashes by a 34-12 final. No. 5 Alan Waters kicked off the evening with a major decision over No. 2 Nic Bedelyon, while Nathan McCormick, Kyle Bradley, Dorian Henderson and Mike Larson each pinned their opponents. McCormick and Henderson both recorded their falls in the first period, while Bradley and Larson earned their falls with under a minute left in each of their contests. Zach Toal defeated his opponent by a 5-2 decision, while redshirt freshman Devin Mellon upset No. 15 Brendan Barlow by a 5-3 score to close out the evening.

The University of Missouri wrestling team sent 34 of their grapplers to the Maryville Kaufman-Brand Open in St. Louis on Sunday, with 25 of those wrestlers finishing in the top-six of their respective weight classes. Of the 25 placers for Missouri, nine of them took home first place titles.

Alan Waters (125), Nathan McCormick (133), Kyle Bradley (149), Drake Houdashelt (157), Zach Toal (165), Dorian Henderson (174), Mike Larson (184), Brent Haynes (197) and Devin Mellon (HWT) each finished in first in their respective weight classes. Taking runner-up honors were Boomer Boyd (125), Jordan Gagliano (165), Patrick Wright (174) and Johnny Eblen (184), while Eric Wilson (133), Nicholas Hucke (141), Austin Lindsay (157), Ty Prazma (165), Todd Porter (174) and Justin Heberlie (197).

Also placing for Mizzou were: Brandon Wiest (4th, 141), Kellen Bounous (4th, 149), Cody Johnston (4th, 174), Dustin Williams (6th, 174), Clarence Neely (4th, 184) and Jake Gloré (4th, HWT).

TIGERS BLAST NO. 25 STANFORD, 26-9

Four bonus point victories helped pace the No. 13 Missouri wrestling team's 26-9 win over No. 25 Stanford, giving the team their second win of the weekend over a ranked opponent as they improve to 3-1 on the dual season. The Tigers opened the day with back-to-back major decision wins by Kyle Bradley and Drake Houdashelt. They won three of their next four matches to go up 17-3, and Alan Waters' technical fall at 125 put the match out of reach, making it 22-6. Brandon Wiest finished off the day just as the Tigers had started it, scoring one last major decision. Two of Missouri's three losses on the afternoon came to top-five grapplers, as Nathan McCormick dropped a 9-5 contest to No. 5 Ryan Mango, while Dorian Henderson fell to No. 1 Nick Amuchastegui, 3-0.

NO. 13 TIGERS DEFEAT NO. 17 OSU, 21-18

No. 5 Alan Waters scored a technical fall in his first match back from injury and Mike Larson won by major decision at 184 pounds to pace No. 13 Missouri's 21-18 victory over No. 17 Oregon State. The Tigers won six of the 10 matches to secure the match over the Beavers, who scored pins in the last two matches of the night to trim the lead. After Waters' technical fall, McCormick scored a decision to put the Tigers ahead 8-0. Oregon State won the next two matches to cut the lead to 8-6, but Missouri clinched the dual with four straight victories, including Larson's major at 184. Brent Haynes lost to a defensive pin and Devin Mellon was pinned by No. 8 Clayton Jack to close out the match, but it wasn't enough to overcome Mizzou's lead.

WRIGHT, NEELY WIN OPEN TITLES

Twenty-three members of the Missouri wrestling team competed at the Joe Parisi Wrestling Open over the weekend, hosted by Lindenwood University. Of those 23 grapplers, nine earned places in the top-four of their weight class, with senior Patrick Wright (174) and junior Clarence Neely (184) finishing in first place to lead the way for Missouri.

Finishing in second place for Missouri was Kellen Bounous at 149 pounds. Taking third on the day were Jordan Gagliano (165) and Todd Porter (174). Eric Wilson (133), Ty Prazma (165), Johnny Eblen (184) and Ryan Robinson (197) each finished in fourth place in their respective classes. The tournament did not record fifth or sixth place finishes, of which Missouri would have had three.

TIGERS FALL TO NO. 12 SOONERS, 19-18

The No. 9 Missouri wrestling team fell behind early against the No. 12 Oklahoma Sooners and couldn't overcome the deficit as they dropped the Big 12 Conference opener on Friday night. Missouri had to forfeit the 125 pound match and the Sooners would win three of the next four matches to jump ahead. Nathan McCormick knocked off No. 11 Jordan Keller to cut the lead in half, but OU recorded 10 points with three straight wins to go up 16-6. Missouri took four of the last five with wins by Zach Toal, Dorian Henderson and Devin Mellon, along with a forfeit at 197 pounds, but Oklahoma's win by No. 18 Erich Schmidtke at 184 sealed the victory for Oklahoma.

