TIGERS HOST ORAL ROBERTS FOR TWIN DAY

Mizzou returns home after the University of Miami Thanksgiving Tournament to host Oral Roberts on Wednesday, Dec. 4. Wednesday will mark Twin Day, and fans who dress as twins will receive two admissions for the price of one. There will also be a Twin Combo Pack available at concession stands. For just $13, fans can purchase two regular drinks and two boxes of popcorn. The Tigers and the Golden Eagles have met five times in program history, and Mizzou owns a 5-0 record over ORU. The two schools last met On February 9, 1995 in a 81-59 Tiger win.

UP NEXT

Mizzou will welcome the Bradley Braves on Sunday in a 2 p.m. contest. The Tigers have an 8-2 advantage over the Braves in program history, and the two teams last met in 2009. The Tigers traveled to Peoria, Ill. and returned with a 52-46 victory.

SCOUTING ORAL ROBERTS

The Golden Eagles are 1-5 on the season, with their only win coming against USAO in their season-opening contest. The team has fallen to tough opponents including Kansas, Arkansas and Navy. Oral Roberts is led this season by senior Christian Key and freshman Alexus Wilson who both average 10.8 points per game. Also averaging over 10 points per game is freshman Kaylan Mayberry. The Golden Eagles were chosen second in the Southland Conference Preseason Polls and senior Sarah Shelton, who leads the team with 9.3 rebounds per game, was named to the All-SLC second team.

LAST TIME OUT

• Bri Kulas and Morgan Eye earned All-Tournament honors at the University of Miami Thanksgiving Tournament. The Tigers came home with a second place finish, topping Hartford and falling to Miami.

• Morgan Eye knocked down nine three-pointers for a season-high 27 points in the Tigers loss to Miami. Senior Bri Kulas recorded her sixth career double-double in the contest as well.

• Mizzou held Hartford to just 19-percent shooting from the three-point line in their win.

• Missouri's win over Hartford marked head coach Robin Pingeton's 50th win at Mizzou.

• The Tigers win over Hartford marked the first time since the 1982-83 season that Mizzou started the year off 7-0.

QUICK HITS

• Despite a tough loss to Miami, things are looking up for the Tigers. Mizzou holds a 13-1 record in games following Thanksgiving Tournaments through the past 15 years.

• As the team, the Tigers aim for 80-percent free-throw shooting during practices and in games. So far this season the Tigers have done a great job of sticking to that goal as the team leads the SEC with a 79.2 free throw shooting percentage. Amongst individual leaders, senior Bri Kulas is shooting 88.4 percent from the line, good for third in the league.

• Off to a 7-1 start this season, The Tigers are continuing to lay the foundation of Robin Pingeton's program at Mizzou. The last time a Mizzou team started the season with a 7-0 record was the 1982-83 season. The next-best start to the season was when the Tigers kicked off the 1997-98 year with a 6-0 record.

• Mizzou is on its way to one of the best non-conference seasons to date. Missouri is 7-1 in the non-con and will look to top the 2011-12 season when the team finished 10-1. The 10-1 record is the best for a Mizzou team since 2006-07 when the Tigers finished non-conference play with a 12-1 record.

SEC Tournament

• This season the Tigers are averaging 5.6 blocks per game, a number that ranks third in the SEC and 18th in the nation. The number is much improved from last season when the Tigers averaged 2.3 blocks per game. Freshman Jordan Frericks is dominating in this category, she leads the team with 18 blocks on the season, good for an average of 2.3 per game (third-best in the SEC).

• Two categories that Mizzou was very good in a year ago, it is dominating in again this season. The Tigers are among leaders in the SEC (2nd) in defensive rebounding at 30.9 per game and are also fourth in assist-to-turnover ratio at 1.1.

• It's no secret that Mizzou can burn its opponents from distance and so far this season, the Tigers have not disappointed. Mizzou leads the league averaging 8.9 three-point makes per game. The number is the 14th-best in the nation.

• The Tigers are undefeated on their home court this season, looking to extend their home win streak to five against Oral Roberts. The Tigers average scoring margin is +15.0 in Columbia so far this season.

RECORD WATCH

• Junior Morgan Eye is just two three-pointers away from knocking down her 200th trey. With 198 in her career, Eye sits second all-time at Mizzou. She is well on her way to breaking that record, however. Eye needs only 29 treys to put herself at the top of the list.

• Head Coach Robin Pingeton earned her 50th victory at Mizzou in the Tigers win over Hartford at the University of Miami Thanksgiving Tournament. The Tigers' victory over SIUE marks women's basketball's 90th victory in Mizzou Arena.

KUDOS FOR KULAS

• Senior leader Bri Kulas leads the Tigers in several categories this season. She is averaging a team-leading 16.6. points per game, good for third-best in the Southeastern Conference.

• Kulas is shooting 88.4-percent from the free throw line, good for third-best in the league as well. She plays a huge part in Missouri's league-leading free throw percentage as well.

• She has recorded double figure scoring in all but one game this season (SLU) including two 20+ point performances.

FRERICKS ON FIRE

• A large component of Missouri's 5.6 blocks per game is freshman Jordan Frericks. She dominating in this category, leading the team with 18 blocks on the season, good for an average of 2.3 per game (third-best in the SEC). The number puts her at No. 43 in the nation as well.

• Frericks' seven blocked shots at UT Martin are an SEC Game high this season, as well.

• Jordan Frericks is doing her part to contribute to the defensive-minded team this season as she leads the team and the league with an average of 6.0 defensive rebounds per game. Her 8.6 rebounds per game also put her fifth in the conference. Missouri is second the SEC in defensive rebounding at 30.9 per game.

ON POINT

• Sophomore point guard Lianna Doty is averaging a team-leading 6.6 assists per game this season, a number that also ranks her third in the SEC and 20th in the nation.

• At this rate, Doty is on track to finish second on Missouri's all-time individual season assists list.

• Her 10 assists against UMKC mark a season and career high for Doty, and also contributed to her second-career double-double.

• She put up a career-high 21 points against UMKC and matched her best of six steals in the game as well.

• Was driven to succeed this summer as she inspired her team to participate in a 25,000-shot challenge in their free time this summer. The work is paying off for Doty as she has improved her shooting percentage this season.

SHARING IS CARING

• The Tigers are playing unselfish basketball this season, as the team has assisted on 135-of-195 field goals (69%). The Tigers average 16.9 assists per game thanks to sophomore point guard Lianna Doty who leads the team with 53 assists on the season.

• Mizzou's 16.9 assists per game rank the Tigers sixth in the league.

• A stat that speaks even more about the Tigers' depth and balance in scoring is the fact that seven players have scored 15 or more points this season in different games as the scoring has been spread around quite equally.

KULAS NAMED SEC PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Senior forward Bri Kulas was named SEC Co-Player of the Week on Monday (Nov. 25) by the league office. The award comes after Kulas recorded a career performance to top Southeast Missouri and also secured the win over UT Martin with two last-second free throws. The award is the first for Kulas in her career at Mizzou. Kulas averaged 21.5 points per game last week, recording a career-high 27 points in Mizzou's win over SEMO last Thursday. She again reached double-figures at UT Martin and knocked down two last-second free throws to secure the win for the Tigers. She finished the week with 13 rebounds and six assists, as well. Kulas is averaging a team-leading 16.2 points per game this season.

TIGERS ADD TWO FOR 2014-15

Missouri natives Carrie Shephard and Abrianna Porter have signed national letters of intent to join the Mizzou squad next season.

CARRIE SHEPHARD // 5-6 // G // STEELE, MO. (SOUTH PEMISCOT HIGH SCHOOL)

• Native of Steele, Mo., Carrie Shephard will join the Tigers after finishing her career at South Pemiscot High School. Shephard was named 2013 MBCA Class 2 Player of the Year, and reached 1,000 points during her sophomore season. Shooting 51-percent from the floor, she averaged 35 points per game, 7.0 assists, 9.6 rebounds and 4.5 steals per game in her junior year, leading up to Class 2 Player of the Year honors. This season she is the Varsity Captain of the South Pemiscot Bulldogs, and she is a two-time All-State selection. She is also a two-time all-Region, All-District and All-Conference selection as well. In addition to basketball, Shephard is very active at South Pemiscot as she plays softball and volleyball, earning All-Conference honors in both sports as well. She has spent the last six years as Student Class President, and she is a member of the National Honor Society. Boasting a 3.875 grade point average, Shephard is as talented in the classroom as she is on the court.