BIG 12 DUAL CHAMPIONS

With just four teams in the Big 12 this year, there have been a few format changes to the league. The most notable is how every team will face each other twice during the regular season, with one match at each team's venue. With the six conference duals, the league will crown a dual champion for the first time in Big 12 history, given to the team with the best conference dual record at the end of the season.

15 TIGERS PLACE AT UCM OPEN

While Missouri was facing off against Purdue to open the season, the rest of the squad was out at the University of Central Missouri Open for the squad's first open tournament of the season. Of the Tigers that competed, 15 came back having placed in the top-six of their respective classes. Leading the way for the Tigers were Nicholas Hucke (141), Austin Lindsay (157) and Todd Porter (174), who each took second place. Finishing in third were Eric Wilson (133), Ty Prazma (165), Patrick Wright (174) and Johnny Eblen (184). Simon Kitzis (141), and Kellen Bounous (149) finished fourth, while Trevor Wiest (149) placed fifth. Boomer Boyd (125), Mike Schmidt (133), Clarence Neely (184), Justin Heberlie (197) and Jake Gloré (HWT) each finished in sixth place.

NO. 9 TIGERS ROLL BY PURDUE, 21-15

The No. 9 Missouri wrestling team opened their season with an impressive 21-15 win over the Purdue Boilermakers. The Tigers overcame a forfeit at 125 to open the match by winning six of the nine remaining contests on their way to win No. 1 on the year.

Down 6-0 right off the bat, Missouri won six of their next seven matches to take a commanding lead. Junior Nathan McCormick scored two takedowns in the final minute to send his match to OT, where he scored the winning takedown in seven seconds. Brandon Wiest recorded his first career dual win, while Drake Houdashelt scored an 11-4 decision in his first collegiate match. Zach Toal won 7-4 over his opponent, and Dorian Henderson gave the Tigers a huge lead when he pinned his foe in just 18 seconds. Mike Larson coasted to a 6-1 win to help clinch the match for the Tigers.

SIX SIGN FOR 2012-13

The Missouri wrestling program announced the addition of six future student-athletes that signed their National Letter of Intent on Wednesday. Joining the Missouri program starting in the 2012-13 season will be Tony Deangelo (Burlington, N.C.), Cody Hummer (Savannah, Mo.), Matt Manley (Perry, Okla.), Willie Miklus (Polk, Iowa), Austin Roper (Kirkville, Mo.) and Marc Schmidt (Centralia, Mo.)

TIGERS OPEN SEASON RANKED NINTH

The University of Missouri wrestling program opens up the season ranked No. 9 in the country, as announced Wednesday morning by the National Wrestling Coaches Association (NWCA). This is the 10th straight year that the Tigers have started the season with a top-15 ranking. Of Missouri's 10 different dual opponents scheduled for the season, six find themselves within the top-25. Oklahoma State leads the way in third, while Oklahoma is just behind Mizzou at 10th. Oregon State is ranked 18th, while Iowa State, Stanford and Kent State are ranked No. 20, 21 and 24, respectively. Purdue, the Tigers' season opening matchup, is receiving votes.

BRADLEY TAKES FIRST AT OPEN

Missouri heavyweight wrestler Dom Bradley took first place at the Sunkist Kids International Open in Mesa, Ariz., on Sunday, Oct. 31. Bradley, wrestling for the Sunkist Kids Wrestling Club, opened up action in the 120KG/264.5 lbs. freestyle class with a 3-2, 8-1 decision over Charles Fish of the Marines. He then dominated Florian Temengil of Team Palau in the finals, winning 5-0, 6-0. This is the second tournament title for Bradley this year, as he won University Nationals gold back in April.

TWO TIGERS AMONGST FIRST TRIALS QUALIFIERS

Missouri senior heavyweight Dom Bradley (120 kg/264.5 lbs.) and former Tiger All-American and current strength and conditioning coach Nicholas Marable (74 kg/163 lbs) are amongst the first qualifiers for the 2012 U.S. Olympic Team Trials, set to take place April 21-22 in Iowa City, Iowa. USA Wrestling released the initial list of qualifiers, which includes 65 wrestlers across three different Olympic styles. Marable and Bradley each qualified due to having won their true third place match at the 2011 World Team Trials back in June. Bradley is taking an Olympic redshirt this season to pursue this opportunity to make Team USA.

NCAA CHAMPIONSHIPS RETURN IN 2012

The NCAA Wrestling Championships will return to the Midwest in 2012, as the event heads back to St. Louis, Mo., after a two year hiatus. The three day tournament will run from March 15-17 and be held at the Scottrade Center.