ABRIANNA PORTER // 6-2 // F // COLUMBIA, MO. (ROCK BRIDGE HIGH SCHOOL)

• Abrianna Porter will join the Tigers after finishing her high school career under Rock Bridge head coach Jill Nagel. Porter is a highly touted recruit, sitting at No. 41 on ESPNU Hoop Gurlz 100. She is also ranked No. 40 by Premier Girls Basketball Report. She was awarded All-District honors in her freshman and sophomore seasons, and was named to the Jeff City Jays Holiday Classic All-Tournament team in 2010. She also earned All-Tournament honors in 2011 at the KTXR Lady Classic, and led her team shooting 61-percent from the floor that season. Porter is just as highly touted in the classroom as she is on the court. She is an Advanced Placement Scholar with Distinction award winner and a National Merit Semifinalist as well, and she boasts a 3.97 grade point average.

EXHIBITION NOTES

• Missouri's five newcomers accounted for 30 of Mizzou's 79 points against Southwest Baptist. Leading the newcomers was freshman Jordan Frericks who put up a 16 points and shot 86-percent from the field.

• Senior Bri Kulas picked up where she left off last season, recording 16 points and 11 rebounds against Southwest Baptist, which would've been her sixth career double-double at Mizzou. She reached double figures again against Quincy as she tallied 11 points.

• Sophomore Morgan Stock went 4-for-6 on the floor against Southwest Baptist and racked up what would be a career-best 11 points. It was twin sister, Maddie Stock's turn against Quincy, however. Maddie Stock also went 4-for-6 from the field, all of which came from beyond the arc, for a team-leading 12 points in the game.

• Missouri had nine players put points on the board against both SW Baptist, five of which hit double figures. Nine players also hit double figures against Quincy, but Bri Kulas was the only Tiger to do so in both contests.

• Freshman Kayla McDowell grabbed 10 rebounds against Quincy, good for a game high mark. She was just two points away from a double-double as she knocked in four of nine shots on the night.

2012-13 SEASON SUPERLATIVES

• The Tigers' 88-64 win at Alabama last season marked Mizzou's 17th win this season. That is the most for Mizzou since the 2006-07 season when the team went 17-14 overall, earning a berth in the WNIT Tournament. The Tigers earned six conference wins last season as well, marking the first time they have done that since the 2005-06 season when Mizzou finished 10-6 in Big 12 play.

• The Tigers' 65-58 win over No. 14 South Carolina marked their second win over a top-15 program last season. The last time Mizzou won a pair of games over top-15 competition was the 2000-01 season when Mizzou advanced to the NCAA Tournament Sweet 16. Mizzou defeated No. 12 Texas and No. 4 Georgia that season.

• The Tigers continue to show improvement as a team under the direction of fourth-year head coach Robin Pingeton. Last season, the Tigers improved on their 2011-12 stats in several categories. Mizzou finished with an improved field goal percentage (.416), more rebounds per game (38.8), more points per game (65.6), more assists per game (15.4), fewer turnovers, more 3-point field goals (8.2 per game) and more steals (6.7 per game). Mizzou also outscored its opponents in a full season for the first time since the 2009-10 season.

• The Tigers' win over No. 9 Tennessee marked the first time since Jan. 23, 2010 that a Mizzou team has defeated a top 10 opponent. In 2010 the Tigers knocked down No. 10 Baylor, 70-62.

MIZZOU 74, SAINT LOUIS 59

St. Louis, Mo. - Women's Basketball earned its first win of the season at Saint Louis on Friday evening (Nov. 8). The Tigers sailed to a 74-59 victory over the Billikens, led by freshman Kayla McDowell. Earning her first-career double-double, McDowell finished with 19 points and 10 rebounds for Mizzou. Overall, Mizzou's crop of four newcomers accounted for 34 points in tonight's victory.

McDowell earned the start in the season opening contest and did not disappoint as she put up a team-leading seven points in the first half and grabbed four defensive rebounds. Freshman Jordan Frericks was also a defensive asset, tallying six rebounds in the first half. Missouri dominated in the lane as the Tigers hit 18 points in the paint to the Billikens' four in the first half.

Missouri defense started off strong, as the Tigers held off the Billikens for the first four minutes of the game. Mizzou led Saint Louis 4-0 to start off the game, and held the lead until close to halftime. Saint Louis' Sadie Stipanovich, daughter of Mizzou great, Steve Stipanovich, hit a jumper with just over two minutes in the half to bring the Billikens within two. A breakaway layup for the Billikens tied things up at 32 less than 30 seconds later. Junior Morgan Eye took control of the situation and put Mizzou back in the lead with a clutch three-pointer.

Mizzou held on to the lead through the second half with McDowell and Frericks continuing to show their strength on the floor. Frericks finished the game just one point away from her first-career double double. The Billikens kept the pressure on the Tigers in the second half, but the Tigers capitalized on Saint Louis fouls, making 21 of 23 shots from the charity stripe in the game. Junior Bree Fowler turned it on in the second half, stepping into more of a leadership role as she scored all seven of her game points after the halftime break.

MIZZOU 59, SIUE 48

Columbia, Mo. - Mizzou Women's Basketball opened the 2013-14 home slate Sunday, earning a 59-48 victory over SIUE at Mizzou Arena to improve to 2-0 on the season. Forwards Bri Kulas and Jordan Frericks scored the first 10 points for Mizzou to start the second half, helping the Tigers pull away and establish a double-digit lead and coast to a home-opening win.

Sophomore Morgan Stock came off the bench in the second game of the season, knocking down two three-pointers and a jump shot to give the Tigers a quick 13-11 advantage in the first half. She finished the game with a career-high 15 points behind a 5-for-10 effort from the field.

The Tigers and the Cougars traded baskets for most of the first half until Mizzou put together a 7-0 run with seven minutes left. Sophomore point guard Lianna Doty assisted on two transition buckets and Kulas followed with a long ball to give the Tigers a 22-15 lead. Doty tallied eight assists, seven rebounds and four steals in 35 productive minutes of play.

After shooting 16 three-pointers in the first twenty minutes, Missouri chose to attack the paint in the second half. The Tiger bigs combined for 21 of the team's 32 second-half points. SIUE switched to a zone defense and challenged Missouri's guards to step up; Morgan Stock capitalized. Her third three-pointer of the afternoon handed her team a 50-37 lead with just under eight minutes to play and the Tigers never looked back.

Kulas posted a game-high 16 points, providing the Tigers with a lethal inside-outside attack down the stretch. She sealed the deal with a bucket 2:30 mark for a final score of 59-48. The Tigers improved to 2-0 on the young season.

2013-14 Mizzou Women's Basketball

Thursday, Nov. 14 // 7 p.m.

MIZZOU 78, EVANSVILLE 43

Columbia, Mo. - Hot shooting from beyond the arc propelled the Missouri Women's basketball team to a 78-43 win over the Evansville Purple Aces on Thursday at Mizzou Arena. The victory is the Tigers third straight to start the season.

A heavy dose of Bri Kulas in the opening minutes helped Missouri grab an early 11-7 lead. The senior captain scored nine of the team's first 11 points. After drilling a contested three-pointer, she blocked a shot on the ensuing defensive possession. From then on, Evansville began double-teaming Kulas, allowing her to dish to fellow forward Jordan Frericksfor an easy lay-up.

With so much attention being focused on the post, Missouri's sharpshooters found open looks from long range. Morgan Stock buried two quick three-pointers off the bench and Tania Jacksonnailed her first trey ball of the season to give the Tigers a 21-9 advantage with 12 minutes left in the first half.

Mizzou poured in 15 total three-pointers and rode 45-percent shooting from the field to sustain its lead throughout the game. Seven different Tigers made a shot from beyond the arc. Freshman Sierra Michaelisgot in on the action in the second half. Her back-to-back long balls with 11 minutes to go handed Missouri a 27-point lead. She finished with a career-high 10 points.

Stock tallied 15 points behind five three-pointers, matching her performance from Sunday's win over SIUE. Missouri's bench contributed 43 points, good for more than half of the team's total.

Despite the efficient shooting from the Tiger guards, the post players led the way in scoring. Frericks earned her first career double-double with 11 points and 13 rebounds. Kulas added a team-high 16 points.

MIZZOU 62, SEMO 57

Columbia, Mo. - The Missouri Women's Basketball team opened up the second half with a 17-4 run, and held off a late SEMO rally to earn a 62-57 victory Thursday at Mizzou Arena. Senior Bri Kulas posted a career-high 27 points on 10-19 shooting en route to the Tigers fourth straight win to start the 2013-2014 campaign.

Missouri cruised past Evansville last week with efficient shooting from long range and this week the Tigers showed their versatility by overwhelming SEMO down low. The Redhawks had no answer down the stretch as Mizzou scored 20 points in the paint in the second half to earn the gritty win. Two Redhawks forwards spent most of the night in foul trouble, a byproduct of Kulas and company attacking the basket en route easy buckets.