MIZZOU TO HOST BIG 12'S

For the fourth time in program history and first time since 2007, the University of Missouri will play host to the Big 12 Wrestling Championships, held in the Hearnes Center. The event will take place on Saturday, March 3, 2012. Stay tuned for ticket information.

BACK-TO-BACK ALL-AMERICANS

In Missouri wrestling's 65 years, nine Tigers have earned back-to-back All-America honors. 32 Tigers have collected 48 honors with 13 earning two or more accolades, but only Dave Young (1981-82), Shaon Fry (1993-94), Scott Barker (2002-03), Ben Askren (2004-07), Tyler McCormick (2006-07), Nicholas Marable (2008-09), Maxwell Askren (2008-10), Raymond Jordan (2008-09) and Mark Ellis (2009-10) managed top eight finishes in consecutive years.

BRIAN SMITH

Head Coach | 14th Season

Beginning his career as Missouri's seventh Head Wrestling Coach, Brian Smith sat down with his team and made a list of goals that he hoped to help the 1998 squad and future Tiger teams accomplish. Over the past 13 years, the Missouri program has slowly but surely checked items off the list. Individual Big 12 Conference Champions, improved grade-point averages, record-setting attendances, a No. 1 national ranking and Missouri's first-ever NCAA National Champion in wrestling were all on Smith's "to-do" list. His unique TigerStyle training program has molded today's team into a national powerhouse that looks to contend for the program's first NCAA title.

Since being introduced as Missouri's Head Wrestling Coach May 5, 1998, Smith has demanded nothing but the best from himself, his coaches and his wrestlers. Owning 10 consecutive seasons with a dual record at or above .500, beginning with 2001-02, Smith has coached 15 All-Americans to 27 top-eight performances and three Tigers to four national titles.

Smith's teams have made a remarkable turnaround. Inheriting a program that had not seen a winning record since the 1991-92 campaign, the Tigers are now continuously ranked among the top-10 in the nation, reaching as high as No. 1 during the course of the 2006-07 campaign. On Dec. 12, 2006, the Missouri wrestling team became just the 11th wrestling program in history to earn a No. 1 ranking.

In 2003, Smith helped his team to its highest Big 12 tournament finish ever (second), a feat the team repeated at home in the Hearnes Center in 2007 and again in Ames in 2011.

The 2010-11 squad also accomplished something that no other Tiger team had done before, as they took home the team title at the 2010 Midlands Championships. Despite not having a single finalist, the Tigers cruised past the rest of the field with 103.5 points. Mizzou ended up placing six wrestlers overall, with freshman Alan Waters leading the way with a third place finish at 125 pounds.

The winningest coach in program history, Smith has compiled a 159-80-2 record at Missouri and became only the second Tiger wrestling coach to reach the 100-win plateau. In May of 2007, Smith's hard work paid off as he earned the Dan Gable Coach of the Year Award as presented by W.I.N. Magazine.

The demands that Smith puts on his wrestlers extend well beyond the mat. In the fall of 2002, his team had a grade-point average of 2.81, the highest GPA for a Missouri wrestling team under Coach Smith. In 2010, Smith had eight wrestlers with GPAs over 3.0. In all, 21 wrestlers have been recognized by the National Wrestling Coaches Association (NWCA), Big 12 and CoSIDA for their academic achievements since he took the reins in 1998.

Smith's collegiate coaching career began at Cornell University in 1992. While an assistant at Cornell, he put together two of the nation's top-10 recruiting classes, a feat he accomplished without athletic scholarships, (Ivy League schools do not offer athletic scholarships). Those recruiting classes helped Cornell take two Ivy League Championships, a 10th-place finish at the 1993 NCAA Championships and a 17th-place finish in 1994. At the 1994 NCAA Championships, one of Smith's top athletes, David Hirsch, became Cornell's first national champion since 1960.

A competitor himself, Smith was a three-time All-Big Ten wrestler and a four-time letterman at Michigan State from 1986-1990. As a senior, he was selected as the Spartan's Most Outstanding Wrestler. Competing at 126-pounds, Smith finished fifth at the Big Ten Championships in 1988, third in 1989 and second in 1990. Smith stands among the top-25 on Michigan State's all-time wins list with 84 career victories as a Spartan. He also stands tied for 19th on MSU's single-season wins list with 32 victories in 1990.

The Florida native graduated from Michigan State with a degree in education and married the former Denise Dean in 1993. Brian and Denise, have three children, Quinn (17), Kylie (15) and Braden (11). In the spring of 2009, Smith received his Master's Degree in Athletic Administration from William Woods University.