Kulas, a senior, set the tone early, recording each of Missouri's first eight points. However, SEMO battled back behind hot shooting from Kara Wright. The sophomore guard scored a team-high 26 points. She hit four three-pointers in the first half, allowing the Redhawks to build a 32-23 lead at halftime.

Mizzou flipped the script in the second half. The Tigers pulled within one after a Kulas layup with just under 15 minutes to go. On the ensuing possession, Missouri's pressure defense forced a turnover. Kulas capitalized, netting a jumper on the offensive end to hand the Tigers the lead. Freshmen forwards Kayla McDowell and Jordan Frericks followed with back-to-back buckets and SEMO never led again. McDowell and Frericks combined for 15 points and 11 rebounds to complement Kulas' big night and after hitting four treys in the first half, Wright would not get off another attempt from deep in the second half.

With two minutes left, the Redhawks closed the gap, clipping Missouri's lead to 60-57. But Maddie Stock and Bree Fowler iced the game with clutch free throws to help the Tigers improve to 4-0 on the season.

Saturday, Nov. 23 // 7 p.m.

MIZZOU 77, UT MARTIN 74

Martin, Tenn. - Morgan Eye hit eight three-pointers in the second half to spark a 77-74 comeback win for the Tigers at Tennessee-Martin on Saturday night (Nov. 23). Freshman Jordan Frericks clinched the win for the Tigers with just 1.5 seconds on the clock as the Tigers and the Skyhawks traded baskets within the last few seconds of play. Bri Kulas hit two last-second free throws to secure the victory and Missouri improves to 5-0 on the season.

Eye hit nine threes in the game and tallied 27 points overall to give the Tigers their fifth win of the season. Frericks recorded her second double-double of the season with 10 points and 17 rebounds as well. Kulas also finished in double-figures for her fourth straight game with a total of 16 points on the night.

Eye sparked a second half run for the Tigers as she hit three three-pointers in a row to help build momentum. Lianna Doty added another three for the Tigers to bring Mizzou within seven points. Tennessee-Martin was tough to stop, however. The Tigers took their first lead of the game with five minutes on the clock.

Missouri went into the locker room trailing UT Martin 37-26, after a fast-paced first half of play. The Skyhawk's Heather Butler recorded 21 points in the first half to give UT Martin the boost it needed to maintain the lead. Freshman Jordan Frericks grabbed 10 rebounds for the Tigers in the first half, and senior Bri Kulas lead the scoring with seven points. The Tigers played strong team basketball, assisting on seven of their 10 first-half field goals.

MIZZOU 78, UMKC 69

Columbia, Mo. - It was a career night for Tiger sophomore Lianna Doty as she led the Tigers to a 78-69 win over UMKC on Tuesday (Nov. 26). For the second time as a collegian, Doty tallied a double-double with career-highs of 21 points and 10 assists to go with a career-high six steals.

Bri Kulas added 15 points, while Maddie Stock chipped in 14 points off the bench for the Tigers, who improved to 6-0 on the season with the win. Mizzou forced 20 turnovers for the second time in three games, and the Tigers also continued its season-long streak of posting a positive assist-to-turnover ratio in every game.

The game was a back-and-forth affair for much of the first half, and the Kangaroos took a 38-37 lead into the locker room. But Doty's three-pointer with 18:22 left in the game put the Tigers on top, and Kulas followed suit just 21 seconds later after a Morgan Eye steal to push the lead to five. Mizzou never looked back following that sequence; in fact, the Tigers held UMKC without a field goal for a span of over eight minutes late in the game to put the game comfortably away.

MIZZOU 68, HARTFORD 45

Coral Gables, Fla. - The Mizzou Tigers earned their seventh win of the season (7-0 overall) on Friday, topping the Hartford Hawks, 68-45 in the first game of the University of Miami Thanksgiving Tournament. Senior Bri Kulas led the Tigers with 24 points on the night, followed by freshman Jordan Frericks who recorded a career-high 13 points on the night.

The Tigers shot 40-percent from the field on the night and held the Hawks to just 19-percent from beyond the arc.

The Tigers started off the first half trading buckets with the Hawks, but with 8:44 left in the half Mizzou went on a 13-0 run and never looked back. The Tigers held the Hawks to just 22 first-half points, none from the charity stripe. The Tigers also outscored the Hawks 18-2 in the paint through the first half. Kulas' leadership skills were evident in the half as she led the team with 17 points before the break.

Hartford picked up steam coming out of the locker room reducing the Tigers lead to just six points, but Frericks was sent to the free throw line to help turn the Tigers around. Frericks finished the game with a career high 13 points overall. Her eight rebounds on the night contributed to Missouri's domination on the glass as well. The Tigers outrebounded the Hawks, 49-30.

Missouri went on a 15-0 run from 10:28 to 1:29 in the second half, holding off the Hawks for about 10 minutes. The Hawks scored with 10:56 on the clock and did not record any points until just before the final minute of the game.

MIAMI 74, MIZZOU 68

Columbia, Mo. - Senior Bri Kulas and Junior Morgan Eye earned All-Tournament honors at this weekend's University of Miami Thanksgiving Tournament after a combined 40-point performance. The Tigers finished second in the tournament with a win over Hartford and a loss to Miami. Eye's 27-point effort was not enough to hold off the Miami Hurricanes on Saturday (Nov. 30) as the Tigers dropped to the `Canes 74-68. The loss is Mizzou's first of the season, dropping the team to 7-1 overall.

Kulas earned her sixth-career double-double with 13 points and 14 rebounds on the night. She was 6-for-6 from the charity stripe. Overall, Missouri shot 92-percent from the free throw line, capitalizing on Miami fouls.

Mizzou started off the first half 7 taking an 8-0 lead over Miami, and Mizzou held on to the lead for most of the half thanks to a 5-for-7 three-point shooting effort from junior Morgan Eye. The Hurricanes picked up momentum and were able to tie things up at 22 with just over six minutes left in the half. The two teams went back-and-forth until the final seconds of play when sophomore Michelle Hudyn made a jumper to give Mizzou a three point lead heading into the locker room at halftime. Using a defensive mindset, the Tigers held the `Canes to just 28.6-percent shooting in the first half.

The two teams came out of the locker room ready to fight, and traded the lead for much of the second half. Junior Bree Fowler put up all of her career-high 10 points in the second half, going 2-for-2 from distance in the half.

#20 KAYLA McDOWELL

FRESHMAN SEASON

- Started the season off with a spot in the starting lineup and recorded her first-career double-double as she racked up 19 points and grabbed 10 rebounds at Saint Louis. Proved to be an important component to the Tigers chemistry on the floor and will look to make an even bigger impact as the season continues.
- Appeared in her second game as a Tiger in Mizzou Arena as the Tigers took on SIUE.
- Is almost perfect from the charity stripe this season, sinking all 10 of her 11 attempts, seven coming in Mizzou's season opener at Saint Louis.
- She has played in each of Mizzou's contests thus far, recording at least one board in each contest.

#22 JORDAN FRERICKS

FRESHMAN SEASON

- Earned a spot in Mizzou's starting lineup in her first outing as a Tiger, and she finished the game just one point short of a double-double. She is an aggressive asset on the floor for Mizzou.
- Made her first appearance in Mizzou Arena against SIUE.
- Earned her first-career double-double with a career-high 11 points and 13 rebounds against Evansville. Also snagged a career-high five steals in the contest.
- Again improved on her career-high marks, grabbing six steals against SEMO. She leads the team with a total of 16 on the season.
- She is second in the league with her six defensive rebounds per game and sits in fifth (50th in the nation) for her 8.6 rebounds per game.
- She also averages 2.3 blocks per game, third-best in the conference. The number puts her at No. 43 in the nation as well.
- Sunk a layup in the last 1.5 seconds of play against UT Martin to give the Tigers a one point advantage.
- Set a new career high with 13 points against Hartford.

#30 MORGAN EYE

JUNIOR SEASON
- Graduated to the starting lineup this season, and played 33 minutes in the Tigers' season opener at Saint Louis. She finished in double figures with 12 points and dished two assists to contribute to Mizzou's 79-54 victory.
- Is becoming a consistent staple in the Tiger starting lineup.
- Contributed six points and four rebounds against Evansville.
- Knocked down nine three-pointers against UT Martin to spark a huge comback win. The nine threes are one more than her record-breaking performance against UT Martin last season. She again hit nine treys against Miami.
- She ranks third in the conference and 42nd in the nation for her 2.9 treys per game this season.
